INTRODUCTION

The following introduction briefly describes the transaction that is the subject of this offer document (the "Offer Document").

This Offer Document incorporates by reference the Prospectus, including the risk factors specific to the Offeror and the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares described therein. The Offer Document must be read in conjunction with (and as mutual integration of) the Prospectus.

For the purposes of a full assessment of the terms and conditions of the transaction, it is recommended that you carefully read Section A"Notices" and, in any event, the entire Offer Document.

The data and information relating to the Issuer and the MPS Group contained in this Offer Document are based exclusively on data and information available to the public as at the Date of the Offer Document (including those available on the Issuer's website, gruppomps.it).

1. Purpose of the Offer

The transaction described in the Offer Document consists of a voluntary, total public tender and exchange offer (the "Offer"), promoted by Intesa Sanpaolo S.p.A. ("Intesa Sanpaolo" or the "Offeror") – pursuant to and for the purposes of articles 102 and 106, paragraph 4 of Legislative Decree No. 58 of 24 February 1998, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the "Consolidated Law on Finance"), as well as the applicable implementing provisions contained in the regulations governing issuers, adopted by CONSOB with Resolution No. 11971 of 14 May 1999, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the "Issuers' Regulation") – for a maximum of 3,037,594,735 ordinary shares of Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena S.p.A. ("MPS" or the "Issuer"), a company with shares admitted to trading on Euronext Milan ("Euronext Milan"), a regulated market organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A. ("Borsa Italiana") representing 99.973% (rounded to the third decimal place) of MPS's share capital – equal to the total number of ordinary shares of MPS (i.e., as of the Date of the Offer Document, 3,038,418,183) (the "Issuer's Shares") excluding the Issuer's Shares held by the Offeror (amounting, as of the Date of the Offer Document, to 823,448 – representing 0.027% (rounded to the third decimal place) of MPS's share capital.

It is pointed out that, on 10 March 2026, the Board of Directors of MPS and the Board of Directors of Mediobanca – Banca di Credito Finanziario S.p.A. ("MB") approved the proposed merger by incorporation of MB into the Issuer (the "MB Merger"). For further information, please refer to the relevant press release available on the Issuer's website, gruppomps.it/media-e-news/comunicati.

In addition, as announced on 22 June 2026, the Boards of Directors of MPS, Mediobanca Premier S.p.A. ("MB Premier") and Wise Dialog Bank S.p.A. ("Banca Widiba") approved, on the same date, the proposed demerger of MPS in favour (following the effectiveness of the MB Merger) of MB Premier (the "Demerger") and the proposed partial demerger of MB Premier in favour of Banca Widiba (the "Partial Demerger" and, together with the Demerger, the "Demergers"), specifying that the resolutions adopted in relation to the Demergers form part of the ongoing implementation of the MPS Group's reorganisation plan, approved on 17 February 2026, which provides for, inter alia, the MB Merger (for further information, see the relevant press release available on the Issuer's website, gruppomps.it/media-e-news/press releases).

As to the resolutions approving the MB Merger and the relevant transactions relating to the Demergers under, respectively, items 1. and 2. of the agenda for the extraordinary session of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, the Offeror, in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, expected – contrary to the information stated in the Offer Notice in which the completion of the MB Merger was assumed as reference scenario - MPS shareholders to consider the possibility of not approving the MB Merger and the Demergers. In particular, in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, in light of the circumstances on that date, also taking into account the limited evidence of progress made in implementing the integration project and the lack of insight into the timeline, processes and implementation procedures for the MB Merger, as well as on the plans that the MPS management intended to pursue with reference to the assets comprising MB's business, also in light of the items submitted to the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, the Offeror stated that it deemed it preferable that the MB Merger would not be executed before the completion of the Offer, in order to reduce the risk of duplication of costs and investments related to the development/update of applications and migration of IT and operational systems. In light of the foregoing, in the event that the Offer is completed and depending on the terms of integration of MB into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, it is pointed out that there are risks relating to the migration of IT and operational systems even if very limited, with respect to the scenario in which the MB Merger has been completed prior to the completion of the Offer (in this regard, it is specified that, on the Date of the Offer Document, no decision has been made by the competent corporate bodies of the Offeror in relation to the methods of integration of MB following the completion of the Cascade Offer, as defined below). In particular, the decision by MPS to include in the agenda of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting of 29 October 2026 the approval of the MB Merger required the Offeror to reassess the complexities of the preliminary activities, the adequacy of the initial estimates and the level of technological and operational advancement achieved, considering that this integration involves IT platforms, application architectures, databases, operational processes and control systems that are significantly different. If the MB Merger had taken place in the interim, the Offeror may have found itself managing a group in which a significant portion of the technological and organisational resources would have been still engaged in resolving issues arising from the previous integration and, in addition, this would have resulted in an overlap between efforts to stabilise the inherited structure and activities necessary to commence the integration between the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group. For these reasons, the Offeror deemed that it was more rational and prudent from a business perspective to postpone the possible merger of MB into MPS or the Offeror, temporarily preserving the corporate and operational independence of the entities involved and focusing managerial resources on risk management and the protection of customers and commercial franchises. The execution of the Offer, prior to the completion of the merger of MB into MPS would have enabled the Offeror to manage the MPS-MB integration directly, first defining the final industrial and technological structure and coordinating the necessary activities, including those instrumental to the Unipol Agreement.

In this respect, it is pointed out that the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, as expected, did not approve the MB Merger and thus as set out in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026 and mentioned in the press release issued by the Offeror on 30 October 2026, the Offeror waived the condition of effectiveness under paragraph 1.5(vii) of the Offer Notice, with the consequence that the Offer has not become ineffective as a result of the failure to approve the said MB Merger.

Considering the fact that the MB Merger has not been approved by the MPS Shareholders' Meeting and thus will not become effective prior to the Payment Date of the Offer (or the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period) – in the event that the Offer is completed - the Offeror will launch a mandatory public offer pursuant to the combined provisions of article 106 paragraphs 1 and 3, letter a), of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 45 of the Issuers' Regulation, relating to the ordinary shares of MB not held by the Issuer or the Offeror (the "Cascade Offer"). This is because the Offeror would come to hold, through MPS, an indirect shareholding exceeding the threshold under article 106, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and, on the Date of the Offer Document, equal to 86.348% of the MB share capital (the "MB Share"), qualifying as "indirect shareholding" pursuant to article 45, paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of the Issuers' Regulation.

As to the determination of the consideration of the Cascade Offer, it is the intention of the Offeror to use the same exchange ratio between the Issuer's Shares and MB shares set forth in the plan of the MB Merger approved by the boards of directors of the two companies on 10 March 2026. The consideration of the Cascade Offer thus would be equal, on a per-share basis, to 2.45 times the amount of the Consideration, in accordance with the applicable legislation.

In such scenario, each MB shareholder tendering in the Cascade Offer would receive a value that reflects the amount that they would have received by tendering the Additional Issuer's Shares in acceptance of the Offer if the MB Merger had been approved by the MPS Shareholders' Meeting and had thus become effective prior to the Payment Date (or the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period).

For mere explanatory purposes, in the event that the Cascade Offer had been announced on the Reference Date, the overall value of the Cascade Offer would be estimated at €2.8 billion on the basis of the value of Intesa Sanpaolo shares on the Reference Date. It is pointed out that (i) upon fulfilment of the conditions for the Cascade Offer, all the information relating to the consideration of the Cascade Offer and the relevant total value will be set forth by the Offeror in the notice pursuant to article 102 of the Consolidated Law on Finance relating to the Cascade Offer; (ii) on the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision in relation to the composition of the consideration of the Cascade Offer that may be in whole or in part in newly issued Intesa Sanpaolo shares pursuant to article 106, paragraph 2-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance or in cash, in whole or in part.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, in the event that the consideration for the Cascade Offer is represented, in whole or in part, by shares, the Offeror shall convene, pursuant to the provisions of law, an extraordinary shareholders' meeting to resolve on the granting of the authorisation to the Board of Directors to increase the share capital pursuant to article 2443 of the Civil Code, in support of the Cascade Offer, to be paid up through a contribution in kind of the tendered MB shares, applying the provisions of articles 2343-ter and 2440 of the Civil Code on the valuation of contributions and subject to the ECB's verification, pursuant to articles 56 and 61 of the Consolidated Law on Banking, concerning the related amendment to the articles of association.

In the event that the consideration for the Cascade Offer is, in whole or in part, in cash, Intesa Sanpaolo will meet all payment obligations using its own funds.

It is specified that, if the relevant conditions are met, the Cascade Offer shall be in any event aimed at delisting the MB shares. In the relevant notice pursuant to article 102 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, Intesa Sanpaolo will thus declare that, in the event of achievement of an overall shareholding at least equal to 90% of the MB share capital, it will not restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly conduct of trading and will exercise the purchase right pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and, if the relevant conditions are met, will simultaneously fulfil, as part of the so-called "joint procedure", the purchase obligation pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, in the event of a shareholding exceeding 90% but lower than 95% of the MB share capital, or the purchase obligation pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, in the event of a shareholding of at least 95% of the MB share capital.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, as a result of the Cascade Offer (and any purchase made outside the Cascade Offer itself pursuant to the applicable regulations), the Offeror reserves the right to consider whether to proceed with the merger of MB into MPS or the Offeror itself (and, thus, on the Date of the Offer Document, it is not certain that the merger of MB is implemented) or to implement alternative extraordinary transactions, including the transfer of the shareholding held by MPS in MB in favour of Intesa Sanpaolo, subject to obtaining the applicable supervisory authorisations and the resolutions of the competent bodies. It is specified that, on the Date of the Offer Document, no decision has been taken by the competent corporate bodies in relation to such transactions, since it will be necessary to wait for the outcome of the Cascade Offer.

It is also pointed out that any Issuer's Shares held, directly or indirectly, by the Offeror (including through trust companies or a nominee) may not be tendered in acceptance of the Offer; therefore, such Issuer's Shares will not be deemed to be the subject of the Offer.

As of the Date of the Offer Document, Intesa Sanpaolo holds a total of 823,448 Issuer's Shares – representing 0.027% (rounded to the third decimal place) of the share capital – for trading purposes.

In calculating the number of Issuer's Shares held by Intesa Sanpaolo (or which will be held by Intesa Sanpaolo after the Date of the Offer Document), no account is taken of the Issuer's Shares held in a nominee capacity on behalf of clients or by investment funds and/or other collective investment schemes managed by companies of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group acting entirely independently of the latter and in the exclusive interest of clients, which are (or will be, as the case may be) considered to be the subject of the Offer.

For further details relating to the Shares Subject to the Offer, please refer to Section C, Paragraph C.1, of the Offer Document.

The Offer was announced by means of two press releases issued by the Offeror on 8 June 2026 (the "Announcement Date"), pursuant to article 102, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 37(1) of the Issuers' Regulation and article 17 of Regulation (EU) No. 596/2014 (the "MAR").

In particular, these press releases disclosed, inter alia, the Offeror's decision to launch the Offer pursuant to the resolution of the Offeror's Board of Directors adopted on the same date; the Board of Directors simultaneously approved, inter alia, the convening of an extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Intesa Sanpaolo on 10 September 2026, in order to resolve on the proposal to delegate to the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo the power to resolve on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer pursuant to article 2443 of the Civil Code and to amend the by-laws of Intesa Sanpaolo accordingly.

With a press release dated 3 October 2026, the Offeror issued: (i) certain considerations of Intesa Sanpaolo on the transactions announced by MPS, also in relation to the Banco BPM Offer and the Banca Generali Offer and the possible non-fulfilment of certain Conditions of Effectiveness, issued pursuant to articles 36 and 41, paragraph 5, of the Issuers' Regulation and (ii) the indication of the increase in the cash consideration, in the event of continuation of the Offer, as set forth in the Offer Notice – from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer – issued pursuant to articles 36 and 43 of the Issuers' Regulation (the "Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026"). For further information reference is made to Section A, Paragraph A.4 of the Offer Document.

On 3 November 2026, the Offeror's Board of Directors resolved, as an interim dividend based on the 2026 results, the distribution of €3.8 billion, resulting from a per-share amount of 22 euro cents for each Offeror's Share (the "2026 Interim Dividend"). The 2026 Interim Dividend will be paid on 25 November 2026 (with an ex-dividend date of 23 November 2026 and a record date of 24 November 2026). As announced in the press release issued by the Offeror on 3 November 2026, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the exchange ratio has been adjusted upwards from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, in order to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend, and this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

Based on the Offeror's Reference Price recorded on the Reference Date (equal to €5.682), the maximum total value of the Offer, in the event of full acceptance, would be approximately €31.4 billion, this amount being equal to the sum of the maximum total "monetary" value of the securities component (i.e., the Share Consideration) of approximately €27.6 billion (corresponding to €9.091 per Share Subject to the Offer, rounded to the third decimal place, calculated on the basis of the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio equal to 1.600 – one point six hundred) and the maximum total cash component (i.e., the Cash Consideration) of approximately €3.8 billion (corresponding to €1.250 – one euro and twenty-five cents – per Share Subject to the Offer, rounded to the third decimal place).

The Offeror reserves the right to acquire the Shares Subject to the Offer, including outside the Offer, to the extent permitted by applicable legislation, provided that any such acquisitions are notified to CONSOB and the market by the end of the day in accordance with article 41(2)(c) of the Issuers' Regulation.

Any Issuer's Shares held, directly or indirectly (including through trust companies or a nominee), by the Offeror shall be taken into account for the purposes of meeting the Threshold Condition (as defined below) and for the calculation of the thresholds relating to the right to acquire the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer in circulation pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance (the "Squeeze-Out"), the obligation to acquire pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (the "Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance") and the obligation to purchase pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (the "Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance").

The purpose of the Offer, in light of the reasons and future plans relating to the Issuer, as further specified in Section G, Paragraph G.2 of the Offer Document, is to acquire the Issuer's entire share capital and execute the Delisting, where appropriate also through the merger by incorporation of the Issuer into the Offeror (the "Merger for Delisting"), thereby furthering the targets of integration, the creation of synergies and the growth of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group together with the MPS Group.

In particular, should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, achieve a total shareholding equal to 90% of the Issuer's share capital, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), the Offeror hereby declares its intention to exercise the Squeeze-Out.

Should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, achieve a total shareholding exceeding 90%, but less than 95% of the Issuer's share capital, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), the Offeror hereby declares its intention not to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares Subject to the Offer and, consequently, to proceed with the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding of at least 95% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention to initiate the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

If, however, following the outcome of the Offer, the Offeror were to hold a total shareholding of less than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance

Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and any purchases made by the Offeror, outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), but the Threshold Condition were to be met, in order to achieve the Delisting, the Offeror, subject to the necessary authorisations from the competent corporate bodies of the companies concerned, intends to implement the Merger for Delisting (it being understood that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision relating to the resolution to approve the Merger for Delisting).

It is understood that, should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, hold a total shareholding of less than 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital (subject, therefore, to the waiver of the Threshold Condition and without prejudice to the achievement of the Minimum Threshold) and should the Offeror fail to obtain the approval of the Merger for Delisting, the Offeror will consider any other options to achieve, where possible, the Delisting.

For further information, please refer to Section A, Paragraphs A.1.3, A.8 and A.10, as well as to Section G, Paragraph G.2, of the Offer Document.

It is pointed out that, on 4 October 2026, Delfin S. à r.l. ("Delfin") and the Offeror executed an agreement (the "Delfin Letter of Undertaking") relating to the commitment by Delfin to tender in the Offer, by the last Trading Day preceding the close of the Acceptance Period, the entire shareholding held by the same corresponding to no. 534,676,825 Issuer's Shares, equal to 17.6% of MPS share capital (the "Delfin Shares"), provided that (i) the Offer is not declared null and void and/or does not become ineffective for any reason whatsoever; (ii) by the date of acceptance by Delfin, no significant circumstances or events occur which shall result in, or may result in – even in the future – any material adverse effect on the Offer and/or business and/or financial, asset, economic and/or income situation and/or share prices of the Issuer (and/or its subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies) and/or the Offeror (and/or its subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies) (the "Commitment"). The Delfin Letter of Undertaking also specifies that, should a third party launch a competing offer to the Offer (the "Competing Offer") pursuant to Article 102, paragraph 3, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, Delfin shall be free to accept the Competing Offer. If, for any reason, the Competing Offer is not completed, the Delfin Shares shall be deemed automatically tendered to the Offer, and Delfin shall take all necessary and appropriate actions to that end. Furthermore, as set forth in the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, any suspension or extension of the Offer's terms and/or any waiver by the Offeror of one or more of the Conditions of Effectiveness shall not affect the Commitment; likewise, the Commitment shall remain fully effective, under the same terms and conditions as set forth in the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, in the event of (further) upward adjustments and/or changes to the Offer (except where such changes result in a reduction of the Consideration beyond the cases already provided for in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026).

The Delfin Letter of Undertaking provides for the commitment by Delfin to take part in the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, partially held in extraordinary session, and at that venue to vote in a manner consistent with the terms of the Offer as of that date, including the resolutions relating to the approval of the Banco BPM Offer, the Banca Generali Offer, the relevant authorisations to increase the share capital in support of each of the aforementioned offers, the Share Capital Voluntary Reduction and the Extraordinary Distribution. It is recalled that the MPS Shareholders' Meeting has resolved not to approve the Banco BPM Offer, the Banca Generali Offer (and the relevant capital increases), the Voluntary Share Capital Reduction (functional to the Extraordinary Distribution) and the MB Merger.

Pursuant to the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, Delfin has guaranteed to the Offeror that it has not acquired, on any basis or in any form, directly and/or indirectly and/or through any intermediary and/or acting in concert with other parties, any Issuer's Shares (or rights thereof) and/or "long positions" with reference to the same shares from the Announcement Date and has undertaken not to carry out, in any form, directly and/or indirectly and/or through any intermediary, any purchase of the Issuer's Shares (or rights thereof) and/or "long positions" with reference to the same shares in the period between the execution date of the Delfin Letter of Undertaking and the 6 (six) months following the last Payment Date (even, if applicable, as Squeeze-Out in the context of the Joint Procedure).

For further information on the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, please refer to the essential information and the extract published, pursuant to and for the purposes of article 122 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and articles 129 and 130 of the Issuers' Regulation, on the internet website of the Offeror (group.intesasanpaolo.com) and attached to the Offer Document under Appendix M.2.

2. Legal conditions and characteristics of the Offer

The Offer is being made in Italy pursuant to articles 102 and 106, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

On 8 June 2026, the Offeror's Board of Directors resolved to launch the Offer and, on the Announcement Date, the Offer was notified to CONSOB and the market by means of a press release issued pursuant to article 102, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 37, paragraph 1, of the Issuers' Regulation (the "Offer Notice"). Furthermore, on the same date, the Offeror informed the employees' representatives of the publication of the Offer Notice in accordance with and for the purposes of article 102, paragraph 2 of the Consolidated Law on Finance. It is pointed out that, in relation to the Offer, there are no persons acting in concert with the Offeror pursuant to article 101-bis, paragraphs 4, 4-bis, 4-ter and 4-quater, of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 44-quater of the Issuers' Regulation.

The Offer is subject to the Conditions of Effectiveness described in Section A, Paragraph A.1, of the Offer Document and is addressed to all shareholders of the Issuer, on a non-discriminatory basis and on equal terms, without prejudice to the provisions of Section F, Paragraph F.4, of the Offer Document.

On 27 June 2026, the Offeror filed the Offer Document with CONSOB in accordance with article 102, paragraph 3 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and disclosed it to the market through a specific press release.

As consideration for the Offer, the Offeror will pay each Tendering Shareholder a total per-share consideration, which is not subject to adjustment (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document), comprising, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, (i) 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) newly issued Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, without nominal value, carrying regular dividend rights and having the same characteristics as the ordinary shares of Intesa Sanpaolo already in circulation on the date of issue, which will be listed on Euronext Milan, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer (the "Share Consideration") and (ii) €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer (the "Cash Consideration" and, together with the Share Consideration, the "Consideration").

Therefore, without limitation, for every 1,000 Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, 1,664 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares and a cash amount of €1,250 will be paid (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document). Acceptance of the Offer may take place, as further specified in Section A, Paragraph A.7 and in Section F, Paragraph F.6 , of the Offer Document, with reference to the Fractional Part, even where a number of Shares Subject to the Offer of less than 125 or a number of Shares Subject to the Offer other than an integer multiple of 125 is tendered to the Offer.

The Intesa Sanpaolo Shares issued to service the Offer derive from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer resolved by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 19 October 2026, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Intesa Sanpaolo on 10 September 2026 pursuant to article 2443 of the Civil Code. For further details relating to the resolutions passed by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Intesa Sanpaolo on 10 September 2026, please refer to the press release issued by the Offeror on the same date and available on the Intesa Sanpaolo website (group.intesasanpaolo.com) and in relation to the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of the Offeror on 19 October 2026, please refer to the press release issued by the Offeror on the same date and available on the internet website of Intesa Sanpaolo (group.intesasanpaolo.com).

In the event of full acceptance of the Offer, i.e., should all the Shares Subject to the Offer, issued as of the Date of the Offer Document and numbering a maximum of 3,037,594,735, be tendered in acceptance of the Offer during the Acceptance Period and/or during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (or, in any event, acquired by Intesa Sanpaolo as a result of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, also as part of the Joint Procedure):

(i) shall be allocated to the Tendering Shareholders as Share Consideration (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1, of the Offer Document), on the basis of the Exchange Ratio (described in Section E, Paragraph E.1, of the Offer Document), a maximum of 5,054,557,639 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares arising from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, corresponding to approximately 22.6% of the Offeror's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, calculated on the assumption of full subscription and payment of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer and based on the number of the Offeror's shares issued as of the Date of the Offer Document, with a maximum total "monetary" value of the Share Consideration amounting to approximately €30.7 billion (corresponding to €10.098 per Issuer's Share, rounded to the third decimal place); and

(ii) a total cash amount of approximately €3.8 billion will be paid (corresponding to €1.250 – one euro and twenty-five cents – per Share Subject to the Offer, rounded to the third decimal place), resulting in a maximum total consideration for the Offer of €34.5 billion, the latter amount being equal to the sum of the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document and the Cash Consideration, multiplied by the total number of Shares Subject to the Offer, which, as of the Date of the Offer Document, is equal to 3,037,594,735.

Should a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Threshold Condition be reached, it is provided that, on the basis of the Shares Subject to the Offer as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror will issue 3,369,248,354 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, which will be allocated in exchange to the Tendering Shareholders on the basis of the Exchange Ratio and will represent approximately 16.3% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares. In the event that a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Minimum Threshold is achieved, it is provided that, on the basis of the Shares Subject to the Offer on the Date of the Offer Document, Intesa Sanpaolo will issue 2,526,593,713 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, which will be allocated to Tendering Shareholders in exchange on the basis of the Exchange Ratio and will represent approximately 12.7% of the Offeror's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares.

It is pointed out that, should the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, amounting to 5,700,000,000, be issued, these will represent 24.7% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares; should a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Threshold Condition (i.e. 66.67%) be reached, the Offeror is required to issue 3,800,000,000 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (equal to 66.67%[1] calculated on the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares), which will represent approximately 18.0% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares. In the event that a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Minimum Threshold is achieved, it is expected that, on the basis of the Shares Subject to the Offer on the Date of the Offer Document, Intesa Sanpaolo will issue 2,850,000,001 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (equal to 50% + 1 Issuer's Share calculated on the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares), which will be allocated to Tendering Shareholders in exchange on the basis of the Exchange Ratio and will represent approximately 14.1% of the Offeror's shares issued as of the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares.

It is pointed out that the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer is subject to the provisions of articles 2440 and 2343-ter et seq. of the Civil Code, concerning capital increases to be paid up by way of contributions in kind.

In this regard, the Offeror has resolved, pursuant to article 2440, paragraph 2, of the Civil Code, to avail itself of the rules set forth in articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Civil Code for the appraisal of the Shares Subject to the Offer to be contributed. In particular, these rules do not require a sworn appraisal report of the assets being contributed by an expert appointed by the Court in whose jurisdiction the transferee company has its registered office (namely the Court of Turin), provided that the value attributed to the assets contributed in kind, for the purposes of determining the share capital and any share premium, is equal to or less than the value resulting from an appraisal referring to a date no more than 6 (six) months prior to the contribution and complies with the generally accepted principles and criteria for the valuation of the assets being contributed, provided that such valuation is carried out by an expert who is independent from the contributor, the transferee company and the shareholders who, individually or jointly, exercise control over the contributor or the company itself, and who has adequate and proven professional expertise (for further details, see article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code).

The Offeror has therefore appointed Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., as an independent expert pursuant to article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code, to prepare the valuation of the Shares Subject to the Offer to be contributed in kind. Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B. issued, on 18 July 2026, its valuation report on the Shares Subject to the Offer, based on the balance sheet as of 31 March 2026 (the "Independent Expert's Opinion").

Subsequently, on 17 October 2026, Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., upon request of the Board of Directors of the Offeror, proceeded with the update of the Independent Expert's Opinion, taking into account the financial position of the Issuer as of 30 June 2026, which, as a consequence, constitutes the new reference date for the Independent Expert's Opinion.

[1] 66.67% to be considered as 2/3 (two thirds) and, thus, as 66.6% repeating.

In accordance with the law, the value attributed, for the purposes of determining the share capital and the share premium, to the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance must be equal to or less than the value indicated in the independent expert's report.

It is also pointed out that, on 20 July 2026, EY S.p.A., acting on behalf of the Offeror, issued a report (prepared in accordance with ISAE – International Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 Revised) regarding the criteria used by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo, in which it confirmed that nothing had come to its attention that would lead it to believe that the valuation methods adopted by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo for determining the exchange ratio in the context of the Offer are inadequate, as they are reasonable and not arbitrary in the present case, and that they have been correctly applied for the purposes of determining the exchange ratio (for further details on the aforementioned methods, please refer to the information set out in Section E, Paragraph E.1, of the Offer Document).

Finally, on 19 October 2026, EY S.p.A. issued its report on the appropriateness of the issue price of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to service the Offer, as determined by the Offeror's Board of Directors, in accordance with the combined provisions of article 2441, paragraph 4, first sentence, and paragraph 6, of the Civil Code and article 158, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

It is pointed out that article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code provides that, in cases where the transferee company has opted for the valuation of the contributed assets in accordance with the provisions of articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Civil Code, one or more shareholders who represent, and who represented at the date of the board resolution on the capital increase, at least one-twentieth of the share capital prior to that increase may, within 30 (thirty) days from the date of registration of the board resolution on the capital increase in the Companies Register, request that, at the initiative of the directors and in accordance with and for the purposes set out in article 2343 of the Civil Code, a new valuation of the assets subject to contribution be carried out, by means of a sworn report by an expert appointed by the competent Court (in this case, the Court of Turin).

Furthermore, the aforementioned provisions set out in articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Civil Code, applied in conjunction with the provisions of the Civil Code governing capital increases delegated by the shareholders' meeting to the Board of Directors (see, in particular, article 2443, paragraph 4, first sentence, of the Civil Code) provide that the Offeror's Board of Directors is required to issue, within 30 (thirty) days of the date of registration in the Turin Companies Register of the board resolution authorising the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, a statement containing the information referred to in points (a), (b), (c) and (e) of article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, namely:

a) a description of the assets being contributed (in this case, the Shares Subject to the Offer) for which the report referred to in article 2343, paragraph 1, of the Civil Code has not been drawn up;

b) the value attributed to those assets, the source of such valuation and, if applicable, the valuation method;

c) a statement that such value is at least equal to that attributed to them for the purposes of determining the share capital and any share premium; and

d) a statement confirming that the expert meets the requirements of professional expertise and independence referred to in article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code.

With reference to the statement containing the information referred to in the aforementioned points (a), (b), (c) and (e) of article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, it is pointed out that this statement was issued by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 19 October 2026 and is contained in the board resolution for the "Capital Increase in Support of the Offer", registered with the Turin Companies Register on 21 October 2026.

However, as to point (d) of article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, the last sentence of article 2443, paragraph 4, of the Civil Code provides that "the declaration that no exceptional or significant events affecting the valuation pursuant to letter b) have occurred" must be filed by the directors of the transferee company with the Companies Register only after the expiry of a period of 30 (thirty) days from the date of registration in the Turin Companies Register of the board resolution authorising the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, granted for the exercise of the rights referred to in article 2443, paragraph 4, of the Civil Code (i.e., by 20 November 2026), and provided that no opposition has been made by shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital.

Furthermore, it is specified that, in consideration of the provisions of article 2343-quater, paragraph 4, of the Civil Code, until the declaration by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo, containing the information referred to in point (d) of that article, is registered with the Turin Companies Register, any Intesa Sanpaolo Shares issued in execution of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer as Share Consideration may not be transferred.

In this regard, it is envisaged that the conduct of such checks and the issue of the statement by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo pursuant to article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, letter d) of the Civil Code will take place in due time to allow for the fulfilment of the obligations relating to such payment.

It is also envisaged that the registration of this statement by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo with the relevant Companies Register, together with the certification referred to in article 2444 of the Civil Code, will take place in due time prior to the Payment Date to allow for the unrestricted availability, for the Tendering Shareholders, of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares that will be allocated to them as Share Consideration on the Payment Date itself.

It is pointed out that, in the event that:

(i) within 30 (thirty) days of the date of registration in the Turin Companies Register of the board resolution on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer (i.e., by 20 November 2026), a qualified minority were to exercise the rights referred to in article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code; or

(ii) by the Payment Date, the Offeror's Board of Directors were to find that exceptional circumstances or significant new facts have occurred such as to materially alter the value of the assets being contributed (i.e., the value attributed to the Shares Subject to the Offer for the purposes of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer) and such, therefore, as to prevent the issue of the aforementioned statement pursuant to point (d), the Board of Directors shall be required to carry out a new valuation of the contributions in kind (i.e., the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in the Offer) in accordance with article 2343 of the Civil Code and therefore initiate the standard procedure for the valuation of contributions in kind in accordance with article 2343 of the Civil Code, requesting the competent Court (in this case, the Court of Turin) to appoint an expert who will prepare, in accordance with the applicable regulations, a sworn valuation report on the assets contributed. Furthermore, again pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code, should the Board of Directors' review of the sworn valuation report reveal that the value of the assets contributed is more than one-fifth lower than the valuation indicated in the Independent Expert's Opinion, as may have been updated and as endorsed by the Board of Directors, Intesa Sanpaolo will apply the relevant provisions set out in article 2343 of the Civil Code.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, it is pointed out that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror's Board of Directors has not identified any exceptional circumstances or significant new facts such as to require an update to the aforementioned sworn valuation report or the commencement, as of the Date of the Offer Document, of the standard procedure for the valuation of contributions in kind, which, as described above, requires a sworn report by an expert appointed by the competent Court pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code.

For further information on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, please refer to Section A, Paragraph A.6, of the Offer Document.

For the sake of completeness, it is pointed out that the above will apply, mutatis mutandis, should the conditions for the Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or the exercise of the Squeeze-Out arise, including, if applicable, within the context of the Joint Procedure.

3. Reasons for the Offer and summary of future plans

The financial and banking sector, both in Italy and across Europe, requires a process of consolidation that creates large-scale players capable of sustaining the investments necessary – in the context of technological and operational developments – to compete with new entrants and maintain adequate levels of profitability in an increasingly integrated market. The Offeror has therefore decided to promote the Offer in order to consolidate its position in the European banking sector and its presence in Italy, where it already operates successfully across all market segments.

A transaction such as that between the Offeror and the Issuer represents a key strategic opportunity within the Italian and European banking sector, accelerating value creation, not least through the achievement of significant synergies that combine scale, complementarity and low execution risk, with the aim of consolidating the main business areas of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group, in particular: Wealth Management, Protection & Advisory, Corporate & Investment Banking, Retail & Commercial Banking and Consumer Finance.

In fact, the integration of the Issuer with the Offeror - which is instrumental to the achievement of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and which, as such, necessarily requires the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as to enable, thus, the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror, without prejudice to the execution of the NewBank Transaction (as defined below) that will be carried out, depending on the shareholding in the share capital of the Issuer that it will come to hold, as a result of the Offer, through the extraordinary transactions under Section A, Paragraphs A.10.1, A.10.2 and A.10.3 - through the combination of diversified business models, which are similar yet complementary, will enable the new combined entity to respond more effectively to market challenges, ensuring the highest standards of customer care, strong financial stability and significant sustainable profitability, whilst supporting the professional development of its staff, the real economy and local communities across the country.

Furthermore, in order to proactively manage antitrust issues, as announced to the market on the same date via press releases issued by the Offeror and Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A. ("Unipol") respectively, the Offeror entered into an agreement with Unipol on 8 June 2026, subsequently amended by the parties on 3 August 2026, relating to certain matters on regulatory authorisations, pursuant to which Unipol undertook to acquire, presumably by the end of 2027 (subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions precedent, among which: (i) the successful completion of the Offer; (ii) the appointment of a new board of directors of the MPS including a majority of directors selected from the list that will be submitted and voted by Intesa Sanpaolo; (iii) the accession to the Unipol Agreement by MPS and, if necessary, by NewBank (as defined below), as well as any other party – other than Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS – which may hold its entire share capital; (iv) the completion of the corporate and reorganisation transactions functional to procure that NewBank is the owner of NewBank Perimeter (as defined below); (v) the completion of the Unipol share capital increase resolved by Unipol's board of directors on 7 October 2026 according to the proxy granted by the Unipol extraordinary shareholders' meeting on 30 July 2026 (the aforementioned execution of the share capital increase has been announced by Unipol on 26 October 2026 in a press release available on the internet website of Unipol at unipol.com); (vi) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the Antitrust Clearance; (vii) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the other Authorisations (as defined in the Unipol Agreement); (viii) the obtaining by Unipol of the antitrust clearance in relation to the NewBank Transaction (as defined below); (ix) the obtaining by Unipol of the further authorisations required for the acquisition of the control of NewBank; and (x) the completion of the applicable trade union procedures), against a consideration not exceeding €3.5 billion, the entire share capital of a banking legal entity ("NewBank"), which may be identified as the Issuer itself, and in any event operating under the latter's brand and distinctive marks, with a business portfolio (the "NewBank Perimeter") which, subject to any replacements or adjustments, is expected to consist of a total of 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy) of the Issuer (together with the related assets and legal relationships), and the majority of the Issuer's central functions and activities (together with the related assets and liabilities) necessary to operate as a bank independently (the "Unipol Agreement").

It is pointed out that, the Unipol Agreement provides that the NewBank Transaction (as defined below) may be completed even with the transfer only of those branches for which antitrust clearance has been granted. In this case, without prejudice to the integration mechanisms for the NewBank Perimeter (through other assets and liabilities, other than non-performing loans) provided for under the Unipol Agreement in order to ensure that, in any scenario, the relevant parameters relating to the NewBank Perimeter, including, inter alia, the net income target of the aforementioned NewBank Perimeter (ranging from €400 million to €460 million), are met, it being understood that the application of such mechanisms could adversely affect the strategic objectives of the Offer. It is pointed out that, with reference to the replacement of the branches of the NewBank Perimeter, should such branches be deemed not sufficient in the context of the assessment proceedings of the antitrust authority of the concentration transaction resulting from the Offer, the Offeror shall consider disposing such excess of branches also to operators other than Unipol.

It is then pointed out that, as Intesa Sanpaolo does not exercise control over MPS, Intesa Sanpaolo has not issued any full representations and warranties in favour of Unipol, nor has it assumed any general indemnity obligations in relation to the NewBank Perimeter; it being understood, however, that (i) the costs of winding up the current insurance joint ventures belonging MPS will be borne by Intesa Sanpaolo, whilst, as to the asset management agreements, the allocation of the related obligations, charges and liabilities will be based on a principle of economic risk allocation in line with the assets pertaining to the respective perimeters as of 31 December 2026, or, should the MB Merger (in civil law terms) have already become effective, then as of the date of MPS's latest individual balance sheet following 1 January 2026, approved prior to the MB Merger becoming effective (this last scenario is excluded since the MPS Shareholders' Meeting has not approved the MB Merger); (ii) the assets, liabilities and legal relationships of the MPS Group companies not included in the NewBank Perimeter shall be borne in full by the ISP Perimeter; and (iii) any further contingent assets, as well as liabilities not relating to MPS branches, which are undisclosed as of the date referred to in point (i) above and which arise before the third anniversary of the date of completion of the NewBank Transaction (as defined below) and provided that they actually entail a financial expenditure or other definitive financial loss (excluding loss of profit), shall be borne by (or accrue to, in the case of contingent assets) the ISP Perimeter and the NewBank Perimeter in equal shares of 50% each, without any duplication of coverage.

Following the completion of the Offer, the Offeror, subject to approval by the relevant corporate bodies and having obtained the necessary authorisations from the relevant authorities, intends to proceed with the further steps required to implement the Unipol Agreement.

For further details relating to the Unipol Agreement, please refer to Section G, Paragraph G.2.2.3 of the Offer Document.

For further information relating to the reasons for the Offer and the future plans drawn up by the Offeror in relation to the Issuer, the Unipol Agreement, as well as in relation to forward-looking and/or target information concerning the Offeror, please refer to Section A, Paragraphs A.8 and A.10, and to Section G, Paragraphs G.2 and G.3, of the Offer Document.

It is pointed out that, in the event of a successful outcome of the Offer, ISP, having assessed the terms and conditions of the partnership agreements between MPS and AXA S.A. – operating through the companies AXA MPS Assicurazioni Vita S.p.A. and AXA MPS Assicurazioni Danni S.p.A. –will carry out the most appropriate transactions to terminate the aforementioned partnership and subsequently integrate the two companies into the ISP Group's insurance perimeter (all this subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations).

It is the intention of the Offeror to account for the indirect shareholding held by the Issuer in Assicurazioni Generali S.p.A. ("AG") in line with the current accounting treatment adopted by MB under the equity method, as a non-controlling equity investment without any interference with the AG's governance, thus limiting itself to appointing a minority of members of the Board of Directors of AG (excluding the Chief Executive Officer and the Chair) who are independent pursuant to the AG's by-laws, who do not hold executive powers and who do not serve as directors on the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's management bodies, nor are they employees of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group. The value of such non-controlling shareholding that, after the completion of the Offer, will be transferred, through intercompany transfer, from MB to Intesa Sanpaolo Assicurazioni S.p.A., will benefit from the prudential regime of the so-called "Danish Compromise" (consistently with the prudential scenario underlying the ECB authorisation of 27 October 2026), given that the Intesa Sanpaolo Group is already classified as a financial conglomerate. It is pointed out that no further authorisation is required to benefit from the so-called "Danish Compromise" in relation to the above.

The Offeror: (i) will continue to account for the AG shareholding under the "equity method", in accordance with International Accounting Standard IAS 28 and applicable accounting regulations, in order to maximise value creation for shareholders by recognising profits on a pro-rata basis rather than dividends; (ii) does not intend to interfere in any way (nor, a fortiori, to exercise any form of control) over AG's financial and management policies.

Following the decision to promote the Offer, the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo approved the acquisition of a 3.01% shareholding in AG's share capital and the entering into of a hedging derivative agreement with a leading financial counterparty, with that shareholding as the underlying asset. The transaction is merely financial and temporary in nature and, in any event, is intended to ensure that the Offeror can maintain, following the successful completion of the Offer, the accounting treatment currently applied to MB's shareholding in AG under the equity method (for further information, please refer to the press release available on the Offeror's website group.intesasanpaolo.com/Investor Relations Section).

4. Prospectus; incorporation by reference in the Offer Document

In relation to the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be allocated to the Issuer's shareholders who accept the Offer, the Offeror has published, as of the Date of the Offer Document, in accordance with the Prospectus Regulations, an "EU follow-on prospectus" approved by CONSOB on 8 November 2026.

The Prospectus is available at the Offeror's registered office in Turin, Piazza San Carlo, no. 156, at the secondary office of the Offeror, in Milan, Via Monte di Pietà No. 8 and on the Offeror's website (group.intesasanpaolo.com).

This Offer Document incorporates, by reference, certain parts of the Prospectus in accordance with Annex 2A of the Issuers' Regulation.

In this regard, it is pointed out that the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer will be traded on the same market on which – upon their issue – the Offeror's shares already in circulation will be traded. The listing of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares will take place automatically, in accordance with the provisions of the Stock Exchange Regulations and article IA.2.1.9 of the Stock Exchange Instructions, as they will be interchangeable with, and will have the same characteristics as, the already listed Intesa Sanpaolo shares.

In the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, the Offeror had specified that the MPS Ordinary Transactions and the MPS Extraordinary Transactions (except for the MB Merger and the appointment of the two directors under item 1 on the agenda for the ordinary session) fell within the scope of article 104, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and represented, if approved, even when considered individually, a scenario of non-fulfilment of the Defensive Measures Condition. In addition, in the event of approval by the shareholders' meeting of such items on the agenda of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, also the Material Acts Condition and the MAE Condition may not have been fulfilled, as the case may be.

In such scenarios (i.e. in the event of approval by the MPS shareholders of such resolutions or any of them) the Offeror thus had reiterated in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, that it had the right to claim for the non-fulfilment of the aforementioned Conditions of Effectiveness, or any of them, not to waive them and thus declare the Offer ineffective and null and void.

In this regard, in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, the Offeror declared that according to the representation included in the Explanatory Reports issued by MPS on 29 September 2026 and the proposals for resolutions contained in such Reports as to each item on the agenda for the ordinary session and the extraordinary session of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, in the event of approval by the MPS Shareholders' Meeting of the Banco BPM Offer and/or the Banca Generali Offer (and the relevant capital increases) or the Voluntary Share Capital Reduction (intended to implement, subject to the fulfilment of the relevant conditions, the Extraordinary Distribution) – under items 3. to 5. on the agenda for the extraordinary session of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting listed above – it would deem unfulfilled the Defensive Measures Condition and, as far as necessary, the Material Acts Condition and the MAE Condition. Therefore, in such scenario and within the limits specified above, the Offeror would not exercise the right to waive the aforementioned Conditions of Effectiveness claiming for their non-fulfilment, with the consequence that the Offer itself would have become definitively ineffective. Since the MPS Shareholders' Meeting resolved not to approve the Banco BPM Offer, the Banca Generali Offer (and the relevant capital increases), as well as the Voluntary Share Capital Reduction (functional to the Extraordinary Distribution) the Offer continued.

Conversely, as to the resolutions subject to the approval of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting and qualified by MPS as relevant also for the purposes of article 104, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance under items 2. to 5. on the agenda for the ordinary session, as well as item 2. on the agenda for the extraordinary session, the Offeror, having acknowledged that also such resolutions, if approved, would represent the non-fulfilment of the Defensive Measures Condition and, as far as necessary, the Material Acts Condition and the MAE Condition, in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026 pointed out that it did not deem itself, for the time being and on the basis of the information available on that date, to be in a position to express a final opinion as to its right to claim for the non-fulfilment of or waive the aforementioned Conditions of Effectiveness. Therefore, as to such resolutions, the Offeror reserved the right to claim for the non-fulfilment of the aforementioned Conditions of Effectiveness, or to waive or to amend, the Material Acts Condition, the Defensive Measures Condition and/or the MAE Condition in accordance with the applicable regulations and notifying it pursuant to article 36 of the Issuers' Regulation.

As to the MB Merger, considering the fact that the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, as expected, did not approve the MB Merger, the Offeror, as set out in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026 and confirmed in the press release issued on 30 October 2026, has declared that it waives the relevant condition of effectiveness set out in the Offer Notice, with the consequence that the Offer has not become ineffective as a result of the failure to approve the aforementioned MB Merger.

On 24 July 2026, the Presidency of the Council of Ministers sent the Offeror the decision in which it deemed that formal notification was required pursuant to Law Decree No. 21 of 15 March 2012, and subsequent amendments, stating that the notification shall be made after authorisation has been obtained from the competent European authorities responsible for assessing prudential and competition-related aspects, pursuant to article 2, paragraph 6-bis, of the aforementioned Law Decree No. 21 of 15 March 2012, and attaching the relevant decisions. The relevant authorisation was obtained on 8 September 2026,

(the "Other Authorisations" and, together with the Prior Authorisations and the Antitrust Clearance, the "Authorisations").

A.1.2. Antitrust Condition

As to the Antitrust Condition, the following is specified.

The Offeror has:

- on 18 June 2026, the concentration resulting from the Offer was notified to the Competition Authority of the Republic of Serbia (Komisija za zaštitu Konkurencije), in accordance with and for the purposes of the national legislation governing the control of concentrations. The relevant authorisation was obtained on 26 June 2026;
- on 22 June 2026, the concentration resulting from the Offer was notified to the Competition Authority of the Republic of Albania (Autoriteti i Konkurrencës), in accordance with and for the purposes of the national legislation governing the control of concentrations. On 29 September

2026, a temporary clearance was obtained subject to a supplement to the filing following the publication of the Offer Document;

- on 23 June 2026, a briefing paper relating to the concentration resulting from the Offer was submitted to the Competition and Markets Authority of the United Kingdom in accordance with and for the purposes of national legislation on concentrations. The relevant clearance was obtained on 3 July 2026;

- on 24 June 2026, the concentration resulting from the Offer was notified to the Competition Authority of the French Republic (Autorité de la concurrence), in accordance with and for the purposes of national legislation on concentrations. The relevant authorisation was obtained on 10 July 2026;

- on 26 June 2026, the necessary prior notification was submitted to the Italian Competition and Market Authority ("AGCM") in accordance with and for the purposes of article 16 of Law No. 287 of 10 October 1990. On 14 September 2026, the AGCM commenced the preliminary investigation pursuant to article 16, paragraph 4 of the Italian Law no. 287/1990 in relation to the Offer. In this regard, standard deadlines for these proceedings are set during the Acceptance Period, resulting in the issue of the relevant authorisation prior to the date of publication of the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer.

It is pointed out that, should the Offer (i) not be authorised by the AGCM or (ii) should the AGCM approve the concentration resulting from this Offer subject to requirements, conditions or restrictions, the Antitrust Condition would, in either case, not be satisfied. In particular, in scenario sub (i), or, should the AGCM prohibit the concentration resulting from this Offer, the Offeror would not be able to waive the Antitrust Condition and proceed with the completion of the Offer, as this would not be permitted under applicable legislation. In scenario (ii), should the AGCM authorise the concentration resulting from this Offer subject to the adoption of remedial measures, the Antitrust Condition would not be satisfied, but the Offeror could waive it in accordance with the terms set out in Section A, Paragraph A.1.6 of the Offer Document and, in that case, proceed to complete the Offer, subject to compliance with any measures imposed by the AGCM.

A.1.3. Threshold Condition and Minimum Threshold

It is pointed out that, taking into account the targets of the Offer and the Offeror's future plans concerning the Issuer, as well as the Issuer's current shareholding structure, in the event that the Threshold Condition is not met, the Offeror reserves the right to amend or to waive such Condition of Effectiveness and to proceed with the purchase of all the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, notwithstanding that the number of the Issuer's Shares falls below the threshold specified above. It is pointed out that any waiver of the Threshold Condition will be decided by the Offeror only if – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – the Offeror comes to hold a total shareholding in the Issuer's share capital of at least 50% plus 1 (one) share of the Issuer (the "Minimum Threshold"), it being understood that the Threshold Condition may not be waived in the event of failure to achieve the Minimum Threshold, in line with the ECB authorisation of 27 October 2026.

The Offeror aims to implement the industrial initiatives that will enable it to realise the efficiencies and synergies expected from the integration with the Issuer (since such integration is functional to the pursuit of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and necessarily assumes the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) such as to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors, as well as to proceed with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror), once NewBank has been transferred to Unipol and, in any event, the antitrust matters have been resolved.

The expected cost and revenue synergies from the completion of the integration of the MPS Group into Intesa Sanpaolo Group (which is functional to the pursuit of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and, understood accordingly, necessarily requires the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror) are estimated, once fully implemented, to amount to approximately €2.9 billion before tax per year (amount already including synergies deriving from the integration of MB into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group regardless of the different methods in which such integration may take place), of which approximately €1.4 billion before tax, once fully implemented, will come from revenue synergies and approximately €1.5 billion before tax, once fully implemented, from cost synergies. The full potential of the synergies is expected to be realised by 2029 (approximately 60% in 2028).

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a shareholding of at least 66.67% of MPS's share capital, with consequent fulfilment of the Threshold Condition, the above-described cost and revenue synergies, once fully implemented, and the relevant phasing are confirmed since the Offeror intends to proceed, as soon as possible, to the Delisting, which in the event that the Offeror comes to hold a shareholding lower than 90%, but at least equal to 66.67%, shall be attained by means of the Merger for Delisting as the Offeror will hold the absolute majority in the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

The Offeror considers that the aforementioned synergies can be achieved to the same extent even if the resolution on the Merger for Delisting is not adopted immediately following the completion of the Offer, albeit with possible temporal variations in their implementation, it being understood, however, that it is still the Offeror's intention to implement the Merger for Delisting.

For the sake of completeness, it is pointed out that the above synergies, once fully implemented, are confirmed, also in the event that the Offeror, following the Offer, comes to hold a shareholding in the Issuer's share capital lower than 66.67% (and, thus, the Threshold Condition is amended or waived by the Offeror), provided that a certain shareholding threshold is achieved (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the Merger for Delisting since the same is functional to the achievement of the aforementioned synergies (without prejudice to the fact that the Offeror, on the Date of the Offer Document, has not adopted any decision in relation to the resolution of the Merger for Delisting).

The different percentage of acceptance envisaged under the various scenarios does not have any impact on the potential benefits arising from the DTAs, since, exclusively on a prudential basis and for the purpose of determining the regulatory capital, no benefits arising from their absorption has been taken into account, without prejudice to the possibility of actually using the DTAs should the relevant conditions be met.

A.1.4. Material Acts Condition

It is pointed out that the provisions set out in the preceding Paragraph A.1.1(iii) with reference to the Material Acts Condition are to be understood as referring, without limitation, to capital increases (including where effected through the issue of convertible bonds or in execution of delegations conferred on the board of directors pursuant to article 2443 of the Civil Code) or capital reductions, distributions of reserves, payments of extraordinary dividends (i.e., those exceeding the profit recorded in the latest approved annual financial statements at the time of distribution) or interim dividends, the use of own funds, purchases or disposals of treasury shares, mergers, demergers, conversions, amendments to the by-laws in general, the cancellation or consolidation of shares, disposals, acquisitions, the exercise of purchase rights or transfers and acts amending or disposing of, even on a temporary basis, assets (including rights, trademarks and company names), shareholdings (or related property or participation rights), businesses or business units, contracts for the supply and/or distribution of banking, financial or insurance products and/or services, bond issues or the incurring of debt.

Furthermore, with specific reference to acts or transactions which may result in – or the omission of which may prevent – "a significant change, including prospective changes, in the share capital and/or net assets and/or the economic, financial and/or prudential position and/or the business of the Issuer (and/or of any of its directly or indirectly controlled or affiliated companies)", the Offeror specifies – again, without limitation – that the Material Acts Condition shall be deemed to include acts and/or transactions not falling within the scope of normal day-to-day operations, as well as acts resulting from the application of prudential measures and/or decisions (including those resulting from the determinations of the competent authorities regarding the so-called "Danish Compromise", including in relation to the Issuer and/or its directly or indirectly controlled or affiliated companies), also for the purpose of mitigating impacts or which may result in a decrease or increase that is not normal and not provided for in the Issuer's current strategic plan named "2026–2030 Business Plan" (as subsequently updated and amended, from a stand-alone perspective) approved by the Issuer's Board of Directors on 26 February 2026 (the "MPS Business Plan"), in the scope and/or activities of the distribution network, the organisational and control structures of the Issuer and its subsidiaries, and/or the manner in which the Issuer exercises management and coordination and/or, in the event of the Offer being completed, the Offeror, even where such acts and/or transactions are not subject to the provisions of article 104 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and are therefore not included in the Defensive Measures Condition referred to in Paragraph A.1.10 set out above.

As to acts and/or transactions "which affect the operations and/or profitability of branches and networks in the placement of products with customers [...] or [...] which are in any case inconsistent with the Offer and the underlying industrial and commercial rationale", the Offeror specifies – again, without limitation – that the following shall be considered to fall within the Material Acts Condition: the assumption of commitments, the execution of agreements (including as a result of renegotiations, renewals, extensions or failure to provide notice of termination, also, without limitation, in relation to bancassurance contracts with the AXA Group and/or servicing, insourcing or outsourcing agreements) or the termination of existing and/or expiring agreements, of whatever nature, which:

(a) are intended to (or may otherwise) prejudice or otherwise significantly and adversely affect the full achievement of the cost and/or revenue synergies envisaged by the Offeror, as described in Section G, Paragraph G.2.2.2, of the Offer Document; and/or

(b) impose multi-year commitments on the Issuer and/or its subsidiaries (including through servicing, insourcing or outsourcing agreements) and/or are likely to significantly alter the nature, composition and/or amount of the costs associated with the operations of the Issuer and/or the Intesa Sanpaolo Group; by way of further clarification, and again without limitation, this also includes agreements relating to the IT system and distribution contracts of the MPS Group, the execution, amendment and/or termination of which could have a significant negative impact on the cost and/or revenue synergies envisaged by the Offeror, as described in Section G, Paragraph G.2.2.2, of the Offer Document, or which may affect the commercial distribution policy or the integration of such IT system; and/or

(c) result, including in the context of transfers of business units, in the transfer or closure of a significant number of branches (exceeding the number under the MPS Business Plan, as subsequently updated and amended), the termination or renegotiation of the relevant lease agreements (including finance leases), as well as the transfer and creation of rights in rem in respect of one or more properties in which branch operations are currently carried out.

It is pointed out that the above examples are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not exhaustive; they are based on publicly available information relating to the Issuer and/or the MPS Group as of the Date of the Offer Document.

It is further specified that, in the event of the performance of one or more of the acts (including omissions) or transactions described above (as well as any other act falling within the Material Acts Condition), the Offeror shall have the right, at its discretion, to amend, claim the non-fulfilment of, or waive such Condition of Effectiveness, as further specified in Section A, Paragraph A.1.6 (which is in the Offeror's sole interest) and without prejudice to the provisions of Section A, Paragraph A.1.1.

A.1.5. MAE Condition

It is pointed out that the MAE Condition includes, inter alia, all the events listed in the preceding points (x), (y1), (y2) and (z) referred to in Section A, Paragraph A.1.1.vi) of the Offer Document, as well as any related effects that may arise in the markets in which the Issuer, the Offeror or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies operate as a result of, or in connection with, ongoing international political crises (including those ongoing in Ukraine and the Middle East) which, although in the public domain as of the Date of the Offer Document, may have adverse consequences for the Offer and/or for the asset, economic, financial or operational condition of the Issuer or the Offeror and/or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies, such as, without limitation, the temporary suspension and/or closure of financial and production markets and/or commercial activities relating to the markets in which the Issuer, the Offeror or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies operate, with possible adverse effects on the Offer and/or changes in the asset, economic, financial or operational situation of the Issuer, the Offeror or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies.

As to point (z) set out in Section A, Paragraph A.1.1(vi), it is pointed out that the Offeror has obtained, prior to the Date of the Offer Document, all the Prior Authorisations, as further described in Paragraph A.1.1 of the Offer Document and has submitted all the necessary notifications to obtain the Other Authorisations and the Antitrust Clearance.

Accordingly, it is specified that the Offer will be subject to the condition that, between the Announcement Date and the Payment Date, no facts, events or circumstances have occurred that would prevent the Offeror from proceeding with the Offer in accordance with the Authorisations received in respect of the Offer and the provisions contained therein, without prejudice to the provisions of Section A, Paragraph A.1.1.

A.1.6. Amendment or Waiver of the Conditions of Effectiveness

Without prejudice to the provisions of Section A, Paragraph A.1.1, the Offeror, in accordance with the provisions of article 43, paragraph 1 of the Issuers' Regulation, reserves the right to waive, or to claim the non-fulfilment of, one or more of the Conditions of Effectiveness (without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold), or to amend them, in accordance with the applicable regulations and with notification thereof in the manner set out in article 36 of the Issuers' Regulation.

Pursuant to article 36 of the Issuers' Regulation, the Offeror shall announce whether the Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or not, as applicable; or, should one or more Conditions of Effectiveness not have been fulfilled, any waiver of or amendment to such conditions, with notification thereof in accordance with the following timetable:

(i) as to the Threshold Condition (and the Minimum Threshold), in the Notification of the Provisional Results of the Offer, which will be published by the evening of the last Trading Day of the Acceptance Period and, in any event, by 7.29 a.m. on the first Trading Day following the close of the Acceptance Period (i.e. 25 January 2027, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable regulations), and confirmed by the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer, to be issued by 7.29 a.m. on the Trading Day preceding the Payment Date (i.e. 28 January 2027, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable regulations);

(ii) as to all other Conditions of Effectiveness, by the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer, which will be published by 7.29 a.m. on the Trading Day preceding the Payment Date (i.e. 28 January 2027, subject to any extension of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable regulations).

In the event that even a single Condition of Effectiveness is not fulfilled and the Offeror fails to exercise its right to amend or waive such conditions, resulting in the Offer not being completed, the Shares Subject to the Offer that have been tendered in acceptance of the Offer will be made available again, through the Depositary Intermediaries, to the respective Tendering Shareholders, without any charges or expenses to be borne by them, by the next Trading Day following the date on which the failure of the Offer to be completed is first notified (as specified above).

A.4 Increase of the Consideration

It is recalled that the per share cash consideration for each Share tendered in the Offer – as announced by the Offeror to the market on the Announcement Date, through the Offer Notice – was originally determined by the Offeror as being equal to €1.000 (one euro).

Subsequently, (a) on 3 October 2026, the Offeror, through the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, pursuant to articles 36 and 43 of the Issuers' Regulation, announced, inter alia, that upon completion of the Offer and thus in the event of continuation of the same, the Offeror would have paid, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, an overall per-share consideration composed as follows: (i) a cash consideration increased from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) (i.e. the Cash Consideration) and (ii) a share component equal to 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio set out in the Offer Notice thus remaining unaffected; and (b) on 3 November 2026, as a result of the approval of the 2026 Interim Dividend by the Offeror's Board of Directors, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the Offeror announced, inter alia, that the exchange ratio shall be adjusted upwards from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend, and this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

Therefore, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror shall pay, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, an overall per share consideration (i.e. the Consideration) composed as follows: (i) a cash component equal to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) (i.e. the Cash Consideration) and (ii) a component of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares equal to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (i.e. the Share Consideration) (except for any amendments under Section A, Paragraph A.5 and Section E, Paragraph E.1).

For further information in this regard, please refer to the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026 and the press release of 3 November 2026 available on the Offeror's internet website (group.intesasanpaolo.com, Investor Relations section).

A.5 Valuation criteria underlying the determination of the Consideration

For each Share Subject to the Offer that is tendered in acceptance of the Offer, the Offeror shall thus pay the Consideration, which is not subject to adjustment (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1), including (i) the Share Consideration (i.e., 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror), and (ii) the Cash Consideration (i.e., an amount of €1.250 (one Euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror).

The Consideration (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1) has been determined on the assumption that, prior to the Payment Date:

(a) the Issuer and/or the Offeror do not approve or implement any ordinary (other than the 2026 Interim Dividend) or extraordinary distribution of dividends drawn from profits and/or other reserves; and

(b) the Issuer does not approve or carry out any transaction relating to its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions) and/or relating to the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, the consolidation or cancellation of shares, or the purchase of treasury shares).

If, prior to the Payment Date:

(i) the Issuer and/or the Offeror were to pay a dividend to their shareholders (other than the 2026 Interim Dividend), or in any event the dividend coupon relating to dividends (or interim dividends) already resolved but not yet paid by the Issuer and/or Intesa Sanpaolo, as the case may be, were to be detached from the Shares Subject to the Offer and/or from the shares of Intesa Sanpaolo, the Offeror reserves the right to adjust the Consideration to take account of the deduction of the distributed dividend from the Offeror's Reference Price and/or the Issuer's Reference Price used for the purposes of determining the Consideration;

(ii) should the Issuer approve or implement any transaction relating to its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions) and/or in respect of the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, share consolidation, share buy-backs or the cancellation of shares), without prejudice to the possible applicability of the Conditions of Effectiveness and without prejudice to the provisions of Section A, Paragraph A.1.1, the Offeror reserves the right to amend the Consideration to take account of the effects of the aforementioned transactions.

In this regard, it is pointed out that the distribution policy of the Offeror provides that the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo decides, upon approval of the results as of 30 September of each financial year, in relation to the payment of an interim dividend. The Board of Directors of the Offeror on 3 November 2026 resolved on the 2026 Interim Dividend. The 2026 Interim Dividend will be paid on 25 November 2026 (with an ex-dividend date of 23 November 2026 and a record date of 24 November 2026). As announced in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 November 2026, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the exchange ratio has been adjusted upwards from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend payment, and this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

The adjustment to the share consideration set forth in the Offer Notice resulting from the foregoing has been disclosed to the market in the manner and within the terms of the applicable legislation.

The consideration set forth in the Offer Notice was determined by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 8 June 2026, on the basis of its own analyses and considerations and with the advice and support of Provasoli Advisory Partners S.p.A. ("Provasoli Partners"), acting as financial and valuation expert, which issued a fairness opinion addressed exclusively to the Offeror's Board of Directors, confirming the appropriateness, from a strictly financial point of view, of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, in accordance with the terms and conditions set out therein (the "Fairness Opinion"). The Board of Directors, in its own independent analysis, deemed it appropriate to take into account the valuation analyses contained in the Fairness Opinion, adopting the methodologies and the respective valuation ranges set out therein.

On 3 October 2026, the Board of Directors of the Offeror resolved to increase, in the event of continuation of the Offer, on the basis of its analyses and valuations, the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror, without amending the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio set out in the Offer Notice. In this regard, Provasoli Partners, in its capacity as financial and valuation expert, has confirmed the appropriateness, from a strictly financial point of view, of such consideration.

On 3 November 2026 the Offeror's Board of Directors has resolved the 2026 Interim Dividend and thus, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the exchange ratio was adjusted upwards from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend payment, and this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

As a result of these increases, the Consideration is composed, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror, of (i) the Share Consideration (i.e. 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four)) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares and (ii) the Cash Consideration (i.e. an amount equal to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents)).

The Consideration is net of stamp duty, registration tax and financial transaction tax, if due, and of fees, commissions and expenses which shall be borne by the Offeror. Conversely, any income tax, withholding tax or substitute tax, where applicable, on any capital gain realised shall be borne by the Tendering Shareholders. This shall also apply to the Shares Subject to the Offer that are subject to the Squeeze-Out, including, if applicable, in the context of the Joint Procedure.

Based on the nature of the consideration, composed of a share component and a cash component in exchange for the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, the valuation analyses underlying the determination of the consideration were carried out by comparing the economic values of the Offeror and the Issuer. The valuations and estimates made should therefore be understood in relative terms and with exclusive reference to the Offer.

Consequently, in accordance with an established principle in valuation practice, the valuation approach adopted by the Offeror has prioritised the principle of relative homogeneity and comparability of the valuation criteria applied, with the aim of identifying ranges of relative values that are homogeneous and comparable between the Issuer and the Offeror. The estimates of the economic capital of the Issuer and the Offeror underlying the determination of the Consideration are therefore meaningful exclusively in relative terms.

The valuations carried out by the Offeror, for the purpose of determining the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, relate to (i) the known economic and market conditions as of the Reference Date (i.e. 5 June 2026, corresponding to the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date) or during the 12 (twelve) months preceding the Reference Date, and (ii) the economic, equity and financial position of the Offeror and the Issuer as set out in the financial statements as of 31 December 2025 and in the interim statements as of 31 March 2026, and in the related press releases and presentations of results to the financial community.

In particular, the Offeror's Board of Directors, for the purpose of determining the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, took into account the valuation analyses contained in the Fairness Opinion, adopting the following valuation methodologies, all having equal relevance, and the respective valuation ranges:

(i) the market multiples method, specifically the ratio of Price/Earnings and linear regression between multiples of Price/Tangible Net Equity and their respective levels of prospective profitability expressed in RoATE;

(ii) the Stock Market Price method;

(iii) the method based on premiums paid in previous public tender and/or exchange offers;

(iv) the method based on target prices identified by research analysts; and

(v) the Dividend Discount Model, using the so-called "Excess Capital" variant.

These valuations are subject to the following main limitations:

(i) the Offeror has used exclusively publicly available data and information for the purposes of its analyses;

(ii) the Offeror has not carried out any financial, legal, commercial, tax, industrial or any other form of due diligence on the Issuer; and

(iii) as to the Issuer, there is no annual breakdown of the financial and balance sheet projections over the time of the MPS Business Plan. Therefore, where relevant for the purposes of applying the valuation methods, the projections relating to future financial and balance sheet performance used for the Issuer – and, for the sake of consistency, for the Offeror – have been derived on the basis of estimates provided by research analysts ("consensus"). As to the consensus, it is pointed out that (a) there is a limited number of estimates for the Issuer relating to the year 2029 and (b) there is a discrepancy in the number of brokers available between the Offeror and the Issuer.

The valuation methodologies set out above were applied using the same approach as for the Fairness Opinion and therefore on a "stand-alone" basis and on a going concern basis (so-called "as-is") for both companies.

In the context of the valuations functional to the decision to increase, in the event of continuation of the Offer, the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents), announced in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, the Offeror's Board of Directors also considered, inter alia, (i) market data until 2 October 2026; and (ii) the consolidated half-year reports as of 30 June 2026 and the relevant press releases, as well as the presentations to the financial community of the Offeror and the Issuer (collectively, the "New Information").

For further information, please refer to Section E, Paragraph E.1, of the Offer Document.

A.6 The Share Capital Increase in Support of the Offer

A.6.1. Corporate procedure applicable to the Share Capital Increase in Support of the Offer

The Share Consideration consists of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be issued pursuant to the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, approved by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 19 October 2026, on the basis of the authorisation granted to that body by the Offeror's shareholders' meeting on 10 September 2026.

The Capital Increase in Support of the Offer is subject to the provisions set forth in articles 2440 and 2343-ter et seq. of the Civil Code on capital increases to be paid up by way of contributions in kind.

Specifically, the Offeror has resolved, pursuant to article 2440, paragraph 2, of the Civil Code, to avail itself of the provisions set out in articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Civil Code for the appraisal of the Shares Subject to the Offer to be contributed. These provisions allow, in particular, for the waiver of the requirement for a sworn appraisal report on the assets contributed, prepared by an expert appointed by the Court within whose jurisdiction the transferee company has its registered office (in this case, the Court of Turin), provided that the value attributed to the assets being contributed, for the purposes of determining the share capital and any share premium, "is equal to or lower than" the value resulting from a valuation referring to a date no more than 6 (six) months prior to the contribution and in accordance with the generally recognised principles and criteria for the valuation of assets subject to contribution; provided that such valuation is carried out by an independent expert (independent of the party making the transfer, the transferee company and the shareholders who, individually or jointly, exercise control over the transferring entity or the company itself) with adequate and proven professionalism (for further details, see article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code).

The Offeror has therefore appointed Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., acting as an independent expert pursuant to article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code, to prepare the valuation of the Shares Subject to the Offer that are to be contributed in kind. Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B. issued on 18 July 2026, the Independent Expert's Opinion, based on the balance sheet as of 31 March 2026. Subsequently, on 17 October 2026, Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., at the request of the Offeror's Board of Directors, proceeded with the update of the Independent Expert's Opinion taking into account the financial position of the Issuer as of 30 June 2026, which, as a consequence, constitutes the new reference date for the Independent Expert's Opinion.

In accordance with the law, the value attributed to the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered for the purposes of determining the share capital and share premium must be equal to or lower than the value indicated in the independent expert's report.

It is pointed out that, on 20 July 2026, EY S.p.A., acting on behalf of the Offeror, issued a report (prepared in accordance with ISAE – International Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 Revised) regarding the criteria used by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo, in which it confirmed that nothing had come to its attention that would lead it to believe that the valuation methods adopted by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo for determining the exchange ratio in the context of the Offer are inadequate, as they are reasonable and not arbitrary in the present case, and that they have been correctly applied for the purposes of determining the exchange ratio, as further described in Section E, Paragraph E.1, of the Offer Document.

On 19 October 2026, EY S.p.A. issued its report on the appropriateness of the issue price of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares reserved to the Offer, as determined by the Offeror's Board of Directors, pursuant to the combined provisions of article 2441, paragraph 4, first sentence, and paragraph 6, of the Civil Code and article 158, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

Finally, it is pointed out that the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer is a significant transaction according to the criteria set out in Annex 3B of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 70, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation, and that the Offeror has never waived the obligation set out in article 70, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation (the so-called "opt-out"). For this reason, on 24 July 2026, the information document prepared pursuant to article 70, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation was made available to the public.

It is pointed out that article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code provides that, in cases where the transferee company has opted for the valuation of the contributed assets in accordance with the provisions of articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Civil Code, one or more shareholders who represent, and represented, on the date of the board resolution authorising the capital increase, at least one-twentieth of the share capital prior to such capital increase may request, within 30 days from the date of registration of the board resolution authorising the capital increase in the Companies Register (i.e., by 20 November 2026), that, on the initiative of the directors and in accordance with and for the purposes of article 2343 of the Civil Code, a new valuation be carried out of the contributed assets by means of a sworn report by an expert appointed by the competent Court (in this case, the Court of Turin).

It is also pointed out that the Offeror's Board of Directors is required to issue, within 30 days of the date on which the board resolution authorising the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer is registered in the Turin Register of Companies, a statement certifying, amongst other things, that the expert who issued the valuation referred to in article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code meets the requirements of professionalism and independence. In this regard, it is specified that this statement, together with the information provided for in letters (a), (b) and (c) of article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, was issued by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 19 October 2026 and is contained in the board resolution on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer filed with the Turin Companies Register on 21 October 2026.

Furthermore, pursuant to article 2443, paragraph 4, last subparagraph, of the Civil Code, in the event that:

(i) within 30 days of the filing in the Turin Companies Register of the resolution on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, the request under article 2443, paragraph 4, of the Civil Code has not been submitted (i.e. by 20 November 2026); and

(ii) the Offeror's Board of Directors has not identified, after the reference date of the valuation issued by the independent expert pursuant to article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code, any exceptional circumstances or new material facts that significantly affect the aforementioned valuation (i.e., in the present case, the value attributed to the Shares Subject to the Offer for the purposes of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer), the Offeror's Board of Directors will file, for registration in the Turin Register of Companies, together with the statement referred to in article 2444 of the Civil Code, the statement provided for in article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, letter d), of the Civil Code.

In this regard, it is envisaged that the conduct of such verification pursuant to article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, letter d), of the Civil Code and the issue of the relevant statement by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo will take place in due time to fulfil the related obligations. It is also envisaged that the registration of this statement by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo with the relevant Companies Register will take place in due time prior to the Payment Date to enable the unrestricted availability of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares that will be allocated to the Tendering Shareholders as Share Consideration on the Payment Date itself. The Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer will be admitted to trading on the same market on which – at the time of their issue – the existing Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares are traded. The Intesa Sanpaolo Shares will be listed automatically, in accordance with the provisions of the Stock Exchange Regulations and article IA.2.1.9 of the Stock Exchange Instructions, as they will be fungible with, and will have the same characteristics as, the already listed Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares. It is pointed out that, in relation to the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has published the Prospectus, which is available to the public at the Offeror's registered office and on its website.

Until registration in the Turin Register of Companies of the statements by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo referred to in article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, any Intesa Sanpaolo Shares issued in execution of the Capital Increase as Share Consideration will be restricted (and therefore may not be disposed of) and must remain deposited with the Offeror.

It is pointed out that, should:

(i) within 30 days of the registration in the Turin Companies Register of the resolution on the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer (i.e. by 20 November 2026), a qualified minority were to exercise the rights referred to in article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code; and/or

(ii) by the Payment Date, the Offeror's Board of Directors were to find that exceptional circumstances or significant new facts have occurred such as to significantly change the value of the assets contributed (i.e., the value attributed to the Shares Subject to the Offer for the purposes of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer) and which would therefore prevent the issue of the aforementioned statement by the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo referred to in point (d), the Board of Directors shall carry out a new valuation of the contributions in kind (i.e., the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered) in accordance with article 2343 of the Civil Code and consequently initiate the standard procedure for the valuation of contributions in kind by requesting the competent Court (in this case, the Court of Turin) to appoint an expert who will prepare, in compliance with the applicable regulations, a sworn valuation report on the assets contributed.

Furthermore, again pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code, should the Board of Directors' review of the sworn report reveal that the value of the assets contributed is more than one-fifth lower than the valuation indicated in the Independent Expert's Opinion – as updated, where applicable, and as endorsed by the Board of Directors – Intesa Sanpaolo shall apply the relevant provisions set forth in article 2343 of the Civil Code (including, if applicable, a reduction in the amount of the share premium and the nominal share capital of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer).

Without prejudice to the foregoing, it is pointed out that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror's Board of Directors has not identified any exceptional circumstances or significant new facts such as to require, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the initiation of the standard procedure for the valuation of contributions in kind, which requires a sworn report by an expert appointed by the competent Court pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code.

For further information regarding the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer and the procedure referred to in articles 2440 and 2343-ter et seq. of the Civil Code, please refer to the introduction to the Offer Document.

For the sake of completeness, it is pointed out that the above will apply, mutatis mutandis, should the conditions for the Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or the exercise of the Squeeze-Out arise, including, if applicable, within the framework of the Joint Procedure.

A.6.2. Absence of impact on the Consideration

It is pointed out that, because the Offeror's ordinary shares (including the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be issued in connection with the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer) have no nominal value, any recourse to the ordinary procedure for the valuation of contributions in kind referred to in article 2343 of the Civil Code — whether following a request by minority shareholders pursuant to article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code, or following the failure of the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo to issue a statement pursuant to article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, letter d) of the Civil Code (for further information, please refer to Section A, Paragraph A.6.1 of the Offer Document) — will have no impact on the Exchange Ratio and, consequently, on the Share Consideration and, therefore, on the Consideration, as well as on the right of Tendering Shareholders to be allocated the corresponding number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares as Share Consideration; and this would also apply even if, following the ordinary valuation procedure referred to in article 2343 of the Civil Code, it were to emerge that the value attributed to the Shares Subject to the Offer being contributed is lower than that indicated in the Independent Expert's Opinion, as may be updated, given that in the hypothetical scenario mentioned above, in accordance with the fairness opinion issued by the auditing firm, this would result – considering that the Offeror's ordinary shares have no nominal value – in a reduction in the amount of the share premium relating to the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, but not in the number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be issued as Share Consideration.

A.6.3. Possible unavailability of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares offered as Share Consideration

Taking into account the rules applicable to the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer and the procedure set out in articles 2440 and 2343-ter et seq. of the Civil Code (for further information, please refer to the previous ParagraphA.6.1 of this Section A of the Offer Document), it is pointed out that:

(i) in the event of recourse to the ordinary valuation procedure for the Shares Subject to the Offer pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code, should a request be received from the minority shareholders of Intesa Sanpaolo pursuant to article 2443, paragraph 4 of the Civil Code, the Offeror shall proceed to complete the Offer in accordance with applicable legislation, it being understood that it may agree with CONSOB and Borsa Italiana, as appropriate, to extend the Acceptance Period to the maximum extent permitted by applicable legislation for the purposes of carrying out the ordinary valuation procedure for the Shares Subject to the Offer pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code;

(ii) in the event that the directors of Intesa Sanpaolo fail to issue the statement, pursuant to article 2343-quater, paragraph 3, letter d) of the Civil Code, by the Payment Date or by the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be allocated to Tendering Shareholders will be unavailable (and therefore non-transferable) until the completion of the aforementioned valuation procedure for the Shares Subject to the Offer pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code.

For further information, please refer to Section F of the Offer Document.

A.7 Management of Fractional Parts of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares offered as Share Consideration

Given that, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, in addition to the Cash Consideration, 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares will be allotted, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio, the result of applying the Exchange Ratio to the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer by a Tendering Shareholder may not be a whole number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares. Such Fractional Parts of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares will be treated in accordance with the provisions set out in Section F, Paragraph F.6, of the Offer Document.

A.8 Rationale of the Offer and summary of the Offeror's future plans regarding the Issuer

The financial and banking sector, both in Italy and across Europe, requires a process of consolidation that creates large-scale players capable of sustaining the investments needed – against a backdrop of technological and operational change – to compete with new entrants and maintain adequate levels of profitability in an increasingly integrated market. The Offeror is therefore determined to proceed with the Offer in order to consolidate its position in the European banking sector and its presence in Italy, where it already operates successfully across all market segments.

A transaction such as that between the Offeror and the Issuer represents a key strategic opportunity within the Italian and European banking sector, accelerating value creation, not least through the achievement of significant synergies that combine scale, complementarity and low execution risk, with the aim of consolidating the main business areas of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group, in particular: Wealth Management, Protection & Advisory, Corporate & Investment Banking, Retail &

Commercial Banking and Consumer Finance.

In fact, the integration of the Issuer with the Offeror – which is functional to the pursuit of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and, as such, necessarily assumes the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror - through the combination of diversified business models that are similar yet complementary, will enable the new combined entity to respond more effectively to market challenges, ensuring the utmost focus on the customer, strong financial soundness and significant sustainable profitability, whilst supporting the professional development of its people, the real economy and local communities across the country.

In particular, the Offer represents a market transaction aimed at realising the potential of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group by achieving the following industrial and financial targets:

(i) consolidation of its position in Italy and abroad:

taking on an even more prominent role in the banking sector in Italy and abroad across all business lines, creating the second-largest listed banking group in the Eurozone by market capitalisation (customer financial assets on a proforma basis as of 31 December 2025 are equal to over €1,700 billion, expected to increase to approximately €2,000 billion by 2029) with a resilient business model (operating income is equal to approximately €33 billion on a proforma basis as of 31 December 2025).

According to the Offeror, the MPS assets intended to be retained in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, including MB, shall contribute to strengthening and consolidating a pan-European group, firmly rooted in Italy, with the scale, expertise and investment capacity to compete with the continent's leading players.

In particular, the approximately 625 branches of MPS that will be retained by ISP are expected to strengthen the presence in areas that currently are relatively underserved and to enable it to extend to households, SMEs and entrepreneurs, in particular in the territories with a stronger international focus, the full range of services, specialist expertise and investment capacity of ISP, with a related commitment to increase loan disbursements across the territories; MB will be part of a large-scale and highly complementary platform, capable of enhancing expertise, brand value and human capital, whilst strengthening its international presence and increasing its capacity for technological investment.

(ii) robust profit generation:

achieving a run-rate consolidated net profit exceeding €16 billion in 2029 (an increase of €+4.5 billion compared with the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's current 2029 target) and a Return on Equity exceeding 20% in line with the current Return on Equity as of 2029 envisaged in the Offeror's 2026-2029 Business Plan (the "2026-2029 Business Plan") (22%);

(iii) high and sustainable value creation and distribution:

ensuring a high and sustainable distribution to shareholders of Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS, both through high levels of cash dividends that are sustainable over time and through share buy-back transactions, offering a higher return compared with stand-alone scenarios, also reflecting the revenue and cost synergies, estimated at approximately €2.9 billion before tax per year, an amount already including the synergies deriving from the integration of MB into the Intesa

Sanpaolo Group (regardless of the different methods in which such integration may take place) and expected to be achieved, once fully implemented, from 2029 onwards.

The transaction is expected to increase Intesa Sanpaolo's earnings per share (EPS), dividend per share (DPS) and total distribution per share (including share buy-back) by approximately 8%[2] by 2029; the total distribution for the period 2025–2029 is expected to amount to approximately €61 billion (subject to the approvals of the ECB and the shareholders and based on the achievement of the net accounting profit targets), representing an increase of approximately €11 billion compared with the approximately €50 billion under the 2026-2029 Business Plan, confirming the ordinary distribution policy (75% cash dividend payout ratio and 20% share buy-back)[3] and €2.7 billion in extraordinary cash distributions for the two-year period 2026–2027.

(iv) expanding and diversifying expertise and business areas:

further expanding and diversifying its expertise and business areas, consolidating its presence in Wealth Management, Corporate & Investment Banking and Consumer Finance, also on the basis of the distinctive expertise developed by the Issuer in these sectors, in synergy with the Offeror's activities;

(v) ability to promote and attract talent:

investing in people, recognising their abilities and merit, offering wide opportunities for professional growth within a leading organisation in Italy and Europe, with the overall target of approximately 13,100 new hires of young people (of whom approximately 2,700 will be Global Advisors to strengthen the commercial and advisory capacity of the entity resulting from the integration) by 2029, along with the expected generational turnover resulting from the entirely voluntary departure, with no social impact, of approximately 6,800 people from the organisation resulting from the integration of the MPS Group into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group (of whom approximately 5,000 people relate to the Intesa Sanpaolo scope, in addition to those set forth in the 2026–2029 Business Plan) in addition to MPS's natural staff turnover, this referring to the turnover dynamics of MPS's workforce linked to natural attrition and to any voluntary departures already provided for in MPS's corporate plans. Therefore, no restructuring measures are envisaged that would result in any involuntary reduction in the workforce of the Issuer, its subsidiaries or the ISP Perimeter (as defined and identified in Section A, Paragraph A.10 of the Offer Document), nor are any unilateral substantial amendments to employment contracts envisaged that could have a direct negative impact on the MPS Group's overall workforce, or on the working and employment conditions of the relevant employees. At the same time, the Offeror deems that the integration shall allow the employees of the Issuer, of the ISP Perimeter and their respective subsidiaries to benefit from increased growth opportunities and professional development within a larger organisation, capable of promoting their skills, talents and professionalism. Therefore, the industrial synergies of the Transaction are not pursued through a net reduction of employment, but through generational turnover, investment in expertise and the enhancement of people's potential.

As to work sites, the Offeror intends to preserve the value of the local presence and operational facilities of the entity resulting from the integration. The Offeror plans to implement concrete measures to enhance the Issuer's local presence within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's new structure, through:

[3] As to the Offeror's net accounting profit, the distribution of 75% in the form of cash dividends is subject to the approval of the Offeror's shareholders' meeting, and that of 20% through buyback – provided that the Offeror's CET1 ratio exceeds 12.5% and there are no options available to allocate capital to external growth initiatives with a higher ROI (return on investment) focused on Wealth Management – is subject to the approval of the ECB and the Offeror's shareholders' meeting.

- the creation in Siena of a technology hub specialising in the end-to-end management of specific business applications, enhancing the local university ecosystem and promoting the creation of new qualified jobs;
- the strengthening of management functions across the region, i.e. the consideration of a new Sales Department in Tuscany also in light of the expansion of the regional presence resulting from the transaction;
- the attribution to Siena of a secondary office for ISP's central functions, performing highly specialised governance functions;
- the increase of lending issued in the territory.

The preservation of Siena should therefore be seen not merely as a repository of the history and identity of MPS, but also as an opportunity to provide the city with a genuine and sustainable industrial role within the new framework, bringing benefits to the real economy of the city and its province, as well as to its university and research sector.

At the same time, the NewBank Perimeter is functional to preserving the MPS brand, the network of branches of the NewBank Perimeter, the registered office of MPS, the central functions of MPS and the systems and expertise necessary to build an independent bank.

In particular, as disclosed to the market by the Unipol Group, the combination with BPER Banca S.p.A. would result in a new player with more than 2,600 branches under the MPS brand, against the current 1,260 branches: MPS would more than double its network, complementing the bank's expertise with that of Unipol in bancassurance and that of Arca in the asset management and insurance activities, while retaining its brand and identity.

The same principle of maintaining employment levels described above shall be adopted in the integration that will give rise to the banking group headed by Unipol, aimed at combining business growth with employment protection, whilst also retaining the headquarters hub in Siena for all operations for Central and Southern Italy[4].

Therefore, the transactions that may derive from the Offer, within the strategic aim of strengthening the Italian banking system, do not result in any resizing of MPS: conversely, they lay the foundations for making it the centrepiece of a leading banking group, on a significantly larger scale than at present, with proprietary product factories.

In any event, any measures to streamline the distribution network and operational structures will be assessed as part of the organisational integration process following the completion of the Offer, taking into account the need for operational efficiency, economic sustainability and continuity of service for the benefit of customers.

further capitalising on the investments already made by the Intesa Sanpaolo Group in the IT sector, also with reference to cloud computing and artificial intelligence, through the application of the same on a larger scale and across a broader scope of operations, as well as through the application of the Offeror's best practices and the enhancement of complementary strengths of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group.

It should be noted that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not approved a consolidated business plan for the Intesa Sanpaolo Group taking into account the completion of the Offer. Following the completion of the Offer, and subject to the necessary assessments and analyses, the Offeror may prepare an industrial plan relating to the entity resulting from the integration with MPS which will be subject to the approval by the competent corporate bodies.

For further information regarding the reasons for the Offer and the future plans developed by the Offeror in relation to the Issuer, as well as forward-looking and/or target-related information concerning the Offeror, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.10 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2, of the Offer Document and to Section 8 named "PROFIT FORECASTS OR ESTIMATES" of the Prospectus.

A.9 Effects related to the national and international macroeconomic context

As a preliminary matter, attention is drawn to the fact that the completion of the Offer is subject to the MAE Condition. For further details regarding the MAE Condition and its interpretation and application, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.1.1(vi) of the Offer Document.

(A) Trade protectionism

Against a backdrop characterised by a relative weakening of the global economic cycle and marked uncertainty stemming from the evolving geopolitical tensions, the return of certain countries to a protectionist trade policy stance may have adverse effects on global growth in the medium term. In particular, the introduction of new tariffs on imports may trigger a "trade war" capable of adversely affecting international trade. Such a development may jeopardise the continuation of the global expansion cycle and the realignment of international commodity prices, while also contributing to increased volatility in foreign exchange and securities markets.

In light of the current circumstances and the targets being pursued, the Offeror considers that the rationale of the Offer is not directly affected by the potential consequences arising from protectionist trade policies. The Offeror also considers that the impact of this risk on Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS is negligible, given the limited relevance of the sectors most exposed to tariff-related risks, a circumstance which significantly mitigates the potential vulnerability of the overall portfolio.

Nevertheless, as of the Date of the Offer Document, in light of the uncertainties surrounding the evolution of the above-mentioned trade policies, adverse repercussions on the economic, financial and/or capital position of the Offeror and/or the Issuer and/or the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and/or the MPS Group cannot at this stage be excluded.

(B) Conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the European and international geopolitical landscape is significantly influenced, primarily, by the conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine. The resulting geopolitical crises give rise to regional political and economic instability with global repercussions, affecting financial markets, commodity prices and international trade relations.

The Intesa Sanpaolo Group considers that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, neither the Issuer's activities nor rational of the Offer are affected by the current environment.

As to the Issuer's future management plans (as described in Section G, Paragraph G.2, of the Offer Document), the Offeror, taking into account the existing circumstances and those reasonably foreseeable as of the Date of the Offer Document, does not anticipate any significant changes related to the impact of the conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine.

However, in light of the uncertainties surrounding the evolution of the above-mentioned conflicts, any escalation of political and military tensions, the potential financial crisis and/or economic recession that may result therefrom, as well as the possibility that the continuation of hostilities may give rise to indirect effects on international economic and market conditions, as of the Date of the Offer Document, it cannot be excluded that such developments may have repercussions on the economic, capital and/or financial position of the Offeror and/or the Issuer and/or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies.

A.10 Transactions as a result of the Offer

In order to proactively manage the antitrust issues arising from the transaction, on 8 June 2026 the Offeror entered into the Unipol Agreement, subsequently amended by the parties on 3 August 2026 in respect of certain matters relating to regulatory approvals, pursuant to which, inter alia, Unipol undertook to acquire, presumably by the end of 2027 (subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions precedent, including, (i) the successful completion of the Offer; (ii) the appointment of a new board of directors of MPS composed of a majority of candidates taken from the list that will be submitted and voted on - by Intesa Sanpaolo; (iii) the accession to the Unipol Agreement by MPS and, if necessary, by NewBank, as well as any other parties – other than Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS – that would hold its entire share capital; (iv) the completion of the corporate and reorganisation transactions functional to procure that NewBank is the owner of NewBank Perimeter; (v) the completion of the Unipol share capital increase resolved by Unipol's board of directors on 7 October 2026 according to the proxy granted by the Unipol extraordinary shareholders' meeting on 30 July 2026 (the aforementioned execution of the share capital increase was announced by Unipol on 26 October 2026 in a press release available on the internet website of Unipol at unipol.com); (vi) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the Antitrust Clearance; (vii) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the other Authorisations (as defined in the Unipol Agreement); (viii) the obtaining by Unipol of the antitrust clearance in relation to the NewBank Transaction (as defined below); (ix) the obtaining by Unipol of the further authorisations required for the acquisition of control of NewBank; and (x) the completion of the applicable trade union procedures, for a consideration not exceeding €3.5 billion[5], the entire share capital of NewBank, which may coincide with the Issuer itself, and which will in any event operate under the MPS brand and distinctive marks, having the NewBank Perimeter which, subject to any replacements and adjustments, is expected to consist of a total of 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy) of the Issuer (together with the associated assets and legal relationships), and the majority of the Issuer's central functions and activities (together with the related assets and liabilities) necessary to operate as an independent bank.

It should be noted that, the Unipol Agreement provides that the NewBank Transaction (as defined below) may be completed even with the transfer only of those branches for which antitrust clearance has been granted. In this case, without prejudice to the integration mechanisms for the NewBank Perimeter (through other assets and liabilities, other than non-performing loans) provided for in the Unipol Agreement in order to ensure that, in any scenario, the relevant parameters relating to the NewBank Perimeter, including, inter alia, the net income target of the aforementioned NewBank Perimeter (ranging from €400 million to €460 million), are met, it being understood that the application of such mechanisms could adversely affect the strategic objectives of the Offer. It is pointed out that, with reference to the replacement of the branches of the NewBank Perimeter, should such branches be deemed not sufficient in the context of the assessment proceedings of the antitrust authority of the concentration transaction resulting from the Offer, the Offeror shall consider disposing such excess of branches also to operators other than Unipol.

It is then pointed out that, as Intesa Sanpaolo does not exercise control over MPS, Intesa Sanpaolo has not issued any full representations and warranties in favour of Unipol, nor has it assumed any general indemnity obligations in relation to the NewBank Perimeter; it being understood, however, that (i) the costs of winding up the current insurance joint ventures owned by MPS will be borne by Intesa Sanpaolo, whilst, as to the asset management contracts, the allocation of the related obligations, charges and liabilities will be based on a principle of economic risk allocation in line with the assets pertaining to the respective perimeters as of 31 December 2026, or, should the MB Merger (in civil law terms) have already become effective, then as of the date of MPS's latest individual balance sheet following 1 January 2026, approved prior to the MB Merger becoming effective (this last scenario is excluded since the MPS Shareholders' Meeting has not approved the MB Merger); (ii) the assets, liabilities and legal relationships of the MPS Group companies not included in the NewBank Perimeter shall be borne in full by the ISP Perimeter; and (iii) any further contingent assets, as well as liabilities not relating to MPS branches, which are undisclosed as of the date referred to in point (i) above and which arise before the third anniversary of the date of completion of the NewBank Transaction (as defined below) and provided that they actually entail a financial expenditure or other definitive financial loss (excluding loss of profit), shall be borne by (or accrue to, in the case of contingent assets) ISP Perimeter and the NewBank Perimeter in equal shares of 50% each, without any duplication of coverage.

As a result of the completion of the Offer and the execution of the aforementioned transaction governed by the Unipol Agreement (the "NewBank Transaction"), the Intesa Sanpaolo Group will hold an aggregate set of assets, liabilities and legal relationships attributable to MPS, other than those included in the NewBank Perimeter, including, without limitation, 625 MPS branches, the controlling shareholding in Widiba, all assets, liabilities and legal relationships relating to the Large Corporate & Investment Banking segment of MPS, all bancassurance relationships and the controlling shareholding in MB, which in turn holds, in addition to certain subsidiaries in Italy and abroad (among which MB Premier and Compass Banca S.p.A.), a financial non-controlling shareholding of 13.32% in AG (the "ISP Perimeter").

The characteristics of the NewBank Perimeter, as set out in the Unipol Agreement, are as follows:

- 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy);
- direct deposits totalling approximately €56 billion;
- net lending to customers of approximately €42 billion;
- net profit of between €400 million and €460 million;
- a CET 1 ratio of 16%;
- LCR, MREL and NSFR substantially in line with those of MPS (without limitation as of 30 June 2026 the MPS Group recorded an LCR equal to 169% and an NSFR equal to 122%; on the same date MREL-TREA and MREL-LRE, respectively, were equal to 29.1% and 10.8%);
- RWA of up to €20 billion;

- Monte dei Paschi di Siena brand;
- approximately 2 million customers.

The following, however, will not form part of the NewBank Perimeter:

- assets and liabilities relating to Large Corporate and Investment Banking;
- MPS's main shareholdings;
- non-performing loans;
- the risk relating to existing litigation not pertaining to the branches of the NewBank Perimeter.

NewBank will retain or be provided with MPS's resources, operational and IT systems, and governance, management and control structures, all in continuity with MPS's operations; therefore, with the structures and systems as they currently exist and are organised within MPS for its own functioning, including the relevant employment relationships.

In order to implement the Unipol Agreement and, consequently, to arrange, inter alia, for the transfer of 100% of NewBank's share capital to Unipol, the extraordinary transactions referred to in Section A, Paragraphs A.10.1, A.10.2 and A.10.3 will be carried out, depending on the shareholding in the Issuer's share capital that the Offeror will hold as a result of the Offer.

For further information regarding the Unipol Agreement, please refer to Section G, Paragraph G.2.2.3, of the Offer Document.

A.10.1. Possible Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital

Should, following the outcome of the Offer – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and any purchases made by the Offeror outside the scope of the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), and/or as a result of any exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, including, as applicable, within the framework of the Joint Procedure – Intesa Sanpaolo were to come to hold 100% of the Issuer, and consequently the Delisting were to take place, NewBank shall be identified as the Issuer itself and its entire share capital shall be transferred to Unipol, including exclusively the NewBank Perimeter, subject to the spin-off or, in any event, transfer to Intesa Sanpaolo, or, as applicable, to other entities within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, of the ISP Perimeter (the "Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital"). For the sake of clarity, it is pointed out that in that case the Offeror will clearly not proceed with the Merger for Delisting.

A.10.2. Possible Merger for Delisting

If, following the outcome of the Offer – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – the Offeror were to hold a shareholding of less than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, but the Threshold Condition were to be met, this would enable the Offeror to hold an absolute majority at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of MPS and therefore, subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations from the competent authorities and in compliance with the applicable corporate governance rules and procedures, to proceed with the transfer of the NewBank Perimeter to NewBank (which may, in this case, be an existing or newly incorporated banking entity) following the completion of any Merger for Delisting (if so resolved).

It is pointed out that should the Offeror acquire a holding of less than 90% of the Issuer's share capital and the Threshold Condition be amended or waived by the Offeror, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold (and the other Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or have been amended or waived by the Offeror), upon completion of the Offer, a proposal may still be submitted to the Issuer's shareholders' meeting for the approval of the Merger for Delisting in order to effect the Delisting. In that case, the Offeror may hold a shareholding in the Issuer's share capital, even if less than 66.67% (provided that it is at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) such as to enable, thus, the Offeror to appoint a majority of the Issuer's directors and to implement also the Merger for Delisting (it being understood that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision regarding the resolution on the Merger for Delisting).

In any event, if for any reason the Merger for Delisting is not executed, Intesa Sanpaolo, by appointing a new Board of Directors composed of a majority of members appointed by it, will procure that the transfer of the NewBank Perimeter to the separate banking entity identified as NewBank is implemented.

As of the Date of the Offer Document, however, the Offeror has not yet taken any decision regarding the possible Merger for Delisting, even though this would constitute (should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, hold less than 90% of the Issuer's share capital) a target of the Offer in line with the reasons for the Offer.

If approved, the Merger for Delisting will take place on the basis of an exchange ratio determined in accordance with article 2501-ter of the Civil Code, using, as is standard practice, consistent methodologies and assumptions in the valuation of the companies involved, and therefore no premium will be payable to the minority shareholders of the company being merged by incorporation.

Should the Offeror decide to proceed with the Merger for Delisting, shareholders of the Issuer who have not accepted the Offer and who have not taken part in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting shall in no circumstances be entitled to a right of withdrawal pursuant to article 2437-quinquies of the Civil Code, as, upon completion of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders would receive, in exchange, ordinary shares in Intesa Sanpaolo that are listed on Euronext Milan.

Furthermore, as to the other cases of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code, it is clarified that the Offeror envisages that the possible Merger for Delisting is implemented in such a manner as to prevent the right of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code from arising in respect of the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer and have not participated in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting.

For further information provided to MPS shareholders regarding possible alternative scenarios concerning acceptance or non-acceptance of the Offer, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.15, of the Offer Document.

A.10.3. Extraordinary transactions in addition to the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital and the Merger for Delisting

Following the completion of the Offer, and also following the Delisting, the Offeror does not rule out the possibility of considering in the future the opportunity to implement any extraordinary transactions in addition to the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital and the Merger for Delisting (if applicable) and/or corporate and business reorganisation, in line with the targets and rationale of the transaction, which will be deemed appropriate also for the purpose of ensuring the integration of the Offeror's and the Issuer's businesses.

In any event, as of the Date of the Offer Document, no decisions have been taken by the relevant corporate bodies regarding any further extraordinary transactions.

A.10.4. Communications and authorisations for the implementation of the Offer

The Offer is subject, inter alia, to obtaining the Other Authorisations and the Antitrust Clearance. In this regard, please refer to the information set out in Section A, Paragraphs A.1.1 and A.1.2 of the Offer Document.

For the sake of completeness, please note that all Prior Authorisations relevant to the implementation and completion of the Offer were obtained prior to the Date of the Offer Document. For further details, reference should be made to Section C, Paragraph C.2 of the Offer Document.

A.11 Reopening of the Acceptance Period

Although the Offer, being launched by a party other than those specified in article 39-bis, paragraph 1, letter a), of the Issuers' Regulation, is not subject to the mandatory Reopening of the Acceptance Period provided for in article 40-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, the Offeror will, on a voluntary basis, apply to the Offer the provisions relating to the Reopening of the Acceptance Period set out in article 40-bis, paragraph 1, letter a), of the Issuers' Regulation.

Therefore, as set out in Section F, Paragraph F.1.1 of the Offer Document, should the Offeror, upon publication of the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer (see Section F, Paragraph F.3 of the Offer Document), announce that the Threshold Condition has been met or waived (without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold), by the next Trading Day following the Payment Date, the Acceptance Period shall be reopened for 5 (five) Trading Days (namely, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period, for the trading sessions on 1 February, 2 February, 3 February, 4 February and 5 February 2027).

Should the conditions for the Reopening of the Acceptance Period be met, the Offeror shall pay the Consideration to each Tendering Shareholder, who has accepted the Offer during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period on the 5th (fifth) Trading Day following the close of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period and therefore, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period, on 12 February 2027.

However, the Reopening of the Acceptance Period shall not take place in the circumstances under article 40-bis, paragraph 3 of the Issuers' Regulation.

A.12 Statement of the Offeror regarding the exercise of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance and the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, and regarding the simultaneous exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance

The Offeror intends to implement the Delisting. In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer that may be made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – an aggregate shareholding of more than 90%, but less than 95% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention not to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares Subject to the Offer.

Should the Offeror, following the Offer, come to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer that may be made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – an aggregate shareholding of at least 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention to exercise the purchase right in respect of the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance (the "Squeeze-Out"). Furthermore, in such circumstances, the Offeror shall be required, as the case may be:

(i) if it has come to hold a total shareholding of more than 90%, but less than 95% of MPS's share capital, pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, to purchase the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer from the Issuer's shareholders who so request (the "Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance"); or

(ii) if it comes to hold a total shareholding equal to or greater than 95% of MPS's share capital, pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, to purchase the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer from the Issuer's shareholders who so request (the "Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance").

Consequently, by exercising the Squeeze-Out, the Offeror will simultaneously fulfil the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, or, as the case may be, the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, thereby initiating a single procedure (the "Joint Procedure").

The Squeeze-Out shall be exercised as soon as possible following the completion of the Offer, in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed with CONSOB and Borsa Italiana.

For the purposes of calculating the threshold pursuant to articles 108, paragraph 1 or 2, and 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, the Issuer's Treasury Shares shall be included in the total shareholding held by the Offeror (numerator) without being deducted from the Issuer's share capital (denominator).

The consideration due for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment, if applicable, of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance as part of the Joint Procedure (if applicable) is to be determined in accordance with article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as referred to in article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as well as the provisions set out in articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 50-quater of the Issuers' Regulation. Specifically:

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer itself and such shareholding has been achieved exclusively in the context of the Offer, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be identical to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, and article 50 of the Issuers' Regulation;

(ii) if, excluding the circumstance under point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB as equal to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other circumstances, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB in accordance with article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 5 and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

In the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer (or, in the event of a Reopening of the Acceptance Period, in the Notification of the Final Results of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period) – which will be published by the Offeror pursuant to article 41, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation – the Offeror will disclose whether the conditions for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and, if applicable, for the simultaneous fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) within the framework of the Joint Procedure are met. In that case, the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer (or, in the event of a Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Notification of the Final Results of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period) shall contain information relating to: (i) the number of remaining Shares Subject to the Offer (both in absolute terms and as a percentage of the Issuer's total share capital); (ii) the manner and timing by which the Offeror will exercise the Squeeze-Out and, in the event of a Joint Procedure, will simultaneously fulfil the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance; and (iii) the terms and timing of the Delisting.

Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, in the event of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, Borsa Italiana will order the suspension from trading and/or the Delisting of the Shares Subject to the Offer, taking into account the time required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

In view of the recent entry into force of Legislative Decree No. 47 of 27 March 2026 reforming the Consolidated Law on Finance, and the consequent amendments to articles 108 and 111 thereof, the Offeror reserves the right to amend the above to take account of any implementing regulations that may be issued by CONSOB, as well as any interpretative guidelines, including those relating to transitional law, that may be issued.

As to holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who are resident in, incorporated in or otherwise subject to US securities laws, the Offeror is assessing the management procedures in relation to the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2 of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Squeeze-Out (possibly also within the framework of the Joint Procedure) or any other transaction or agreement. Such transactions or agreements may include a "private placement" of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares in favour of holders who fall within the category of "Qualified Institutional Buyers", as defined in Rule 144A of the U.S. Securities Act or other possible procedures provided by the applicable legislation. As of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not made any decision in relation to the possible implementation of such transactions or agreements. Should such transactions or agreements be implemented, the relevant terms shall be announced to the market in accordance with the applicable regulations.

A.13 Possible shortage of free float

Without prejudice to the provisions set out in Section A, ParagraphA.12, of the Offer Document, in the event that the Offer is completed (and therefore the Conditions of Effectiveness are met, or , without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, are waived by the Offeror), but the conditions for delisting are not met and there is a shortage of free float not capable of ensuring the orderly trading of the Issuer's Shares – also considering the possible presence of shareholders of the Issuer holding significant shareholdings pursuant to the applicable regulations – Borsa Italiana may order the suspension of trading in the Issuer's Shares and/or Delisting pursuant to article 2.5.1 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, unless the Offeror decides to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly trading of the Issuer's Shares. In this regard, it is pointed out that, even in the event of an insufficient free float, the Offeror does not intend to implement measures aimed at restoring the minimum free float requirements necessary to ensure the orderly trading of the Issuer's Shares, as there is no obligation in this regard under applicable legislation. In the event of the Issuer's Shares being delisted (i.e. delisting pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6, of the Stock Exchange Regulations without right of withdrawal), the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer in respect of their Shares Subject to the Offer will hold financial instruments that are not traded on any regulated market and will therefore face difficulties in realising their investment in the future.

(vii) The Offeror, through the IMI Corporate & Investment Banking Division, will act as Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances in relation to the Offer;

(viii) Deutsche Bank AG, with registered office in Frankfurt am Mein (Germany), Taunusanlage 12 ("Deutsche Bank"), acts as the Offeror's financial advisor in relation to specific aspects of the Offer; therefore, it will receive fees for the services provided in connection with the Offer. The group to which Rothschild & Co. is a member, may have provided, is providing or may in the future provide, in the ordinary course of its business, investment banking, banking, private banking and/or trust activities to the Offeror, the Issuer or other parties, directly or indirectly, involved in the Offer, or their parent companies, subsidiaries or affiliated companies.

A.15 Possible alternative scenarios for shareholders of MPS

For the sake of clarity, the possible alternative scenarios for the Issuer's shareholders are set out below in the event that the Offer:

(i) is completed (a) as a result of the fulfilment of the Conditions of Effectiveness, or (b) if one or more Conditions of Effectiveness (without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold) are not fulfilled as a result of the Offeror waiving them; distinguishing between circumstances in which the MPS shareholder has accepted the Offer and those in which it has not accepted it; or

(ii) is not completed as a result of one or more of the Conditions of Effectiveness not being fulfilled, without the Offeror having waived them.

A.15.1. Scenarios in the event of successful completion of the Offer

A.15.1.1 Acceptance of the Offer

In the event that the Conditions of Effectiveness are met (or in the event that the Offeror waives all or some of the Conditions of Effectiveness, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold) and, consequently, the Offer is completed, the Issuer's shareholders who have accepted the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period shall receive the Consideration composed (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1) (i) of the Share Consideration (i.e., 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror), and (ii) of the Cash Consideration (i.e., an amount of €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror).

Please note that, in relation to the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be allocated to Tendering Shareholders as Share Consideration, the Offeror has published, on the Date of the Offer Document, the Prospectus, which is available to the public at the Offeror's registered office and on the Offeror's website (group.intesasanpaolo.com).

Should the Offer be completed, the Consideration will be paid to Tendering Shareholders on the Payment Date (or, in the event of acceptance during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period).

For information regarding the possible unavailability of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares offered as Share Consideration in the event of implementation of the ordinary valuation procedure for the Shares Subject to the Offer pursuant to article 2343 of the Civil Code, reference should be made to ParagraphA.6.3 of this Section A of the Offer Document.

For information regarding the treatment of Fractional Parts, reference should be made to Section F, ParagraphF.6, of the Offer Document.

Should the Offer be completed, Tendering Shareholders will hold a share (i.e., the Intesa Sanpaolo Share) that is highly liquid, as it is listed on Euronext Milan.

For further information, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.10.3, as well as to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5, of the Offer Document.

A.15.1.2 Non-acceptance of the Offer

If the Conditions of Effectiveness are met (or should the Offeror waive all or some of the Conditions of Effectiveness, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold) and, consequently, the Offer is completed, the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period would face one of the possible scenarios described below.

(A) Achievement of a 90% shareholding in the Issuer's share capital

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding equal to 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention to exercise the Squeeze-Out.

The Squeeze-Out will be exercised as soon as possible following the completion of the Offer, in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed with CONSOB and Borsa Italiana.

In this case, holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer shall be required to transfer ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer held by them to the Offeror and, as a result, shall receive for each MPS Share held by them a consideration determined in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as referred to in article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as well as the provisions set out in articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 50-quater of the Issuers' Regulation. Specifically:

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer itself, and such shareholding has been achieved exclusively as a result of the Offer, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be identical to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 50 of the Issuers' Regulation; or

(ii) if, excluding the circumstance under point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB as equal to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other circumstances, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB in accordance with article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 5 and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, upon fulfilment of the conditions for the Squeeze-Out, Borsa Italiana will order the suspension from trading and/or the Delisting of the Shares Subject to the Offer, taking into account the time required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

It is also pointed out that, once the Delisting has been completed, pursuant to the Unipol Agreement, the Offeror will proceed with the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital. For further information, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.10.1 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5.1, of the Offer Document.

(B) Achievement of a shareholding exceeding 90%, but less than 95% of the Issuer's share capital

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and/or of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding exceeding 90%, but less than 95%, of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror, not wishing to restore a free float sufficient to ensure orderly trading, will initiate the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

The Squeeze-Out will be exercised as soon as possible following the completion of the Offer, in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed with CONSOB and Borsa Italiana.

In this case, holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer will be required to transfer ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer they hold to the Offeror and, as a result, will receive for each MPS Share they hold a consideration determined in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as referred to in article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as well as the provisions set out in articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 50-quater of the Issuers' Regulation. Specifically:

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer itself and such shareholding has been achieved exclusively as a result of the Offer, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be identical to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 50 of the Issuers' Regulation; or

(ii) if, excluding the circumstance under point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB as equal to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other cases, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB in accordance with article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 5 and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6, of the Stock Exchange Regulations, should the conditions for the Squeeze-Out be met, Borsa Italiana will order the suspension from trading and/or the Delisting of the Shares Subject to the Offer, taking into account the time required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

It is also pointed out that, once the Delisting has been completed, pursuant to the Unipol Agreement, the Offeror will proceed with the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital. For further information, reference should be made to Section A, Paragraph A.10.1 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5.1, of the Offer Document.

(C) Achievement of a shareholding of at least 95% of the Issuer's share capital

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding of at least 95% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror shall initiate the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

In this case, holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer shall be required to transfer ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer they hold to the Offeror and, as a result, shall receive for each MPS Share they hold a consideration determined in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as referred to in article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as well as the provisions set out in articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 50-quater of the Issuers' Regulation. Specifically:

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer itself and such shareholding has been achieved exclusively as a result of the Offer, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be identical to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 50 of the Issuers' Regulation; or accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB at a level equal to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other cases, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined in accordance with the amount determined by CONSOB pursuant to article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 5 and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, upon the fulfilment of the conditions for the Squeeze-Out, Borsa Italiana will order the suspension from trading and/or the Delisting of the Shares Subject to the Offer, taking into account the timing required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

It is also pointed out that, once the Delisting has been completed, pursuant to the Unipol Agreement, the Offeror will proceed with the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital. For further information, please refer to Section A, Paragraph A.10.1 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5.1, of the Offer Document.

(D) Achievement of a shareholding lower than 90%, but in any event not lower than 66.67%, of the Issuer's share capital

In the event that the Offer is completed (because the Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, have been waived by the Offeror) and, following the outcome of the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding lower than 90% (but in any event not lower than 66.67%) of the Issuer's share capital, and, consequently, the Issuer remains listed on Euronext Milan, as the conditions for Delisting following the Offer have not been met, the Delisting may be achieved through the Merger for Delisting, subject to its approval by the relevant corporate bodies of the Issuer.

Should it be approved, the Merger for Delisting will take place on the basis of an exchange ratio determined in accordance with article 2501-ter of the Civil Code, using, as is standard practice, consistent methodologies and assumptions in the valuation of the companies involved, and therefore no premium will be payable to the minority shareholders of the company being merged by incorporation.

Should the Offeror decide to proceed with the Merger for Delisting, shareholders of the Issuer who have not accepted the Offer and who have not taken part in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting shall in no circumstances be entitled to a right of withdrawal pursuant to article 2437-quinquies of the Civil Code, as, upon completion of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders would receive, in exchange, ordinary shares in Intesa Sanpaolo that are listed on Euronext Milan.

Furthermore, as to the other cases of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code, it is clarified that the Offeror envisages that the possible Merger for Delisting is implemented in such a manner as to prevent the right of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code from arising in respect of the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer and have not participated in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting.

It is pointed out that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, no formal resolution has yet been adopted by the competent corporate bodies of the companies that may be involved in the Merger for Delisting, nor have the terms and conditions for its implementation been approved.

Furthermore, as of the Date of the Offer Document, taking into account the fact that the Offeror has not entered into, nor will enter into, any financing in relation to the payment of the Consideration for the Offer (as further described in Section G, Paragraph G.1, of the Offer Document), the Merger for Delisting is not expected to fall within the scope of article 2501-bis of the Civil Code.

For further information regarding the Merger for Delisting, please refer to Section A, Paragraph A.10.2 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5.2, of the Offer Document.

Finally, it is pointed out that, should the Offer be completed (either because the Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, have been waived by the Offeror), but the Delisting has not been effected following the outcome of the Offer, there may nevertheless be a shortage of the free float such as to prevent the orderly trading of the Issuer's Shares, particularly in view of the possible presence amongst the Issuer's shareholders of shareholders holding significant shareholdings pursuant to the applicable regulations; in which case Borsa Italiana may order the suspension of trading in the Issuer's Shares and/or Delisting pursuant to article 2.5.1 of the Stock Exchange Regulations; in this case, the Offeror hereby declares its intention not to take any measures aimed at restoring the minimum free float requirements necessary for the orderly trading of the Shares, as the applicable regulations do not impose any such obligation. In the event of Delisting, it is pointed out that holders of the Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer will hold financial instruments not traded on any regulated market, with consequent difficulties in realising their investment in the future.

(E) Achievement of a shareholding lower than 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital in the event of a waiver of the Threshold Condition, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold

In the event that the Offer is completed (because the Threshold Condition has been waived by the Offeror, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold and the other Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or have been waived by the Offeror) and, following the outcome of the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding lower than 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital (provided that it is at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), and, therefore, the Issuer remains listed on Euronext Milan, as the conditions for Delisting following the Offer have not been met, a proposal may nevertheless be submitted to the Issuer's shareholders' meeting to approve the Merger for Delisting (it being understood that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision regarding the resolution on the Merger for Delisting).

Should the Offeror fail to obtain the approval of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer would remain holders of the Issuer's Shares listed on Euronext Milan, and the Offeror will assess any options to achieve the Delisting by other means, if possible.

For further information regarding the Merger for Delisting, please refer to Section A, Paragraph A.10.2 and to Section G, Paragraph G.2.5.2.

***

The following table summarises the main possible alternative scenarios for the Issuer's shareholders in the event that the Offer is completed. The scenarios described below are based, inter alia, on certain assumptions regarding potential future events that may occur and potential actions that the Offeror may decide to take; there is no certainty that such potential events will actually occur or that such potential actions will actually be taken.

No.	Scenario	Effects on the Issuer's shareholders
Acceptance of the Offer
1.	Acceptance of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period and fulfilment of the Conditions of Effectiveness (or waiver, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, of the same by the Offeror).	On the Payment Date or on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, Tendering Shareholders will receive the Consideration for each Share Subject to the Offer that has been tendered in acceptance of the Offer.
Non-acceptance of the Offer
2.	The Offeror achieving a shareholding equal to 90% of the Issuer's share capital pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.	Squeeze-Out The Offeror will initiate the procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out. The Offeror will therefore acquire the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer for a consideration equal to (as the case may be): (i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer: the Consideration; (ii) in all other cases: the consideration determined by CONSOB. Delisting Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6, of the Stock Exchange Regulations, in the event of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, Borsa Italiana shall order the suspension of trading in the Shares and/or their Delisting, taking into account the timing required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.
3.	The Offeror has achieved a shareholding exceeding 90% of the Issuer's share capital pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, and article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, but lower than 95% of the Issuer's share capital pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.	Joint Procedure The Offeror will proceed with the Joint Procedure. The Offeror will therefore acquire the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer for a consideration equal to (as the case may be): (i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer: the Consideration; (ii) in all other cases: the consideration determined by CONSOB. Delisting Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, in the event of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, Borsa Italiana shall order the suspension of trading in the Shares and/or their Delisting, taking into account the time required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

4.	A shareholding at least equal to 95% of the Issuer's share capital pursuant to articles 108, paragraph 1, and 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.	Joint Procedure The Offeror will proceed with the Joint Procedure. The Offeror will therefore acquire the remaining Shares Subject to the Offer for a consideration equal to (as the case may be): (i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer: the Consideration; (ii) in all other cases: the consideration determined by CONSOB. Delisting Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, in the event of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, Borsa Italiana shall order the suspension of trading in the Shares and/or their Delisting, taking into account the time required for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.
5.	If the Offeror achieves a shareholding lower than 90% (but in any event not lower than 66.67%) of the Issuer's share capital, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable regulations (including those made through the Private Placement), and fulfilment of the Threshold Condition.	Merger for Delisting and Delisting Delisting may be achieved through the Merger for Delisting, subject to its approval by the Issuer's competent corporate bodies. Should the Offeror decide to proceed with the Merger for Delisting, shareholders of the Issuer who have not accepted the Offer and who have not taken part in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting shall under no circumstances be entitled to a right of withdrawal pursuant to article 2437-quinquies of the Civil Code, as, upon completion of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders would receive, in exchange, ordinary shares in Intesa Sanpaolo that are listed on Euronext Milan. Furthermore, as to the other cases of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code, it is clarified that the Offeror envisages that, unless otherwise decided by the Offeror, the possible Merger for Delisting will be implemented in such a manner as to prevent the right of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code from arising in respect of the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer and have not participated in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting. As of the Date of the Offer Document, no formal resolution has been adopted by the competent corporate bodies of the companies that may be involved in the Merger for Delisting, nor have the terms and conditions for its implementation been approved. Possible shortage of the free float Without prejudice to the provisions set out in Section A, Paragraph A.12, of the Offer Document, in the event that the Offer is completed (and therefore the Conditions of Effectiveness are fulfilled, or, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, are waived by the Offeror), but the conditions for Delisting are not met and there is such a shortage of free float that the orderly trading of the Shares Subject to the Offer cannot be ensured – even taking into account the possible presence of shareholders of the Issuer holding significant shareholdings pursuant to the applicable regulations – Borsa Italiana may order the suspension of trading in the Shares Subject to the Offer and/or their Delisting pursuant to article 2.5.1 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, unless the Offeror decides to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares Subject to the Offer. In this regard, it is pointed out that, even in the event of an insufficient free float, the Offeror does not intend to implement measures aimed at restoring the minimum free float requirements necessary to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares Subject to the Offer, as there is no obligation in this regard under applicable legislation. In the event of Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer in respect of their Shares Subject to the Offer will hold financial instruments that are not traded on any regulated market and, therefore, will face difficulties in realising their investment in the future.

6.	If the Offeror holds a shareholding lower than 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital (provided that it is at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or	In the event that the Offer is completed (because the Threshold Condition has been waived by the Offeror, without prejudice to the fulfilment of the Minimum Threshold and therefore the Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled or have been waived by the Offeror) and, following the outcome

	during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), and the non-fulfilment and the waiver of the Threshold Condition (without prejudice to the fulfilment of the Minimum Threshold).	of the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases of Shares made by the Offeror outside the Offer in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding of less than 66.67% (provided that it is at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) of the Issuer's share capital (which therefore remains listed on Euronext Milan, as the conditions for Delisting have not been met), a proposal may nevertheless be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for the approval of the Merger for Delisting. Nevertheless, should the Offeror fail to obtain the approval of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer would remain holders of the Issuer's Shares listed on Euronext Milan, and the Offeror will assess any options to achieve the Delisting by other means, if possible.

Furthermore, again for explanatory purposes only, the following table provides an indication of the "monetary" value of the Consideration that a shareholder of the Issuer might, as applicable, receive upon divestment of its Shares Subject to the Offer in the potential divestment scenarios set out below, should the Offer be completed. The following table does not describe all possible divestment scenarios that may arise in the context of the Offer or following it. The scenarios set out below are based, inter alia, on certain assumptions relating to potential future events that may occur and potential actions that the Offeror may decide to take; there is no guarantee that such potential events will actually occur or that such potential actions will actually be taken.

Scenarios	Possible divestment scenario in the event of the Offer being completed	Monetary value of the Consideration for each Share Subject to the Offer amounting to 90% of the Issuer's share capital	(ii) the Offeror achieves the shareholding referred to in article 111, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.	(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer, the Consideration; (ii) if, excluding the case referred to in point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration determined by CONSOB in an amount equal to the Consideration pursuant to article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) of the Issuers' Regulation; (iii) in all other cases, the consideration determined by CONSOB pursuant to article 50, paragraph 5 of the Issuers' Regulation.

Non-acceptance of the Offer by the MPS shareholder and the Offeror's shareholding exceeding 90% but lower than 95% of the Issuer's share capital	(i) The MPS shareholder does not tender its Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer; (ii) the Offeror achieves the shareholding referred to in article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.	A consideration equal to, as the case may be: (i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the share capital carrying voting rights included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer, the Consideration; (ii) if, excluding the case referred to in point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration determined by CONSOB in an amount equal to the Consideration pursuant to article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) of the Issuers' Regulation; (iii) in all other cases, the consideration determined by CONSOB pursuant to article 50, paragraph 5 of the Issuers' Regulation.
Non-acceptance of the Offer by the MPS shareholder and the Offeror's shareholding of at least 95% of the Issuer's share capital	(i) The MPS shareholder does not tender its Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer; (ii) the Offeror achieves the shareholding referred to in	A consideration equal to, as the case may be: (i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer, the Consideration;

Non-acceptance of the Offer by an MPS shareholder, the Offeror's shareholding being lower than 90% (but in any event not lower than 66.67%) of the Issuer's share capital, and completion of the Merger for Delisting	(i) The MPS shareholder does not tender its Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer; (ii) the Offeror does not achieve the shareholding referred to in article 108, paragraph 2, and article 111, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance; (iii) the Merger for Delisting is implemented; (iv) the MPS shareholder does not cast its vote in favour of the resolution approving any Merger for Delisting at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of MPS.	No Consideration will be payable to shareholders of the Issuer who do not accept the Offer. In the event of a Merger for Delisting, non-Tendering Shareholders will receive Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares to be issued in connection with the Merger for Delisting, which will be implemented without resulting in any right of withdrawal and on the basis of an exchange ratio that will not include any premium for the Issuer's minority shareholders.
Non-acceptance of the Offer by an MPS shareholder, the Offeror's shareholding being lower than 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital, but at least equal to 50% + 1 Issuer's Share and failure to complete the Merger for Delisting	(i) The MPS shareholder does not tender its Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer; (ii) the Offeror has not achieved a shareholding of 66.67% and has waived the Threshold Condition, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold; (iii) for any reason, the Merger for Delisting is not implemented.	No Consideration will be payable to shareholders of the Issuer who have not accepted the Offer, as they will remain holders of the Issuer's Shares listed on Euronext Milan.

With reference to the provisions set out in the table above, it is pointed out that the market prices of Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares may differ from the price of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares used, for explanatory purposes only, to determine the Per Share Monetary Value of the Intesa Sanpaolo Share prior to the Date of the Offer Document and, therefore, of the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document. It is pointed out that the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document is calculated on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

A.15.2. Scenarios in the event the Offer is not completed

Should the Offeror notify its decision to invoke the non-fulfilment of one or more of the Conditions of Effectiveness, without such Condition(s) of Effectiveness being waived by the Offeror (including the circumstances under Section A, Paragraph A.1.1(ii), (iii) and (iv)), the Offer will not be completed and shall be deemed to have failed. In this case, the Issuer's Shares tendered in acceptance of the Offer shall be returned, through the Depositary Intermediaries, to the respective Tendering Shareholders, without any charges or expenses being borne by them, by the next Trading Day following the Offeror's announcement in which it is disclosed, for the first time, that the Conditions of Effectiveness have not been fulfilled and that the Offeror has not waived all or some of them, as specified in Section F, Paragraph F.8, of the Offer Document.

Therefore, in this case, (i) the Shares Subject to the Offer would remain admitted to trading on Euronext Milan and the Issuer's shareholders would continue to hold financial instruments traded on a regulated market, and (ii) MPS shareholders who had previously tendered their Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer would have no grounds for indemnity or compensation, nor would they have any claim against the Offeror. It should be noted, however, that any MPS shareholder who has not accepted the Offer may find that the price of their shares does not include the premium implicitly granted under the Offer to those who have accepted it.

A.16 Rights of MPS shareholders who tender their Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer

Should the Conditions of Effectiveness be fulfilled (or should the Offeror waive all or some of the Conditions of Effectiveness, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold) and, consequently, the Offer be completed, the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer will be transferred to the Offeror on the Payment Date (or, in respect of Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period).

Until the Payment Date (or, in respect of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period), the Issuer's shareholders shall retain and may exercise the financial and governance rights arising from ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer. However, Tendering Shareholders will not be able to transfer their Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, except for the purpose of accepting any competing offers or counter-offers pursuant to article 44 of the Issuers' Regulation.

Furthermore, pursuant to article 23, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Prospectus Regulations, in the event of the publication of a supplement to the Prospectus to announce a "significant new fact, a material error or inaccuracy relating to the information contained in the prospectus which may affect the valuation of the securities and which arises or is identified between the time the prospectus is approved and the close of the offer period", holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have already accepted the Offer prior to the publication of such supplement shall be entitled to revoke their acceptances, by means of an express notification to that effect, within 3 (three) business days of the date of publication of the supplement, provided that the new significant fact, error or inaccuracy giving rise to such publication arose or was identified before the expiry of the Acceptance Period or the delivery of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (offered as Consideration), whichever is earlier. In this case, the Issuer's Shares tendered in acceptance of the Offer shall be returned to their respective holders, free of any charges or expenses to them, without delay and in any event by the first Trading Day following the request for withdrawal.

For further information, please refer to Section F, paragraphs F.2 and F.8 of the Offer Document.

A.17 Issuer's Notice

Pursuant to article 103, paragraph 3 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 39 of the Issuers' Regulation, the Issuer's Board of Directors is required to issue, by the Trading Day preceding the first day of the Acceptance Period, a press release containing all information relevant to the assessment of the Offer and its own evaluation thereof (the "Issuer's Notice").

The Issuer's Notice, pursuant to article 103, paragraph 3-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance, must also contain an assessment of the effects that the potential success of the Offer will have on the company's interests, as well as on employment and the location of production sites.

At the same time as it is published, the Issuer's Notice will be sent to the Issuer's employee representatives, who, pursuant to article 103, paragraph 3-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 39 of the Issuers' Regulation, will be entitled to issue an independent opinion on the impact of the Offer on employment.

A.18 Commitment to tender in the Offer

On 4 October 2026, the Delfin Letter of Undertaking was executed between Delfin and the Offeror in relation to the commitment by Delfin to tender in the Offer, by the last Trading Day preceding the close of the Acceptance Period, Delfin Shares, provided that (i) the Offer is not declared null and void and/or does not become ineffective for any reason whatsoever; (ii) by the date of acceptance by Delfin, no significant circumstances or events occur which shall result in, or may result in – even in the future – any material adverse effect on the Offer and/or business and/or financial, asset, economic and/or income situation and/or share prices of the Issuer (and/or its subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies) and/or the Offeror (and/or its subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies) (the "Commitment"). The Delfin Letter of Undertaking also specifies that, should a third party launch, pursuant to Article 102, paragraph 3 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, a competing offer to the Offer (the "Competing Offer"), Delfin shall be free to accept the Competing Offer. Should the Competing Offer fail to be completed for any reason, the Delfin Shares shall be deemed automatically to have been tendered to the Offer, and Delfin shall take all necessary and appropriate steps to that end. Furthermore, as set forth in the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, any suspension or extension of the acceptance period of the Offer and/or any waiver by the Offeror of one or more of the Conditions of Effectiveness shall not render the Commitment ineffective; likewise, the Commitment shall remain fully effective, on the same terms and conditions as set out in the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, in the event of (further) upward adjustments and/or amendments to the Offer (except where such amendments result in a reduction in the Consideration beyond the cases already provided for in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026).

The Delfin Letter of Undertaking provides for the commitment by Delfin to take part in the MPS Shareholders' Meeting, partially held in extraordinary session, and in that venue to adopt a voting conduct consistent with the terms of the Offer as of that date, including the resolutions relating to the approval of the Banco BPM Offer, the Banca Generali Offer, the relevant authorisations to increase the share capital in support of each of the aforementioned offers, the Voluntary Share Capital Reduction and the Extraordinary Distribution. It is recalled that the MPS Shareholders' Meeting has resolved not to approve the Banco BPM Offer, the Banca Generali Offer (and the relevant capital increases), the Voluntary Share Capital Reduction (functional to the Extraordinary Distribution) and the MB Merger.

Pursuant to the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, Delfin has guaranteed to the Offeror that it has not acquired, on any basis or in any form, directly and/or indirectly and/or through any intermediary and/or acting in concert with other parties, any Issuer's Shares (or rights thereof) and/or "long positions" with reference to the same shares from the Announcement Date and has undertaken not to carry out, in any form, directly and/or indirectly and/or through any intermediary, any purchase of the Issuer's Shares (or rights thereof) and/or "long positions" with reference to the same shares in the period between the execution date of the Delfin Letter of Undertaking and the 6 (six) months following the last Payment Date (even, if applicable, as Squeeze-Out in the context of the Joint Procedure).

For further information on the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, please refer to the essential information and the extract published, pursuant to and for the purposes of article 122 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and articles 129 and 130 of the Issuers' Regulation, on the internet website of the Offeror (group.intesasanpaolo.com) and attached to the Offer Document under Appendix M.2.

On 11 May 2026 and 12 May 2026, the first tranche of the Buy-Back Reserved to the 2024–2025 Incentive/LTI CF/Severance Plans was executed.

On those two days during which the purchases were carried out, Intesa Sanpaolo acquired a total of 25,000,000 ordinary treasury shares – through its IMI Corporate & Investment Banking Division, which was responsible for executing the purchases – corresponding to 0.14% of its share capital, at an average purchase price per share of €5.8071, for a total value of €145,177,392.38.

The shares purchased under the Buy-Back Reserved to the 2024–2025 Incentive/LTI CF/Severance Plans are primarily intended to support (i) the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's 2025

The share capital has consequently increased from €10,368,870,930.08 to €10,408,491,333.68, divided into 17,479,423,619 ordinary shares of Intesa Sanpaolo;

(g) on 12 June 2026, the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo resolved to launch the PSP and the LECOIP.

To this end, exercising the powers delegated by the shareholders' meeting of 30 April 2026, with regard to LECOIP, the Board of Directors approved (i) a bonus issue, involving the issue of up to 76,000,000 Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares, for the allocation of so-called free shares (the "Free Shares"), so-called matching shares (the "Matching Shares"), as well as so-called "sell-to-cover shares" (the "Sell-to-Cover Shares") and (ii) a paid-up capital increase – with the exclusion of subscription rights in favour of professional employees pursuant to article 2441, paragraph 8, of the Civil Code – for a maximum total amount, including share premium, of €720,000,000, with the issue of a maximum of 170,000,000 Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares (the "Discounted Shares"), applying a maximum discount of 18% on the market price of the share, calculated as the average of the prices observed in the 30 days preceding 30 June 2026 (the issue date) and determining the number of Free Shares, Matching Shares and Discounted Shares on the basis of the number of participants and the average prices of the Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary share recorded in the 30 days preceding the issue date, as well as – in respect of the Discounted Shares – the discount to be applied to that average, in accordance with the above-mentioned maximum discount. In total, 52,863 employees of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group participated in the LECOIP plan, representing 83.7% of those eligible, for a total value, corresponding to the Free Shares and Matching Shares, of approximately €167,000,000;

As of 30 June 2026, the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's shareholders' equity, including income for the period, amounts to €69,023 million, an increase compared with €65,226 million recorded as of 31 December 2025. The increase is attributable to the inclusion of the income accrued in the first six months of the current financial year (€5,554 million) and to the increase in equity instruments (€1,231 million), relating to the issue of two AT1 subordinated instruments, offset to a minor extent by the change in valuation reserves.

B.1.12. Recent performance

As of the date of the Offer Document, excluding activities relating to the launch of the Offer, no events have occurred since the end of the first half of 2026 that may materially affect Intesa Sanpaolo's financial position and results of operations.

The main events that have occurred since the end of the first half of 2026 are summarised below:

(i) Intesa Sanpaolo's share buyback plan, which commenced on 6 July 2026 and was aimed at the cancellation of shares, authorised by the ECB and approved by the Intesa Sanpaolo Shareholders' Meeting on 30 April 2026 for a maximum total expenditure of €2.3 billion and for a number of shares not exceeding 800,000,000 ordinary shares, ended on 6 October 2026. According to information provided by the third-party intermediary responsible for implementing the plan, acting entirely on an independent basis and without any involvement from the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, as of 6 October 2026, a total of 350,415,525 Intesa Sanpaolo treasury shares had been purchased, representing approximately 1.98% of the share capital, at an average purchase price per share of €6.5636, for a total value of €2,299,999,996.90. On 9 October 2026, the Offeror cancelled all 350,415,525 Intesa Sanpaolo treasury shares purchased in execution of the aforementioned plan and, as a result of such transaction, the Intesa Sanpaolo share capital remained unchanged (equal to €10,529,394,196.28) and the number of ordinary shares into which it is divided was reduced from 17,682,460,955 to 17,332,045,430;

(ii) On 3 November 2026 the Offeror's Board of Directors resolved on the 2026 Interim Dividend and thus, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the exchange ratio was increased from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend payment, and this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice had been determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

For further information interim report as of 30 September 2026, reference is made to the press release issued by the Offeror on 3 November 2026 and available on the internet website of the Offeror (group.intesasanpaolo.com, Investor Relations section).

B.2.7. Recent events and outlook

With regard to events occurring after the end of the first half of 2026, the MPS 2026 Half-Year Financial Report sets out, inter alia, the following events: "On 16 July 2026, regarding the proposed merger with Banco BPM S.p.A., the Board of Directors of Banca MPS decided to proceed, with the support of its advisors, with in-depth and thorough technical analyses, taking into account that the proposal envisages a potential business transaction based on the valuation of the entire scope of BMPS and does not entail the break-up of the Bank's activities, distribution network or brand. Subsequently, on 31 July 2026, the Parent Company acknowledged the comments made on the same date by Crédit Agricole during the presentation of its half-year results and the position subsequently expressed by the Board of Directors of Banco BPM which, whilst reaffirming the strong strategic and industrial rationale of the project referred to in the letter of 7 June 2026, resolved to discontinue the discussions, which BMPS considered to be preliminary to a possible subsequent negotiation phase."

Regarding the expected future performance of the MPS Group's consolidated operations, the management of MPS stated in the MPS 2026 Half-Year Financial Report, prepared on the basis of the information available as of its publication date, that it envisaged the following:

(i) the MPS Group's revenues are expected to benefit from the positive trend in commission income, also supported by the implementation of the commercial initiatives set out in the MPS Business Plan. Net interest income is expected to benefit from growth in volumes, supported by the gradual development of synergies; and

(ii) as to operating expenses, measures to streamline operations and improve efficiency will continue, with a view to limiting the impact of inflation on other administrative expenses, as well as the effects of the renewal of the National Collective Bargaining Agreement and selected retention measures on personnel expenses.

MPS's management has also declared that the cost of risk will be carefully monitored, maintaining high standards in lending and continuing to improve the monitoring process.

Lastly, MPS's management has confirmed an acceleration of the economic performance of the MPS Group, supported by the synergies related to the integration with MB, and it has consequently raised its guidance for profit before tax for the financial year to €3.6 billion, as reported in the Analyst Presentation relating to the results for the first half of 2026 ("2Q-26 & 1H-26 Consolidated Results"), available on the Issuer's website (gruppomps.it).

In addition to the foregoing, on 21 August 2026, MPS announced, with the MPS Notice on Banco BPM Offer and the MPS Notice on Banca Generali Offer, pursuant to and for the purposes of Article 102, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and Article 37 of the Issuers' Regulation, that on 20 August 2026 the board of directors of MPS had approved the decision (i) to launch, subject, inter alia, to the approval by the MPS shareholders' meeting pursuant to Article 104 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, the Banco BPM Offer and the Banca Generali Offer; (ii) to submit to the MPS Shareholders' Meeting for approval (also pursuant to Article 104 of the Consolidated Law on Finance) the MPS Transactions (as supplemented and amended on 24 September 2026 by the board of directors of MPS). In this regard, reference is also made to Section A, Paragraph A.1.1.

For further information in relation to the interim report as of 30 September 2026 reference is made to the press release issued by the Issuer on 6 November 2026 and available on the internet website of MPS at gruppomps.it.

E. PER SHARE CONSIDERATION AND RELATED JUSTIFICATION

E.1 Per share consideration and related determination

It is recalled that the per share cash consideration for each Share tendered in the Offer – as announced by the Offeror to the market on the Announcement Date, through the Offer Notice – was originally determined by the Offeror as being equal to €1.000 (one euro).

Subsequently, (a) on 3 October 2026, the Offeror, through the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, pursuant to articles 36 and 43 of the Issuers' Regulation, announced, inter alia, that upon completion of the Offer and thus in the event of continuation of the same, the Offeror would have paid, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, an overall per-share consideration composed as follows: (i) a cash consideration increased from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) (i.e. the Cash Consideration) and (ii) a share component equal to 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio set out in the Offer Notice thus remaining unaffected; and (b) on 3 November 2026, as a result of the approval of the 2026 Interim Dividend by the Offeror's Board of Directors, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the Offeror announced, inter alia, that the exchange ratio would be increased from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend, this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

Therefore, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror shall pay, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, an overall per share consideration (i.e. the Consideration) composed as follows: (i) a cash component equal to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) (i.e. the Cash Consideration) and (ii) a component of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares equal to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (i.e. the Share Consideration) (except for any amendments under Section A, Paragraph A.5 and Section E, Paragraph E.1).

Without limitation, for every 1,000 Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, 1,664 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares and a cash payment of €1,250 will be paid (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1. of the Offer Document). Acceptance of the Offer may take place, as further specified in Section A, Paragraph A.7 and in Section F, Paragraph F.6, of the Offer Document, with reference to the Fractional Part, even if fewer than 125 Shares Subject to the Offer or a number of Shares Subject to the Offer other than an integer multiple of 125 are tendered in acceptance of the Offer.

The Consideration (subject to any amendments set out in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1) has been determined on the assumption that, prior to the Payment Date:

(a) the Issuer and/or the Offeror do not approve or implement any ordinary (other than the 2026 Interim Dividend) or extraordinary distribution of dividends drawn from profits and/or other reserves; and

(b) the Issuer does not approve or carry out any transaction relating to its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions) and/or relating to the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, the consolidation or cancellation of shares, and/or the purchase of treasury shares).

If, prior to the Payment Date:

(i) the Issuer and/or the Offeror were to pay a dividend to their shareholders (other than the 2026 Interim Dividend), or in any event the dividend coupon relating to dividends (or interim dividends) already resolved but not yet paid by the Issuer and/or Intesa Sanpaolo, as the case may be, were to be detached from the Shares Subject to the Offer and/or from the shares of Intesa Sanpaolo, the Offeror reserves the right to adjust the Consideration to take account of the deduction of the distributed dividend from the Offeror's Reference Price and/or the Issuer's Reference Price used for the purposes of determining the Consideration;

(ii) should the Issuer approve or implement any transaction relating to its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions) and/or in respect of the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, share consolidation, the purchase of treasury shares or the cancellation of shares), without prejudice to the possible enforceability of the Conditions of Effectiveness, the Offeror reserves the right to amend the Consideration to take account of the effects of the aforementioned transactions.

Without prejudice to all powers and assumptions of the Board of Directors in relation to the transaction, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations.

In this regard, it is pointed out that the distribution policy of the Offeror provides that the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo decides, upon approval of the results as of 30 September of each financial year, in relation to the payment of an interim dividend. The Board of Directors of the Offeror on 3 November 2026 resolved on the 2026 Interim Dividend. The 2026 Interim Dividend will be paid on 25 November 2026 (with an ex-dividend date of 23 November 2026 and a record date of 24 November 2026). As announced in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 November 2026, the exchange ratio has been increased to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, (rounded to the third decimal place), as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend, this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

The adjustment to the share component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice resulting from the foregoing has been disclosed to the market in the manner and within the deadlines of the applicable legislation.

The newly issued Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer will have regular dividend rights and, therefore, will confer on their holders the same rights as the ordinary shares of Intesa Sanpaolo already in circulation on the date of issue and will be listed on Euronext Milan.

The Consideration will be paid on the Payment Date, namely 29 January 2027 (subject to any extension of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable regulations), or, in respect of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, namely 12 February 2027 (subject to any extension of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable legislation).

The consideration set forth in the Offer Notice was determined by the Offeror's Board of Directors on 8 June 2026, on the basis of its own analyses and considerations and with the advice and support of Provasoli Partners, acting as financial and valuation expert. In this role, Provasoli Partners assisted, in accordance with standard practice in this type of transaction, the management and corporate bodies of the Offeror in analysing the technical, economic, accounting, valuation and financial aspects of the Offer, issuing the Fairness Opinion. The Board of Directors, in its own independent analysis, considered it appropriate to take into account the valuation analysis contained in the Fairness Opinion, adopting the methodologies and the respective valuation ranges set out therein.

On 3 October 2026, the Board of Directors of the Offeror resolved to increase, in the event of continuation of the Offer, on the basis of its analyses and valuations, the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents) for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror, without amending the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio set forth in the Offer Notice. In this regard Provasoli Partners, as financial and valuation expert, has confirmed the appropriateness, in strictly financial terms, of such consideration.

On 3 November 2026, the Board of Directors of the Offeror resolved on the 2026 Interim Dividend and thus, in accordance with the provisions of Section E, Paragraph E.1 of the Offer Document, the exchange ratio was increased from 1.600 (one point six hundred) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, as to fully offset the effect of the 2026 Interim Dividend, this because the exchange ratio set forth in the Offer Notice was determined with reference to cum dividend Offeror's shares.

As a result of such increases, the Consideration is composed, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer and purchased by the Offeror, (i) of the Share Consideration (i.e. 1.664 (one point six hundred and sixty-four) Intesa Sanpaolo Shares) and (ii) of the Cash Consideration (i.e. €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents)).

The Consideration is net of stamp duty, registration tax and financial transaction tax, as applicable, and of fees, commissions and expenses which shall be borne by the Offeror. Conversely, any income tax, withholding tax or substitute tax, as applicable, on any capital gain realised shall be borne by the Tendering Shareholders. This shall also apply to the Shares Subject to the Offer that are subject to the Squeeze-Out and/or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) in the context of the Joint Procedure.

Given the nature of the consideration, which consists of a share component and a cash component in respect of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, the valuation analyses underlying the determination of the consideration were carried out by comparing the economic values of the Offeror and the Issuer.

The valuations and estimates made should therefore be understood in relative terms and with exclusive reference to the Offer. The valuation methodologies and the resulting economic values of the Offeror's shares and the Issuer's Shares were identified for the sole purpose of determining the number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares to be issued in connection with the Offer.

These valuations should therefore not be regarded as possible indications of the market price or value, whether current or prospective, in a context other than the one under consideration.

The valuations carried out by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of determining the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, relate to (i) the known economic and market conditions as of the Reference Date (i.e. 5 June 2026, corresponding to the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date) or during the 12 (twelve) months preceding the Reference Date, and (ii) the economic, equity and financial position of the Offeror and the Issuer, as set out in the financial statements as of 31 December 2025 and in the interim statements as of 31 March 2026, as well as in the relevant press releases and presentations of results to the financial community. In the context of the valuations supporting the decision to increase, in the event of continuation of the Offer, the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents), announced in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, the Offeror's Board of Directors also considered, inter alia, the New Information.

In particular, the Offeror's Board of Directors, for the purposes of determining the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, has taken into account the valuation analysis contained in the Fairness

Opinion, adopting the following valuation methods, all having equal relevance, and the respective valuation ranges:

(i) the market multiples method, specifically the ratio of Price/Earnings and linear regression between multiples of Price/Tangible Net Equity and their respective levels of forward profitability expressed in RoATE;

(ii) the Stock Market Price method;

(iii) the method based on premiums paid in previous public tender and/or exchange offers;

(iv) the method based on target prices identified by research analysts; and

(v) the Dividend Discount Model, using the so-called "Excess Capital" variant.

The valuation analyses carried out by the Offeror, for the purpose of determining the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, are subject to the following main limitations:

(i) the Offeror has used exclusively publicly available data and information for the purposes of its analyses;

(ii) the Offeror has not carried out any financial, legal, commercial, tax, industrial or any other form of due diligence on the Issuer; and

(iii) there is no annual breakdown of the financial and balance sheet projections for the Issuer over the time horizon of the MPS Business Plan. Therefore, if relevant for the purposes of applying the valuation methods, the projections relating to future financial and balance sheet performance used for the Issuer – and, for the sake of consistency, for the Offeror – have been derived on the basis of estimates provided by research analysts ("consensus"). As to the consensus, it is pointed out that (a) there is a limited number of estimates for the Issuer relating to the year 2029 and (b) there is a discrepancy in the number of brokers available between the Offeror and the Issuer.

A brief description of each of the methods used to determine the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, is set out below.

(i) The market multiples and linear regression method:

The market multiples and linear regression method is based on multiples implicit in the prices of comparable listed companies, appropriately applied to the company being valued. The method is composed of the following stages: (x) identification of comparable listed companies; (y) calculation of the multiples for each of the comparable companies, i.e. the ratios based on share prices and the earnings or balance sheet figures deemed significant for the company under analysis, and the derivation of one or more representative multiples; (z) application of the calculated multiple to the relevant figures of the company being valued.

(a) Market multiples method: for the purposes of the Offer, and based on the specific characteristics of the banking sector and market practice, the Price/Earnings (P/E) multiple for 2027 and 2028 was selected. The P/E multiples of the selected comparable companies were applied to the consensus earnings estimates for the Offeror and the Issuer for 2027 and 2028, as provided by FactSet, in order to determine consistent value ranges for the shares of the Offeror and the Issuer, which were used to identify exchange ratio ranges.

(b) Linear regression method: according to the linear regression method, the economic value of a company can be estimated on the basis of parameters identified through the correlation (if statistically significant) between Price/Tangible Net Equity multiples and the respective levels of prospective profitability expressed by RoATE. Specifically, a linear regression analysis was carried out on the latest available Price/Tangible Net Equity ratio against the expected RoATE for 2027 and 2028, based on the consensus estimates provided by FactSet.

In this specific case, when applying the aforementioned methods, account was taken of the differing levels of capitalisation of the Offeror, the Issuer and comparable companies in relation to the target regulatory requirement (CET 1 Ratio)[10].

For the purposes of analysing market multiples, the following sample of listed Italian and European companies was selected, as they are similar in terms of business model, geographical presence and/or size to the companies under analysis:

- for comparable listed Italian companies, the following sample was selected: UniCredit, BPER, Banco BPM, Credito Emiliano;

The significance of the results of the market multiples analysis and the linear regression analysis depends, in any case, on the comparability of the sample. Given the specific characteristics of the Offeror and the Issuer, comparability remains, however, only partial.

Furthermore, the companies identified as potentially comparable must (i) have a high level of significance in terms of their respective market prices and the liquidity of their shares, and (ii) not be influenced by any particular contingent circumstances.

The prices used for the purpose of calculating the multiples of comparable companies refer to the market prices recorded on the Reference Date, namely on the trading session of 5 June 2026, corresponding to the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date.

(ii) The Stock Market Price Method:

The Stock Market Price Method uses market prices as relevant information for estimating the economic value of companies, utilising for this purpose the stock market prices expressed in share prices recorded over time intervals deemed significant, on the assumption that there is a degree of correlation between the prices expressed by the market for the shares of the companies under valuation and their economic value. The main feature of this method lies in the ability to express, in relative terms, the relationship between the values of the companies concerned, as perceived by the market.

In this specific case, it was deemed appropriate to apply this method by referring to the official volume-weighted prices of the Offeror's and the Issuer's shares recorded on the Reference Date and over the preceding 12-month period.

(iii) The method based on premiums paid in previous public tender and/or exchange offers:

This criterion is based on an analysis of the premiums with respect to stock market prices implicit in the per-share consideration offered in previous public tender and/or exchange offers comparable to the Offer, conducted in Italy over various time periods.

In this specific case, it was deemed appropriate to select a sample of public offers comparable to the Offer, taking as a reference, for each selected transaction, the premiums implied in the offer consideration with respect to the issuer's share prices. In particular, the premiums were calculated in relation to the official price on the Trading Day preceding the date of the offer's announcement and to the volume-weighted average prices for 1-month, 3-month, 6-month and 12-month periods preceding that date. Finally, the above premiums were summarised for each time horizon.

(iv) The method based on target prices identified by research analysts:

The target price method determines a company's value on the basis of target valuations (also known as target prices) published by financial analysts regarding that company. Target prices are value indicators that express an assumption in relation to the price a share may achieve on the stock market and are derived from a variety of valuation methods, applied at the discretion of the individual research analyst.

For the purposes of applying the target price method, the target prices of the Offeror and the Issuer were used, as indicated by the research analysts covering the companies and published following the release of the Offeror's and the Issuer's results as of 31 March 2026 (on 8 May 2026 and 12 May 2026 respectively[11]) and until the Reference Date.

(v) The Dividend Discount Model method in the so-called "Excess Capital" variant:

The Dividend Discount Model, in the so-called "Excess Capital" variant, is based on the assumption that the economic value of a company is equal to the sum of the present value of:

- cash flows from potential future dividends distributable to shareholders, generated over the selected time horizon, without affecting the level of capitalisation necessary to maintain a predetermined long-term target level of regulatory capital. These cash flows are therefore independent of the dividend policy actually planned or adopted by management. Based on the availability of consensus estimates from research analysts, the selected time horizon was 2026–2029;
- the company's long-term value (so-called "Terminal Value"), calculated as the present value of a perpetuity estimated on the basis of a normalised distributable, economically sustainable cash flow consistent with a long-term growth rate.

[11] Board of Directors' meeting held on 11 May 2026, and market announcement and press release issued on 12 May 2026.

The valuation methods described above were applied in the same manner as for the Fairness Opinion, and thus on a "stand-alone" basis and on a going concern basis (so-called "as-is") for both companies and, if relevant for the purposes of applying the valuation methods, by valuing the Issuer's qualifying indirect shareholding in AG separately at market value. In particular, the Issuer's expected profit (based on consensus estimates of net profit by research analysts, as provided by FactSet as of the Reference Date) and, if applicable, the Issuer's latest available Tangible Net Equity have been reduced by the amount relating to AG's contribution to the parent company (also based on the same source as of the Reference Date), thereby obtaining a valuation of the Issuer net of its shareholding in AG. To this value was added the market value of the shareholding in AG (calculated by multiplying AG's market capitalisation as of the Reference Date by the shareholding held indirectly by the Issuer, through MB).

Based on the analyses carried out in accordance with the valuation criteria described above, the following results emerged.

	Exchange ratio
Method	Minimum	Maximum
Market multiples and linear regression method	1.467x	1.898x
Stock Market Price Method	1.290x	1.655x
Method based on premiums paid in previous public tender and/or exchange offers	1.654x	2.051x
Method based on target prices identified by research analysts	1.243x	2.000x
Dividend Discount Model method in the so-called "Excess Capital" variant	1.505x	1.986x

On 3 October 2026, in the context of the valuations supporting the decision to increase, in the event of continuation of the Offer, the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice from €1.000 (one euro) to €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents), announced in the Offeror's Press Release of 3 October 2026, the Offeror's Board of Directors, on the basis of the New Information, consistently with the valuation approach described above and endorsing the considerations of Provasoli Partners, has confirmed its analyses, including the ranges of the results in terms of exchange ratio set out above.

In light of the foregoing, the Offeror's Board of Directors has determined, within the range selected on the basis of the application of the methods set out above, that the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio (Intesa Sanpaolo Shares for each Share Subject to the Offer) is 1.600 (one point six hundred), in addition to a Cash Consideration of €1.250 (one euro and twenty-five cents), equivalent to an implied exchange ratio as of the Reference Date of 1.820x[12]. This value was determined by taking into account (i) the ranges identified through the application of the methodologies outlined above; (ii) the characteristics of the transaction as a whole; (iii) the implied premium with respect to the market price of the Issuer's Shares; and (iv) the New Information.

[12] Calculated as the sum of (i) the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio equal to 1.600 and (ii) the ratio between the Cash Consideration (€1.250) and the Offeror's Reference Price (€5.682).

It is pointed out that, for the purposes of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, the valuation of the Shares Subject to the Offer was carried out by the independent expert in accordance with article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Civil Code.

It is pointed out that, on 20 July 2026, EY S.p.A., the firm appointed to carry out the statutory audit of the Offeror's accounts, issued a report on the criteria used by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo to determine the exchange ratio in connection with the Offer, in which it confirmed that no element emerged to suggest that the valuation methods adopted by the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo for determining the exchange ratio in connection with the Offer were inadequate, as they were reasonable and not arbitrary in this specific case, and that they had been correctly applied for the purposes of determining the exchange ratio.

In addition, it is pointed out that on 19 October 2026, EY S.p.A. issued its report on the appropriateness of the issue price of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares in connection with the Offer, as determined by the Offeror's Board of Directors, pursuant to the combined provisions of article 2441, paragraph 6 of the Civil Code and article 158, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

Monetary valuation of the Consideration

For the purposes of this Offer Document, it is pointed out that, with the aim of attributing – for illustrative purposes only – an implicit "monetary" value to the Share Consideration offered for each Share Subject to the Offer that is tendered in acceptance of the Offer, the following "monetary" values have been attributed:

(i) €6.311 attributed to each Intesa Sanpaolo Share, corresponding to the official price of Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares on the last Trading Day prior to the Date of the Offer Document (the "Per Share Monetary Value of the Intesa Sanpaolo Share prior to the Date of the Offer Document");

(ii) €10.098 attributed to the Share Consideration due for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, equal to the Per Share Monetary Value of the Intesa Sanpaolo Share prior to the Date of the Offer Document multiplied by 1.600 (one point six hundred) (the "Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document");

(iii) €9.091 attributed to each Share Subject to the Offer and corresponding to the Offeror's Reference Price multiplied by the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio equal to 1.600 (one point six hundred) (the "Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Announcement Date");

(iv) €10.341 attributed to each Share Subject to the Offer, corresponding to the sum of the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Announcement Date and the Cash Consideration (i.e., €1.250) (the "Per Share Monetary Value of the Consideration prior to the Announcement Date").

In light of the foregoing, it is pointed out that the official stock market prices of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares may vary (including during the Acceptance Period, as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations, and until the Payment Date) from the price of Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares used for the purposes of determining, respectively, the Per Share Monetary Value of the Intesa Sanpaolo Share prior to the Date of the Offer Document, the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document and the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Announcement Date.

It is specified that, except for the Unipol Agreement, no other agreement exists and no further consideration has been agreed, including any consideration in kind, with any entity.

E.2 Aggregate value of the Offer

In the event of full acceptance of the Offer, i.e. in the event that all the Shares Subject to the Offer – namely, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the 3,037,594,735 Shares Subject to the Offer are tendered in acceptance of the Offer (or, in any event, acquired by Intesa Sanpaolo as a result of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, even in the context of the Joint Procedure):

(i) there shall be allocated to the Tendering Shareholders as Share Consideration (subject to any amendments specified in Section A, Paragraph A.5 and in Section E, Paragraph E.1), on the basis of the Exchange Ratio described in Paragraph E.1 , of this Section E of the Offer Document, a maximum of 5,054,557,639 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares arising from the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, corresponding – as of the date of the Offer Document – to approximately 22.6% of the Offeror's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, calculated on the assumption of full subscription and payment of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer; and

(ii) a total cash consideration of €3.8 billion will be paid as the Cash Consideration, for a maximum total consideration for the Offer of €34.5 billion, this amount being equal to the sum of the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Date of the Offer Document and the Cash Consideration, multiplied by the total number of Shares Subject to the Offer, which, as of the Date of the Offer Document, is 3,037,594,735.

For the purpose of the valuation of the Shares Subject to the Offer, the Offeror has been assisted by Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., as independent expert pursuant to article 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b) of the Civil Code, which on 18 July 2026 issued the Independent Expert's Opinion, based on the balance sheet as of 31 March 2026.

Subsequently, on 17 October 2026, Deloitte Advisory S.r.l. S.B., at the request of the Board of Directors of the Offeror, proceeded with the update of the Independent Expert's Opinion, taking into account the financial position of the Issuer as of 30 June 2026, which, as a consequence, constitutes the new reference date for the Independent Expert's Opinion.

It is pointed out that in the Offer Notice, the maximum total value of the Offer was determined, on the basis of the Offeror's Reference Price, as approximately €30.7 billion, an amount equal to the sum of the maximum total "monetary" value of the Share Consideration, amounting to approximately €27.6 billion (corresponding to the Per Share Monetary Value of the Share Consideration prior to the Announcement Date), and the maximum total cash component amounting to approximately €3.0 billion (corresponding to the cash consideration set forth in the Offer Notice). It is pointed out that, as a result of the increase of the cash component of the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice, on the basis of the Reference Price of the Offeror recorded on the Reference Date (equal to €5.682), the maximum total value of the Offer, in the event of full acceptance, would be approximately €31.4 billion, this amount being equal to the sum of the maximum total "monetary" value of the securities component (i.e., the Share Consideration) of approximately €27.6 billion (corresponding to €9.091 per Share Subject to the Offer, rounded to the third decimal place, calculated on the basis of the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio equal to 1.600 (one point six hundred)) and the maximum total cash component (i.e., the Cash Consideration) of approximately €3.8 billion (corresponding to €1.250 – one euro and twenty-five cents – per Share Subject to the Offer, rounded to the third decimal place).

Should a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Threshold Condition be achieved, it is envisaged that, on the basis of the Shares Subject to the Offer as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror will issue 3,369,248,354 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, which will be allocated in exchange to the Tendering Shareholders on the basis of the Exchange Ratio and will represent approximately 16.3% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares. In the event that a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Minimum Threshold is achieved, it is provided that, on the basis of the Shares Subject to the Offer on the Date of the Offer Document, Intesa Sanpaolo will issue 2,526,593,713 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, which will be allocated to Tendering Shareholders in exchange on the basis of the Exchange Ratio and will represent approximately 12.7% of the Offeror's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares.

It is pointed out that, should the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, amounting to 5,700,000,000, be issued, these will represent 24.7% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares; should a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Threshold Condition (i.e. 66.67%)[13] be achieved, the Offeror is expected to issue 3,800,000,000 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (equal to 66.67% calculated on the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares), which will represent approximately 18.0% on the basis of Intesa Sanpaolo's shares issued on the Date of the Offer Document and the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares; in the event that a shareholding in MPS's share capital corresponding to the Minimum Threshold is achieved, it is provided that, Intesa Sanpaolo will issue 2,850,000,001 Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (equal to 50% + 1 Issuer's Shares calculated on the maximum number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares), which will represent approximately 14.1% on the basis of the Offeror's shares issued as of the Date of the Offer Document and of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares.

Source:-FactSet and public information available as of the Reference Date.

(1) Multiples calculated on the basis of the number of outstanding shares and the closing price on the Reference Date.

(2) Group equity net of intangible assets and other equity instruments, adjusted for any dividend distributions between 31 March 2026 and the Reference Date.

(3) Profit for 2026, 2027 and 2028 based on consensus data from the provider FactSet as of the Reference Date.

(4) This figure is not material given the significant non-recurring transactions that took place during the period.

(5) Calculated on the basis of the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio and the Cash Consideration.

The prices used for the calculation of the multiples refer to the market prices recorded as of the Reference Date, namely on the trading session of 5 June 2026, corresponding to the last Trading Day prior to the Announcement Date.

On that date, (i) the Price/Earnings of MPS at the consideration offered, calculated on the basis of the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio and the Cash Consideration, are higher than the corresponding multiples calculated for Intesa Sanpaolo, as well as the average and median calculated for the sample of listed companies considered in the preceding table and (ii) the Price/Tangible Net Equity of MPS at the consideration offered are lower than the corresponding multiples calculated for Intesa Sanpaolo, as well as the average and median calculated for the sample of listed companies considered in the preceding table[14].

The multiples set out above have been calculated on the basis of historical and forward-looking data and publicly available information (and on the basis of subjective conditions and parameters determined in accordance with commonly applied methods) and are provided without limitation, exclusively as additional information.

It is also pointed out that the significance of some of the multiples shown in the table above may be influenced by changes in the scope of consolidation of certain companies, by the application of accounting standards and/or by the presence of extraordinary items in the financial statements of such companies, which could affect these multiples.

As to the multiples analysed, it is clarified for the sake of completeness that: (i) in relation to the Price/Earnings multiple, expected earnings – rather than historical earnings – represent the fundamental and benchmark parameter commonly used in valuation practice for financial and industrial companies, and (ii) the Price/Cash Flow, Enterprise Value/Revenue, Enterprise Value/EBITDA and Enterprise Value/EBIT – commonly used in valuation practice within industrial sectors – have not been presented or taken into account for valuation purposes as they are not material given the banking sector to which the Offeror and the Issuer belong, their business model and their economic and financial profile.

[14] For the sake of completeness, it is pointed out that the differences identified in Price/Tangible Net Equity multiples relating to the Issuer, the Offeror and the sample of listed companies reflect, inter alia, the different aspects of profitability and the different levels of capitalisation of the companies concerned.

E.4 Monthly arithmetic and volume-weighted averages of the official prices recorded by the Issuer's Shares in the twelve months preceding the launch of the Offer

The official price of the Shares Subject to the Offer recorded on the Reference Date (i.e., 5 June 2026) was €8.970.

In addition to the prices recorded on the Reference Date, the price trends of the Offeror and the Issuer were also considered over a sufficiently long time period in order to mitigate any short-term speculative fluctuations. In particular, in addition to the prices recorded on the Reference Date, the following were taken into account: (a) the official prices recorded on the dates falling 1 month, 3 months, 6 months and 12 months preceding the Reference Date, and (b) the volume-weighted averages of the official prices of the Offeror's and Issuer's securities relating to the 1 month, 3 months, 6 months and 12 months preceding the Reference Date.

Reference Date	Implied consideration offered	Volume-weighted average price of the Issuer's shares	Premium
Figures based on prices as of 5 June 2026	10.341	8.970	15.3%
Figures based on the weighted average of prices in the month preceding 5 June 2026 (inclusive)	10.451	9.126	14.5%
Figures based on the weighted average of prices over the three months preceding 5 June 2026 (inclusive)	10.063	8.356	20.4%
Figures based on the weighted average of prices over the 6 months preceding 5 June 2026 (inclusive)	10.295	8.466	21.6%
Figures based on the weighted average of	10.050	8.126	23.7%

prices over the 12 months preceding 5 June 2026 (inclusive)

It is pointed out that the premiums implied in the Consideration set out above, with reference to 5 June 2026, have been calculated on the basis of a comparison between an implied valuation of the Consideration (i.e. the Pre-Adjustment Exchange Ratio equal to 1.600 – one point six hundred – and the Cash Consideration equal to €1.250 – one euro and twenty-five cents) based on an official price of the Offeror and an official price of the Issuer, both relating in all cases to the same date and to comparable time horizons and, therefore, consistent with one another.

Furthermore, as the market prices of Intesa Sanpaolo shares and the Issuer's Shares have been and remain subject to volatility and fluctuations arising from general trends in the capital markets, it cannot be ruled out that there may be deviations from the aforementioned valuation and there is a risk that the Consideration, whilst remaining fair (according to the methods used to determine it), on the date of completion of the Offer, may be lower or higher than on the date on which it was determined. In this regard, it is pointed out that changes in market prices may result from a range of factors, some of which are beyond the Offeror's control, including future activities and prospects, market conditions, economic developments, geopolitical events, regulatory changes, government actions, legal proceedings, and other similar circumstances.

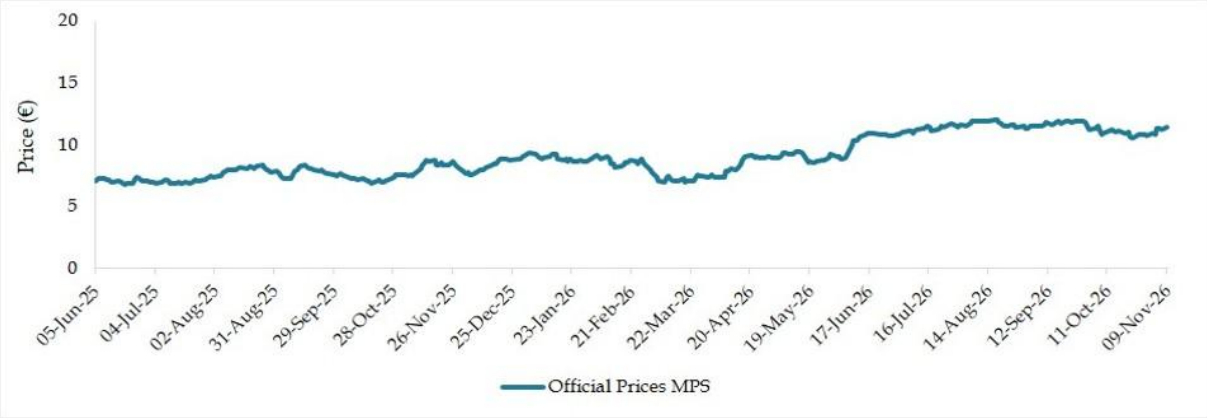

For information purposes, the following table sets out the volume-weighted average of the official prices of Intesa Sanpaolo ordinary shares, the total values and the total volumes for each of the twelve months preceding the Reference Date (inclusive) (i.e. 5 June 2026):

the delivery of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (offered as Consideration), whichever is earlier.

Acceptance of the Offer shall be made by signing and delivering to an Appointed Intermediary a specific acceptance form (the "Acceptance Form") duly completed in all respects.

Shareholders of the Issuer who wish to accept the Offer may also deliver the Acceptance Form and deposit the Shares Subject to the Offer specified therein with the Depositary Intermediaries, provided that such submission and deposit are made in good time to enable the Depositary Intermediaries to arrange for the submission of the Acceptance Form to an Appointed Intermediary and the deposit of the Shares Subject to the Offer with the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances no later than the last day of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, in accordance with the preceding ParagraphF.1.1, of this Section F, of the Offer Document.

The Shares Subject to the Offer are subject to the dematerialisation regime for securities provided for in articles 83-bis et seq. of the Consolidated Law on Finance and in the Regulations adopted by resolution of CONSOB and the Bank of Italy on 22 February 2008, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

Those wishing to tender their Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer shall be holders of the Shares Subject to the Offer (in dematerialised form), duly registered in an escrow account with one of the Depositary Intermediaries, and shall contact their respective intermediaries to provide the necessary instructions in order to accept the Offer.

In view of the dematerialisation scheme for securities, the execution of the Acceptance Form shall also constitute an irrevocable instruction, given by the individual holder of the Shares Subject to the Offer to the Appointed Intermediary or to the relevant Depositary Intermediary with whom the Shares Subject to the Offer are held in an escrow account, to transfer the aforementioned Shares Subject to the Offer to the Offeror, if applicable, including via transit accounts held with such intermediaries.

The Depositary Intermediaries, acting as agents, shall countersign the Acceptance Forms. The risk that the Depositary Intermediaries fail to deliver the Acceptance Forms and, if applicable, fail to deposit the Shares Subject to the Offer with the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances by the last valid day of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations) and/or the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, in accordance with the preceding Paragraph F.1.1, of this Section F, of the Offer Document shall be borne exclusively by the Tendering Shareholders.

Upon acceptance of the Offer and deposit of the Shares Subject to the Offer, by executing the Acceptance Form, a mandate shall be granted to the Appointed Intermediary and to any Depositary Intermediary to carry out all the necessary formalities preliminary to the transfer of the Shares Subject to the Offer to the Offeror, who shall bear the related costs.

The Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer shall be freely transferable to the Offeror and free from any restrictions or encumbrances of any type or nature, whether in rem, contractual or personal.

For the entire period during which the Shares Subject to the Offer remain subject to the Offer – during which they shall remain so for the entire Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) until the Payment Date (or, in the event of acceptance during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, until the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period) - Tendering Shareholders may exercise the financial rights (without limitation, option rights) and corporate rights (such as voting rights) relating to the Shares Subject to the Offer owned by them, which shall remain in the ownership of the Tendering Shareholders.

Acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with the applicable legislation) and/or during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period by minors or persons under guardianship or curatorship, in accordance with the applicable legislation, signed by the person exercising parental authority, guardianship or curatorship, unless accompanied by authorisation from the guardianship court, shall be accepted subject to approval and, unless otherwise specified by the Offeror, shall not be counted for the purposes of determining the acceptance percentage of the Offer; payment in respect of such acceptances shall in any event only be made once authorisation has been granted.

If the Shares Subject to the Offer that are intended to be tendered in acceptance of the Offer are subject to a right of usufruct or a security, acceptance of the Offer may only take place by the bare owner and the usufructuary, or the owner and the secured creditor, signing the Acceptance Form, as the case may be (or by just one of these parties who holds a valid power of attorney to sign the Acceptance Form also in the name and on behalf of the other).

If the Shares Subject to the Offer that are intended to be tendered in acceptance of the Offer are held in joint ownership, acceptance of the Offer may only take place by all the joint owners signing the Acceptance Form (or by just one of those parties who holds a valid power of attorney to sign the Acceptance Form also in the name and on behalf of the other co-owners). If the Shares Subject to the Offer that are intended to be tendered in acceptance of the Offer are subject to attachment or seizure, acceptance of the Offer may only take place by the signing of the Acceptance Form by the owner and all proceeding and intervening creditors (or by just one of those parties who holds appropriate power of attorney to sign the Acceptance Form also in the name and on behalf of the others). Such acceptance, unless accompanied by authorisation from the court or the competent authority for the attachment or seizure proceedings, shall be accepted subject to approval and shall be counted for the purposes of determining the acceptance percentage of the Offer only if the authorisation is received by the Depositary Intermediary by the end of the Acceptance Period. Payment of the Consideration will, in any event, only be made once authorisation has been obtained.

If the Shares Subject to the Offer that are intended to be tendered in acceptance of the Offer are registered in the name of a deceased person whose estate is still pending, acceptance of the Offer may only take place by the heirs and/or legatees (as the case may be) signing the Acceptance Form. Such acceptance, unless accompanied by a specific declaration certifying that the tax obligations relating to the succession have been fulfilled, will be accepted subject to reservation and will be counted for the purposes of determining the acceptance rate of the Offer only if the declaration is received by the Depositary Intermediary by the end of the Acceptance Period. Payment of the Consideration will, in any event, only be made after such declaration has been received and will be limited to the portion due to the legatees or heirs (as the case may be) who have signed the Acceptance Form.

Only Shares Subject to the Offer which, at the time of acceptance, are duly registered and available in an escrow account held by the Tendering Shareholder with an intermediary participating in the centralised management system operated by Monte Titoli may be tendered in acceptance of the Offer. In particular, the Issuer's Shares resulting from purchase transactions carried out on the market may be tendered in acceptance of the Offer only following the settlement of those transactions within the settlement system.

F.2 Entitlement to and exercise of governance and economic rights relating to the Shares Subject to the Offer

In the event that the Offer is completed (and therefore the Conditions of Effectiveness are fulfilled or, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, have been waived by the Offeror), the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) shall be transferred to the Offeror on the Payment Date (or, in the event of acceptance during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period).

Until the Payment Date (or, in the event of acceptance during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period), the Issuer's shareholders shall retain and may exercise the economic and governance rights arising from ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer. However, shareholders who have accepted the Offer may not transfer or dispose of their Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, other than by accepting any competing offers or counter-offers pursuant to article 44 of the Issuers' Regulation.

F.3 Communications regarding the progress and results of the Offer

During the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate the Collection of the Acceptances shall report on a daily basis to Borsa Italiana, in accordance with article 41, paragraph 2, letter d) of the Issuers' Regulation, data relating to the acceptances received that day and to the total number of Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, as well as the percentage that these quantities represent in relation to the Shares Subject to the Offer.

Borsa Italiana will publish this information by means of a specific notice no later than the day following such notification.

Furthermore, should the Offeror make purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer outside the Offer, the Offeror shall notify CONSOB and the market of such purchases by the end of the day, in accordance with article 41, paragraph 2, letter c) of the Issuers' Regulation.

The provisional results of the Offer will be announced by the Offeror by the evening of the last Trading Day of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations) and, in any event, by 7.29 a.m. on the first Trading Day following the end of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations), by publishing the Notification of the Provisional Results of the Offer.

The Notification of the Provisional Results will contain information regarding: (a) the provisional results of the Offer, (b) the fulfilment or non-fulfilment of the Threshold Condition or the waiver of the Threshold Condition (without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold), (c) whether the conditions for the Reopening of the Acceptance Period or for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance are met, and, if applicable, for the simultaneous fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) within the framework of the Joint Procedure; and (d) the procedures and timing relating to the Delisting.

The final results of the Offer will be announced by the Offeror, in accordance with article 41, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation, by 7.29 a.m. on the Trading Day preceding the Payment Date, through the publication of the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer.

The Notification of the Final Results of the Offer will contain information regarding (a) the final results of the Offer, (b) confirmation of the fulfilment or non-fulfilment of the Threshold Condition or of the waiver of the Threshold Condition (without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold), (c) whether the other Conditions of Effectiveness (other than the Minimum Threshold) have been fulfilled or not, or whether they have been waived; (d) confirmation of whether the conditions for the Reopening of the Acceptance Period have been fulfilled, and (e) confirmation of whether or not the conditions have been fulfilled for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and, if applicable, for the simultaneous fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) within the framework of the Joint Procedure; in which case, the announcement shall contain information relating to: (i) the number of remaining Shares Subject to the Offer (both in absolute terms and as a percentage of the Issuer's total share capital); (ii) the manner and timing by which the Offeror will exercise the Squeeze-Out and, if the conditions are met, will simultaneously fulfil the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) as part of the Joint Procedure; and (iii) the terms and timing of the Delisting (if applicable).

In the event of a Reopening of the Acceptance Period:

(i) the provisional results of the Offer following the Reopening of the Acceptance Period will be disclosed to the market by the evening of the last day of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period or, at the latest, by 7.29 a.m. on the first Trading Day following the close of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (i.e. 8 February 2027, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable regulations). Upon publication of the Notification of the Provisional Results of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, notice will be given of whether the conditions for exercising the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance have been fulfilled and whether the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) applies, specifying the procedures and timing by which the Offeror will comply with the Joint Procedure;

(ii) The final results of the Offer will be announced, in accordance with article 41, paragraph 6 of the Issuers' Regulation, by 7.29 a.m. on the day preceding the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (i.e. by 11 February 2027 unless the Acceptance Period is extended in accordance with applicable legislation) by publishing the Notification of the Final Results of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period. On that occasion, the Offeror will disclose the final results of the Offer following the outcome of any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, confirmation of whether or not the conditions for exercising the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance are fulfilled, and whether the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) applies, specifying the procedures and timing by which the Offeror will comply with the Joint Procedure, as well as the procedures and timing relating to the subsequent Delisting (if applicable).

F.4 Markets on which the Offer is launched

The Offer is being launched exclusively in Italy and is addressed, on a non-discriminatory basis and on equal terms, to all shareholders holding Shares Subject to the Offer, as indicated and subject to the exceptions set out in the following paragraphs.

F.4.1. Italy

The Offer is being launched in Italy in accordance with articles 102 and 106, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

F.4.2. Other Countries

Subject to the provisions of Paragraph F.4.3 of the Offer Document concerning the United States, and unless otherwise indicated by the Offeror, the Offer has not been and will not be promoted in any of the Excluded Countries, nor by using national or international instruments of communication or commerce in the Excluded Countries (including, without limitation, the postal network, fax, telex, email, telephone and internet), nor through any facility of any financial intermediary in the Excluded Countries, nor in any other manner. No steps have been or will be taken to enable the Offer to be launched in any of the Excluded Countries, it being understood that the Offeror reserves the right to extend the Offer in one or more Excluded Countries and/or to holders of Shares Subject to the Offer resident in the Excluded Countries.

The Offeror reserves the right to extend the Offer to certain investors in the United States by means of a "private placement memorandum" intended exclusively for "Qualified Institutional Buyers", as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act, subject to the applicable restrictions imposed by US federal and state securities laws. The "private placement memorandum" intended for "Qualified Institutional Buyers" in the United States will not be used in connection with the Offer in Italy or in any other of the Excluded Countries.

In the Excluded Countries, copies of the Offer Document, or parts thereof or copies of any other document issued by the Offeror in connection with the Offer, may not and shall not be sent or transmitted by any means or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, unless such document expressly authorises such transmission or distribution, except where the Offeror decides to extend the Offer to an Excluded Country, in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and regulations in such Excluded Countries, or where an exemption from the application of such provisions is provided for. Recipients of the above documents may not distribute, send or transmit them (whether by post or any other means or instrumentality of communication or commerce, whether domestic or international) to the Excluded Countries.

The Offer Document does not constitute, is not part of, and shall not be construed as, an offer to purchase or exchange, or a solicitation of an offer to sell or exchange, any financial instruments in any of the Excluded Countries. No securities may be offered, purchased or sold in the Excluded Countries without specific approval in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations in those countries or without an exemption from the application of such provisions.

Without prejudice to the right of the Offeror to extend the Offer in one or more Excluded Countries and/or to holders of Shares Subject to the Offer resident in the Excluded Countries, the Offeror does not intend to accept, either directly or indirectly, acceptances of the Offer made in, or originating from, Excluded Countries, if they are not compliant with the applicable laws and regulations in such Countries or in absence of an exemption from applying these provisions.

Acceptance of the Offer by persons resident in Countries other than Italy may be subject to specific obligations or restrictions pursuant to the applicable laws or regulations of those Countries. It is the sole responsibility of the recipients of the Offer to comply with such rules and, therefore, before accepting the Offer, to verify their existence and applicability by consulting their own legal counsel and advisors. The Offeror assumes and accepts no liability arising from any person's breach of the above restrictions.

F.4.3. United States

The Offer has not been and will not be made or publicly promoted in the United States or will not be directed at U.S. Persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act.

However, as specified in Section F. Paragraph F.4.2, the Offeror reserves the right to extend the Offer to certain investors in the United States by means of a "private placement memorandum" intended exclusively for "Qualified Institutional Buyers", as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act, subject to the applicable restrictions imposed by US federal and state laws. The "private placement memorandum" intended for "Qualified Institutional Buyers" in the United States will not be used in connection with the Offer in Italy or in any other Excluded Country. Securities may not be offered or sold in the United States unless they have been issued in the context of a registered transaction under the Securities Act or they are part of a transaction not subject to or exempt from the requirements of registration provided for by the Securities Act. Intesa Sanpaolo Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, nor with any regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction in the United States and, accordingly, the Offeror does not intend to make a public offer of such shares in the United States.

Consequently, without prejudice to the Offeror's right to extend the Offer to "Qualified Institutional Buyers" in the United States pursuant to a "private placement memorandum" as set out above:

(a) MPS shareholders who are resident in or located in the United States may not tender their Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer, and no tenders in acceptance of the Offer will be accepted from persons who are resident in or located in the United States;

(b) no communication relating to the Offer and no invitation to tender shares in acceptance of the Offer may be sent to the United States or addressed to persons residing or situated in the United States;

(c) neither the Offer Document nor any other document relating to the Offer may be (even partially) distributed or disseminated by intermediaries or other parties in the United States;

(d) envelopes containing acceptances of the Offer shall not be posted from the United States or otherwise dispatched from the United States, and all persons intending to exchange Shares Subject to the Offer for Intesa Sanpaolo Shares and wishing to hold such Intesa Sanpaolo Shares in registered form shall provide an address outside the United States for the registration of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares;

(e) those tendering their Shares Subject to the Offer in acceptance of the Offer shall represent (i) that they have not received in the United States a copy of the Offer Document, nor any other document relating to the Offer, nor the Acceptance Form or any other disclosure material, (ii) that they do not reside in, are not located in, and are not acting on behalf of any persons located in the United States at the time of acceptance, (iii) that they are in the process of acquiring Intesa Sanpaolo Shares outside the United States, and (iv) that they have understood and accepted all the restrictions set out above.

The Appointed Intermediaries and the Depositary Intermediaries shall not accept Acceptance Forms and the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer if they reasonably believe that such tenders do not comply with the provisions set out above and, in particular, they shall not accept Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer by customers located in the United States or who have an address in the United States. Instructions that are incomplete or do not comply with the aforementioned requirements shall be null and void.

F.4.4. United Kingdom

This Offer Document is accessible in or from the United Kingdom exclusively by Relevant Persons (as described in the Introduction Section, item 6 of the Offer Document). In the United Kingdom, this Offer Document is intended exclusively for Relevant Persons and any financial instrument or investment or investment activity (within the meaning of article 21 of the UK Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) described in this Offer Document or any other document issued by the Offeror in relation to the Offer is made available only to Relevant Persons (and any invitation, offer, agreement to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire such financial instruments or other investments or engage in any of such investment activities shall be intended exclusively for such persons). Any person in the United Kingdom who is not a Relevant Person should not act or rely on this Offer Document or any of its contents.

Appointed Intermediaries and Depositary Intermediaries shall not accept the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer if they reasonably believe that such tenders do not comply with the provisions set out above. Instructions that are incomplete or do not comply with the above requirements shall be null and void.

The following paragraphs describe, by way of example only and without limitation, the specific provisions applicable to certain Excluded Countries. The reference to such Excluded Countries is merely illustrative and shall not be construed as an exhaustive list of the Excluded Countries.

The Offer may be extended within the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") exclusively to QDIIs and sovereign wealth funds, provided that this is not by way of a public offering and is in compliance with all applicable PRC laws and regulations. Without prejudice to any reporting or filing obligations under applicable PRC laws and regulations, the Offeror has not applied for or obtained, and will not apply for or obtain, any approval, registration or filing with any PRC regulatory authority in connection with the Offer.

Each Tendering Shareholder resident or established in the PRC shall be solely responsible for complying with all applicable PRC laws and regulations in connection with its acceptance of the Offer, as well as for obtaining and maintaining all approvals, notifications and registrations required thereunder.

The Offer in Hong Kong is intended exclusively for "professional investors" (as defined in the "Securities and Futures Ordinance", Cap. 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong and the rules made thereunder). The Offer may be extended to Hong Kong exclusively (i) to "professional investors", or (ii) in other circumstances provided that they do not result in the Offer Document being a "prospectus", (as defined in the "Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance", Cap. 32 of the Laws of Hong Kong), or do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the "Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance". No advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Offer which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong other than "professional investors" may be issued or held by any person for the purposes of issue (in each case whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere).

F.5 Payment Date of the Consideration

Should the Conditions of Effectiveness be fulfilled (or should the Offeror waive all or some of them, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold) and, consequently, the Offer be completed, payment of the Consideration to the holders of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, in consideration of the simultaneous transfer of ownership of such Shares Subject to the Offer to the Offeror, shall take place on the 5th (fifth) Trading Day following the close of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and, therefore, subject to any extension of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable legislation, on 29 January 2027 (i.e. the Payment Date).

In the event of a Reopening of the Acceptance Period, payment of the Consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period will take place on the 5th (fifth) Trading Day following the close of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, namely on 12 February 2027 (subject to any extension of the Acceptance Period).

On the Payment Date (or, in respect of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, subject to any extensions to the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable legislation), the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances will transfer the total number of Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer to an "escrow account" held in the name of the Offeror.

No interest will be paid on the Consideration between the date of acceptance of the Offer and the Payment Date (or, in relation to the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period, subject to any extensions of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable legislation).

F.6 Methods of payment of the Consideration

The payment of the Consideration will be made by the Offeror on the Payment Date or on the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (as the case may be) through the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances, in accordance with the instructions provided by the Tendering Shareholders on the Acceptance Form. In particular, the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances shall (i) credit the Cash Consideration, via the Depositary Intermediaries, to the customers' accounts held with the latter, and (ii) transfer the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, in respect of the Share Consideration, to the Tendering Shareholders' securities accounts held with the Appointed Intermediaries.

Should the result of applying the Exchange Ratio to the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer by a Tendering Shareholder not be a whole number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (i.e., where a Tendering Shareholder tenders in acceptance of the Offer a number lower than 125 Shares Subject to the Offer, or a number of Shares Subject to the Offer other than an integer multiple of 125), the Depositary Intermediary or the Appointed Intermediary with whom that Tendering Shareholder has submitted its acceptance shall specify the Fractional Part on the Acceptance Form. By the next Trading Day following the close of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable regulations), each Appointed Intermediary, including on behalf of the Depositary Intermediaries from whom they have received acceptances of the Offer, shall notify the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances of the number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from the aggregation of the Fractional Parts.

In the event that, following the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – an aggregate shareholding exceeding 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror shall proceed with the Joint Procedure, acquiring the remaining Shares for a consideration equal to (as the case may be):

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer exclusively in the context of the Offer, the Consideration;

(ii) if, excluding the case referred to in point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration determined by CONSOB in an amount equal to the Consideration pursuant to article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other cases, the consideration determined by CONSOB pursuant to article 50, paragraph 5 of the Issuers' Regulation.

The Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances – acting in the name and on behalf of the Tendering Shareholders and on the basis of the communications received from the Depositary Intermediaries via the Appointed Intermediaries - shall aggregate the Fractional Parts of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares and subsequently sell on Euronext Milan the whole number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from such aggregation. The cash proceeds from these sales will be transferred to each Appointed Intermediary, which will then, including through the Depositary Intermediaries, credit the relevant Tendering Shareholders in proportion to their respective Fractional Parts (this cash amount corresponding to the Fractional Part, the "Cash Amount of the Fractional Part"). Consequently, the sums resulting from the aforementioned disposals – which will be paid to the Tendering Shareholders as the Cash Amount of the Fractional Part – will be equal to the average of the disposal prices of the whole number of Intesa Sanpaolo Shares resulting from the aggregation of the fractional parts and will be paid to the Tendering Shareholders as follows: within 10 Trading Days of the Payment Date (i.e. by 12 February 2027, unless the Acceptance Period is extended in accordance with applicable regulations) or of the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (i.e. by 26 February 2027, unless the Acceptance Period is extended in accordance with applicable regulations), the Intermediary Appointed to Coordinate Collection of the Acceptances will credit the proceeds of the sale to the Depositary Intermediaries, through the Appointed Intermediaries, allocating them in such a manner that each Depositary Intermediary receives an amount equal to the total Cash Amount of the Fractional Part due to the Tendering Shareholders who tendered their Shares Subject to the Offer through that Depositary Intermediary. The Depositary Intermediaries shall, in turn, distribute and credit the proceeds to the Tendering Shareholders, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Acceptance Form.

It is pointed out that the Tendering Shareholder will not bear any transaction costs or commissions, either in relation to the allocation of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares or for the payment of the Cash Amount of the Fractional Part. In any event, no interest of any type will be paid on the Cash Amount of the Fractional Part.

The Offeror's obligation to pay the Consideration pursuant to the Offer shall be deemed to have been fulfilled once the relevant Consideration and any Cash Amount of the Fractional Part have been transferred to the Appointed Intermediaries. The risk that the Appointed Intermediaries or the relevant Depositary Intermediaries may fail to transfer the Consideration or any Cash Amount of the Fractional Part to the entitled parties (including any successors in title) or may delay such transfer shall be borne exclusively by the Tendering Shareholders.

F.7 Indication of the governing law for contracts entered into between the Offeror and the holders of the Issuer's financial instruments, as well as the competent jurisdiction

In relation to acceptance of the Offer, the governing law is Italian law and the competent jurisdiction is the ordinary Italian courts.

F.8 Procedures and timing for the return of the Shares Subject to the Offer in the event of the Offer being declared null and void and/or in the event of allotment

In the event that even one of the Conditions of Effectiveness is not fulfilled and the Offeror fails to exercise the right to waive such condition, resulting in the Offer not being completed, the Shares Subject to the Offer that have been tendered in acceptance of the Offer shall be made available again, through the Depositary Intermediaries, to the respective Tendering Shareholders, without any charges or expenses being borne by them, by the next Trading Day following the date on which the failure to complete the Offer is announced.

Since the Offer is a voluntary public tender and exchange offer, no allotment applies.

Furthermore, pursuant to article 23, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Prospectus Regulations, in the event of the publication of a supplement to the Prospectus to disclose a "significant new fact, a material error or inaccuracy relating to the information contained in the prospectus which may affect the valuation of the securities and which arises or is detected between the time when the prospectus is approved and the time when the acceptance period closes", holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have already accepted the Offer prior to the publication of such supplement shall be entitled to withdraw their acceptances, by means of an express notice to that effect, within 3 (three) business days of the date of publication of the supplement, provided that the new significant fact, error or inaccuracy giving rise to such publication arose or was detected prior to the end of the acceptance period or the delivery of the Intesa Sanpaolo Shares (offered as Consideration), whichever is earlier. In this case, the Issuer's Shares tendered in acceptance of the Offer shall be returned to their respective holders, free of any charges or expenses to them, without delay and in any event by the first Trading Day following the request for withdrawal.

G. FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS, PERFORMANCE GUARANTEES AND THE OFFEROR'S FUTURE PLANS

G.1 Methods of financing the Offer and guarantees of full performance

The Offeror has not entered into, and will not, enter into any financing arrangements in relation to the payment of the Offer Consideration.

Share Consideration

The Offeror will meet the funding requirements arising from the obligations to pay the Share Consideration – calculated on the assumption of full acceptance of the Offer based on the maximum number of Shares Subject to the Offer, which, as of the Date of the Offer Document, totals 3,037,594,735– by execution of the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer.

Therefore, to guarantee the strict fulfilment of the obligation to pay the Share Consideration, undertaken by the Offeror in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Offer Document, the Offeror's shareholders, at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting held on 10 September 2026, resolved, amongst other things, to amend the by-laws of Intesa Sanpaolo, granting the Board of Directors, pursuant to article 2443 of the Civil Code, the authority to carry out a Capital Increase in Support of the Offer. Following the resolution of the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Intesa Sanpaolo shareholders, on 19 October 2026, the Board of Directors of Intesa Sanpaolo exercised this authorisation and resolved to carry out the Capital Increase in connection with the Offer, to be carried out in one or more tranches, against payment and on a divisible basis, with the exclusion of option rights pursuant to article 2441, paragraph 4, first sentence, of the Civil Code, through the issue of new Intesa Sanpaolo Shares, carrying regular dividend rights and having the same characteristics as the ordinary shares of Intesa Sanpaolo already in circulation on the date of issue, to be paid up by way of a contribution in kind of the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer.

For further information regarding the Capital Increase in Support of the Offer, please refer to Section 10 "ESSENTIAL INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES" of the Prospectus, incorporated by reference in the Offer Document in accordance with Annex 2A of the Issuers' Regulation.

Cash Consideration

On 4 November 2026, Fideuram - Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking S.p.A. issued a guarantee of full performance of the obligations under the Offer, for the purposes set out in article 37-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, pursuant to which: (i) the total amount of €3.8 billion (the "Escrow Amount") shall remain deposited in the escrow account, held with Fideuram – Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking S.p.A., in the name of the Offeror, account no. 1003/00022746, until the Payment Date and shall be used exclusively, unconditionally and irrevocably for the payment of the Cash Consideration to the Tendering Shareholders, and (ii) Fideuram - Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking S.p.A. shall pay in full, upon first demand, in the name and on behalf of the Offeror, the amounts due pursuant to point (i) above, up to the Escrow Amount.

It is pointed out that the performance guarantee issued by Fideuram - Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking S.p.A. also relates to any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, any exercise of the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, or any completion of the Joint Procedure.

G.2 Reasons for the Offer and future plans for the Issuer

G.2.1. Reasons for the Offer

The financial and banking sector, both in Italy and across Europe, requires a process of consolidation that creates large-scale players capable of sustaining the investments necessary – in the context of technological and operational developments – to compete with new entrants and maintain adequate levels of profitability in an increasingly integrated market. The Offeror has therefore decided to launch the Offer in order to consolidate its position in the European banking sector and its presence in Italy, where it already operates successfully across all market segments.

The Offeror is one of Europe's leading banking groups, with a well-diversified and resilient business model, and ranks among the world's best in terms of social impact and ESG performance.

In particular, the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's operations are highly diversified, both in terms of its business mix (six divisions serving over twenty million customers) and geographically, and are highly resilient compared with its main competitors; among the most significant aspects, with reference to the year 2025, are:

- 43% of revenue from commission-based and insurance business, compared with an average of 27% for its main competitors;
- a cost-to-income ratio of 42%, compared with an average of 53% among its main competitors; and
- a "Zero-NPL Bank", with a net NPL ratio of 0.8%[15] as of 31 December 2025, and non-performing loans virtually reduced to zero.

As to its commitment to ESG, the Intesa Sanpaolo Group ranks among the world leaders in terms of social impact, having invested over €1 billion to combat poverty and reduce inequalities (during the period 2023–2025). The Intesa Sanpaolo Group has also demonstrated consistent support over the years:

- to address social needs, with over 68 million initiatives and around €27 billion in new social lending to support non-profit organisations, vulnerable people, young people and urban regeneration over the four-year period 2022–2025; and
- to customers in the ESG/climate transition, with approximately €90 billion in new loans to support the green economy, the circular economy and the ecological transition, accelerating its commitment to net-zero with approximately 95% of electric energy sourced from renewable sources by 31 December 2025.

This leadership position has been built up over time through a series of targeted acquisitions dating back to the late 1990s. Recent experiences in Italy (in particular, the Banche Venete transaction in 2017 and the acquisition of UBI Banca in 2020–2021, with integration completed on schedule in both cases) demonstrate the Offeror's determination and ability to pursue and execute growth, consolidation and integration transactions, minimising execution risk, whilst always respecting the distinctive characteristics of the acquired entities, recognising their merits regardless of their background, and without creating social tensions.

In this context, a transaction such as that between the Offeror and the Issuer represents a key strategic opportunity within the Italian and European banking landscape, accelerating value creation, not least through the realisation of significant synergies that combine scale, complementarity and low execution risk, with the aim of consolidating the main business areas of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS

[15] According to the EBA definition.

Group: Wealth Management, Protection & Advisory, Corporate & Investment Banking, Retail & Commercial Banking and Consumer Finance.

In fact, the integration of the Issuer with the Offeror - which is instrumental to the pursuit of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and, as such, necessarily requires the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold) such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror through the combination of diversified business models that are similar yet complementary, will enable the new combined entity to respond more effectively to market challenges, ensuring the utmost focus on the customer, strong financial soundness and significant sustainable profitability, whilst supporting the professional development of its people, the real economy and local communities across the country.

Further supporting the Offeror in the successful completion of the integration between the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group are both ISYTECH – the Offeror's cloud-native IT platform, which will enable the efficient management of customers from the acquired entities – and the Offeror's annual investment capacity in technology, which is more than five times that of MPS and MB combined.

G.2.2. Plans relating to the management of the business

Set out below are the future plans of the Offeror in relation to the Issuer, should the Offeror come to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or any purchase made outside the Offer itself pursuant to the applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a shareholding (i) at least equal to 66.67% of MPS's share capital, with consequent fulfilment of the Threshold Condition, or (ii) lower than 66.67% of MPS's share capital with consequent waiver of the Threshold Condition, provided that a certain shareholding threshold is achieved (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to implement also the Merger for Delisting (it being understood that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision relating to the resolution to approve the Merger for Delisting).

Specifically: (i) Paragraph G.2.2.1 provides a description of the Issuer's strategic and industrial targets within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group in the circumstances described above; (ii) Paragraph G.2.2.2 provides a description of the synergies arising from the Issuer's strategic and industrial targets within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group in the circumstances described above; (iii) Paragraph G.2.2.3 provides a description of the Unipol Agreement and the corporate transactions necessary for its implementation.

G.2.2.1 Strategic and industrial targets of the Issuer's integration into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not approved a consolidated industrial plan relating to the Intesa Sanpaolo Group that takes into account the completion of the Offer. Following the completion of the Offer, as a result of the necessary verifications and in-depth analysis, the Offeror may draw up an industrial plan relating to the entity resulting from the integration with MPS that will be subject to approval by the competent bodies.

Should the Offeror come to hold a shareholding equal to at least 66.67% of MPS's share capital or lower than 66.67% of MPS's share capital, provided that a certain shareholding threshold is achieved (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror within the terms under Section G, Paragraph G.2.2. of the Offer Document, the acquisition of the MPS Group and its consequent integration into the ISP Group will make it possible to further accelerate the implementation of the recent strategic guidelines set out in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's 2026–2029 Business Plan, which focus on:

- cost reduction, capitalising on the significant investments in technology already made; and
- revenue growth, supported by leadership in Wealth Management, Protection & Advisory.

Furthermore, as a result of the acquisition, MPS and its subsidiaries, once integrated into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, will benefit from the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's approach to managing non-performing loans (NPLs), which is characterised by maintaining a low cost of risk, thanks in particular to high-quality origination and a more effective model for credit monitoring.

The Intesa Sanpaolo Group aims to achieve these targets whilst maintaining a ROE higher than 20%, a capital base and a leading global position in terms of social impact.

In particular, the Offer represents a market transaction aimed at realising the potential of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group by achieving the following industrial and financial targets:

(i) consolidation of its position in Italy and abroad:

taking on an even more prominent role in the banking sector in Italy and abroad across all business lines, creating the second-largest listed banking group in the Eurozone by market capitalisation (customer financial assets on a proforma basis as of 31 December 2025 are equal to over €1,700 billion, expected to increase to approximately €2,000 billion by 2029) with a resilient business model (operating income is equal to approximately €33 billion on a proforma basis as of 31 December 2025).

According to the Offeror, the MPS assets intended to be retained in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, including MB, shall contribute to strengthening and consolidating a pan-European group, firmly rooted in Italy, with the scale, expertise and investment capacity to compete with the continent's leading players.

In particular, the approximately 625 branches of MPS that will be retained by ISP are expected to strengthen the presence in areas that currently are relatively underserved and to enable it to extend to households, SMEs and entrepreneurs, in particular in the territories with a stronger international focus, the full range of services, specialist expertise and investment capacity of ISP, with a related commitment to increase loan disbursements across the territories; MB will be part of a large-scale and highly complementary platform, capable of enhancing expertise, brand value and human capital, whilst strengthening its international presence and increasing its capacity for technological investment.

(ii) robust profit generation:

achieving a run-rate consolidated net profit exceeding €16 billion in 2029 (an increase of €+4.5 billion compared with the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's current 2029 target) and a Return on Equity exceeding 20% in line with the current Return on Equity by 2029 envisaged in the 2026-2029 Business Plan (22%);

(iii) high and sustainable value creation and distribution:

ensuring a high and sustainable distribution to shareholders of Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS, both through high levels of cash dividends that are sustainable over time and through share buy-back transactions, offering a higher return compared with stand-alone scenarios, also reflecting the revenue and cost synergies, estimated at approximately €2.9 billion before tax per year, an amount already including the synergies deriving from the integration of MB into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group (regardless of the different methods in which such integration may take place) and expected to be achieved, once fully implemented, from 2029 onwards.

The transaction is expected to increase Intesa Sanpaolo's earnings per share (EPS), dividend per share (DPS) and total distribution per share (including share buy-back) by approximately 8%[16] by 2029; the total distribution for the period 2025–2029 is expected to amount to approximately €61 billion (subject to the approvals of the ECB and the shareholders and based on the achievement of the net accounting profit targets), representing an increase of approximately €11 billion compared with the approximately €50 billion under the 2026–2029 Business Plan, confirming the ordinary distribution policy (75% cash dividend payout ratio and 20% share buy-back)[17] and €2.7 billion in extraordinary cash distributions for the two-year period 2026–2027.

(iv) expanding and diversifying expertise and business areas:

further expanding and diversifying its expertise and business areas, consolidating its presence in Wealth Management, Corporate & Investment Banking and Consumer Finance, also on the basis of the distinctive expertise developed by the Issuer in these sectors, in synergy with the Offeror's activities;

(v) ability to promote and attract talent:

investing in people, recognising their abilities and merit, offering wide opportunities for professional growth within a leading organisation in Italy and Europe, with the overall target of approximately 13,100 new hires of young people (of whom approximately 2,700 will be Global Advisors to strengthen the commercial and advisory capacity of the entity resulting from the integration) by 2029, along with the expected generational turnover resulting from the entirely voluntary departure, with no social impact, of approximately 6,800 people from the organisation resulting from the integration of the MPS Group into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group (of whom approximately 5,000 people relate to the Intesa Sanpaolo scope, in addition to those set forth in the 2026–2029 Business Plan) in addition to MPS's natural staff turnover, this referring to the turnover dynamics of MPS's workforce linked to natural attrition and to any voluntary departures already provided for in MPS's corporate plans.

Therefore, no restructuring measures are envisaged that would result in any involuntary reduction in the workforce of the Issuer, its subsidiaries or the ISP Perimeter, nor are any unilateral substantial amendments to employment contracts envisaged that could have a direct negative impact on the MPS Group's overall workforce, or on the working and employment conditions of the relevant employees. At the same time, the Offeror deems that the integration shall allow the employees of the Issuer, of the ISP Perimeter and their respective subsidiaries to benefit from increased growth opportunities and professional development within a larger organisation, capable of promoting their skills, talents and professionalism. Therefore, the industrial synergies of the Transaction are not pursued through a net reduction of employment, but through generational turnover, investment in expertise and the enhancement of people's potential.

[16] Disclosed on the Announcement Date of the Offer.

[17] As to the Offeror's net accounting profit, the distribution of 75% in the form of cash dividends is subject to the approval of the Offeror's shareholders' meeting, and that of 20% through buyback – provided that the Offeror's CET1 ratio exceeds 12.5% and there are no options available to allocate capital to external growth initiatives with a higher ROI (return on investment) focused on Wealth Management – is subject to the approval of the ECB and the Offeror's shareholders' meeting.

As to work sites, the Offeror intends to preserve the value of the local presence and operational facilities of the entity resulting from the integration. The Offeror plans to implement concrete measures to enhance the Issuer's local presence within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's new structure, through:

- the creation in Siena of a technology hub specialising in the end-to-end management of specific business applications, enhancing the local university ecosystem and promoting the creation of new qualified jobs;
- the consideration of a new Sales Department in Tuscany, also in light of the expansion of the regional presence resulting from the transaction;
- the attribution to Siena of a secondary office for ISP's central functions, performing highly specialised governance functions;
- the increase of lending issued in the territory.

The preservation of Siena should therefore be seen not merely as a repository of the history and identity of MPS, but also as an opportunity to provide the city with a genuine and sustainable industrial role within the new framework, bringing benefits to the real economy of the city and its province, as well as to its university and research sector.

At the same time, the NewBank Perimeter is functional to preserving the MPS brand, the network of branches of the NewBank Perimeter, the registered office of MPS, the central functions of MPS, and the systems and expertise necessary to build an independent bank. In particular, as disclosed to the market by the Unipol Group, the combination with BPER Banca S.p.A. would result in a new player with more than 2,600 branches under the MPS brand, against the current 1,260 branches: MPS would more than double its network, complementing the bank's expertise with that of Unipol in bancassurance and that of Arca in the asset management and insurance activities, while retaining its brand and identity.

The same principle of maintaining employment levels described above shall be adopted in the integration that will give rise to the banking group headed by Unipol, aimed at combining business growth with employment protection, whilst also retaining the headquarters hub in Siena for all operations for Central and Southern Italy[18].

Therefore, the transactions that may derive from the Offer, within the strategic aim of strengthening the Italian banking system, do not result in any resizing of MPS: conversely, they lay the foundations for making it the centrepiece of a leading banking group, on a significantly larger scale than at present, with proprietary product factories.

In any event, any measures to streamline the distribution network and operational structures will be assessed as part of the organisational integration process following the completion of the Offer, taking into account the need for operational efficiency, economic sustainability and continuity of service for the benefit of customers;

(vi) wider adoption of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's technological assets:

further capitalising on the investments already made by the Intesa Sanpaolo Group in the IT sector, also with reference to cloud computing and artificial intelligence, through the application of the same on a larger scale and across a broader scope of operations, as well as the application of the Offeror's best practices and the enhancement of the complementary strengths of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group.

The completion of the Offer would facilitate the creation of one of Europe's leading financial players enabling it to further strengthen support for the real and social economy with a distinctive value proposition in the Wealth Management & Protection sector and would enable it to accelerate the achievement of the targets set out by the Offeror in the 2026-2029 Business Plan, enhancing the creation and distribution of value, without social costs, to the benefit of all stakeholders of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group. In particular, the proposed transaction would result in:

a) a major player in wealth management in Europe and Italy, with client financial assets amounting to approximately €1,700 billion on a proforma basis as of 31 December 2025 (of which approximately €988 billion in indirect funding, including approximately €649 billion in assets under management), with a growth target of up to approximately €2,000 billion by 2029; a figure that confirms its leading position in the Italian and European markets. In this context, the combination of the Offeror's Private Banking operations and its product development capabilities in the insurance and asset management segments, on the one hand, and the Issuer's Private Banking and Asset Gathering activities, on the other, would create significant potential for synergies, thanks to a combined network of over 9,000 private bankers and financial advisors (compared with the stand-alone target of 7,500), whilst also leveraging MB's extensive expertise in serving entrepreneurs and "High Net Worth" clients;

b) a major player on a European scale in Corporate & Investment Banking, thanks to the integration of the expertise of the Offeror's IMI CIB division and that of MB, which holds leading positions in the M&A segments (i.e. second in Italy by transaction value; source: Dealogic 2025) and which brings approximately 500 bankers, of whom approximately 250 are already operating in Europe through offices in London, Paris, Frankfurt, Madrid and Luxembourg, with a combined annual revenue base of approximately €5.9 billion as early as 2025 (compared with the stand-alone 2029 target of €5.6 billion);

c) a leading player in Retail & Commercial Banking in the Italian market, consolidating a key role in supporting households and businesses, with a total network of approximately 3,000 branches and a significant presence in the regions with the highest economic potential (Lombardy, Veneto, Emilia-Romagna, Tuscany) and in the territories with a stronger international focus;

d) the leading player in consumer credit in Italy, thanks to the complementarity between Isybank's digital platform (young and digitally savvy customer base), Prestitalia S.p.A.'s offering (a subsidiary of the Offeror) and Compass's distribution network and expertise (a subsidiary of MB), with a comprehensive and integrated product range spanning product development and distribution channels, whilst maintaining robust risk management.

Following the completion of the Offer, it is envisaged that the combined entity will have access to:

a) approximately 20 million customers in Italy (over 27 million in total, representing an increase of approximately 6 million compared with the Offeror's current customer base), who will be able to benefit from the wide range of products and services that the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the MPS Group already distribute to their respective customers, either directly or through their subsidiaries;

b) an international network (with a presence in the world's major financial centres) specialising in supporting corporate clients in 24 countries, with the potential to enhance the offering to clients thanks to the MPS Group's expertise in investment banking.

The contribution of the client base and the resulting balance sheet aggregates will be such as to consolidate the Offeror's position in Italy and in key foreign markets, with a comprehensive, integrated and very high-quality range of financial services, thanks to the long-standing experience and the strength of the Issuer's and the Offeror's brands in their respective fields. The integration of the MPS Group with the Intesa Sanpaolo Group – which is functional to the pursuit of the strategic and industrial targets of the Offer and, as such, necessarily assumes the attainment of a specific shareholding threshold (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror – may thus enable the Issuer's full potential to be achieved, generating significant value creation for the benefit of shareholders, customers and all stakeholders, thanks to:

a) synergies, without social costs, estimated at approximately €2.9 billion per year (amount already including the synergies deriving from the integration between MB and the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, regardless of the different methods in which such integration may take place), of which approximately €1.5 billion of cost synergies and approximately €1.4 billion of revenue synergies (pre-tax, per year), net of €0.1 billion in dis-synergies linked to overlapping customer relationships, particularly in the corporate segment. The Offeror expects to realise the full potential of these synergies by 2029;

b) strengthening of a leading group in terms of social impact, a driver of sustainable and inclusive growth, which promotes local communities and supports customers in the transition to sustainability;

c) an enhanced ability to attract new talent, with a strong commitment to supporting the growth of the core business through new hires, which will effectively offset the voluntary departures envisaged by the Offeror, thereby facilitating generational renewal within the new group without any social impact. With specific reference to MB's professionals in Corporate & Investment Banking and Wealth Management, the Offeror believes that the combined platform represents the most attractive career proposition available on the market, reducing the risk of talent drain;

d) maintenance of a capital base even following the transaction (expected CET 1 ratio equal to approximately 14% in 2029, even without taking into account the benefits of recognising the Issuer's Deferred Tax Assets, or DTAs and MREL TREA expected by 2029 equal to 39.5%[19]), with potential for further distributions to shareholders.

Simulating the capital effects of the transaction, as if the Offer had taken effect on 31 December 2025 and considering the acquisition of minority interests of MB on a cash basis, from a prudential perspective, the following are calculated[20]:

[19] For mere explanatory purposes, in the event of acceptance of the Offer to an extent that the Offeror comes to hold a shareholding, together with the Issuer's Shares that would be owned, directly or indirectly by the Offeror, equal to 66.67% of MPS share capital, thereby triggering the Threshold Condition, the expected CET1 Ratio by 2029 would be equal to 13.1%, while MREL TREA would be equal to 36.7%. It is pointed out that this scenario at 2029 is to be understood as merely explanatory since, upon achieving the Threshold Condition, the Offeror intends to proceed, as soon as feasible, with the Delisting, if necessary, through the Merger for Delisting.

[20] It is pointed out that, for prudential purposes, the simulations: (i) assume a scenario in which, prior to the end of the acceptance period of the Offer (subject to any extension and Reopening of the Acceptance Period), the MB Merger has not been completed; and (ii) are calculated on the basis of the perimeter expected to remain in accordance with the Unipol Agreement, it being noted that this perimeter, having been identified on the basis of rough estimates and publicly available information relating to MPS, is subject to possible changes.

- A CET 1 Ratio of 13.8% in the event of full acceptance of the Offer – i.e, if all the Shares Subject to the Offer are tendered in acceptance of the Offer (or otherwise acquired by Intesa Sanpaolo as a result of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, possibly also as part of the Joint Procedure);
- A CET 1 Ratio of 13.1% in the event of acceptance of the Offer to an extent that enables Intesa Sanpaolo to hold a shareholding, together with the Issuer's shares held, directly and/or indirectly, by the Offeror, amounting to 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital, thereby fulfilling the relevant condition for the Offer to take effect (i.e. the Threshold Condition)[21];
- MREL TREA Total[22] equal to 36.4%, in the event of full acceptance of the Offer, i.e., if all the Shares Subject to the Offer are tendered in acceptance thereof (or in any event acquired by Intesa Sanpaolo as a result of the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, possibly also within the framework of the Joint Procedure);
- MREL TREA Total equal to 32.4%, in the event of acceptance of the Offer to an extent that would enable Intesa Sanpaolo to hold, together with the Issuer's Shares that are held, directly and/or indirectly, by the Offeror, a shareholding equal to 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital, thereby triggering the Threshold Condition[23].

It is pointed out that the above indicators have been calculated on the assumption that MB's minority interests would be repurchased for cash, assuming that the MB Merger does not take place.

It is pointed out that, even taking into account the failure of the MPS Shareholders' Meeting to approve the MB Merger, compliance with the MREL requirements applicable to the Intesa Sanpaolo Group following the Transaction is ensured without the need to take any specific action to that end.

With a view to accelerating the achievement of the aforementioned business targets, the Offeror intends to proceed, as soon as possible, with the Delisting of the Issuer's Shares, if necessary, through a merger between the Issuer and the Offeror, taking into account also the addressing of the competition law aspects referred to below.

It is recalled that, considering the fact that the MB Merger has not been approved by the MPS Shareholders' Meeting and thus it will not become effective prior to the Payment Date of the Offer (or the Payment Date After the Reopening of the Acceptance Period), the Offeror – in the event that the Offer is completed - will launch the Cascade Offer.

Furthermore, it is pointed out that in the event of successful completion of the Offer, the Offeror, having assessed the terms and conditions of the partnership agreements between MPS and AXA S.A. – operating through AXA MPS Assicurazioni Vita S.p.A. and AXA MPS Assicurazioni Danni S.p.A. – will carry out the most appropriate transactions in order to terminate such partnership and the consequent integration of the two companies into the insurance perimeters of the ISP Group (all this, subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations). With reference to AG, it is the intention of the Offeror to preserve the indirect shareholding held by the Issuer in AG in line with MB's current accounting treatment by applying the equity method, as a non-controlling equity investment without influence in AG's governance, limiting itself to appointing a minority of members of the Board of Directors of AG

[21] This scenario is presented for explanatory purposes only, as the Offeror - in order to accelerate the achievement of the industrial targets - intends to proceed with the Delisting as soon as possible, if necessary, through the Merger for Delisting.
[22] This refers to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities pursuant to articles 45 et seq. of the EU Directive No. 59/2014 (BRRD), as amended by the EU Directive No. 879/2019 (BRRD II), and the relevant national implementing provisions, as well as the decisions of the competent resolution authority.
[23] This scenario is presented for explanatory purposes only, as the Offeror – in order to accelerate the achievement of the industrial targets - intends to proceed with the Delisting as soon as possible, if necessary, through the Merger for Delisting.

(excluding the Chief Executive Officer and the Chair) who are independent pursuant to the AG's by-laws, who do not hold executive powers and who do not serve as directors on the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's management bodies, nor are they employees of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group. The value of such non-controlling shareholding that, following the completion of the Offer, will be transferred, through intercompany transfer, from MB to Intesa Sanpaolo Assicurazioni S.p.A., will benefit from the prudential regime of the so-called "Danish Compromise" (consistently with the prudential scenario underlying the ECB authorisation of 27 October 2026), considering that the Intesa Sanpaolo Group is already qualified as a financial conglomerate. It is pointed out that no further authorisation is required to benefit from the so-called "Danish Compromise" in relation to the above.

Finally, it is pointed out that neither the Offeror nor – according to the relevant financial statements – MPS holds Deferred Tax Assets ("DTAs") relating to tax losses not recognised in the financial statements (so-called "off-balance-sheet DTAs"). Therefore, the integration of MPS into the Offeror will not result in the recognition of any additional DTAs on tax losses beyond those already recognised in the financial statements of the Offeror and MPS. For regulatory capital purposes, exclusively on a prudential basis, no benefit has been envisaged from the recognition of the former MPS DTAs, without prejudice to the possibility of actually using DTAs if the relevant conditions are met.

G.2.2.2 Synergies arising from the Issuer's strategic and industrial targets within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group following the completion of the Offer

Should the Offeror come to hold a shareholding equal to at least 66.67% of MPS's share capital or lower than 66.67% of MPS's share capital, provided that a certain shareholding threshold is achieved (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the merger by incorporation of MPS into the Offeror, within the terms under Section G, Paragraph G.2.2. of the Offer Document, the cost and revenue synergies expected to result from the completion of the integration of the MPS Group into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group are estimated, once fully implemented, to amount to approximately €2.9 billion before tax per year (amount already including the synergies deriving from the integration of MB into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, regardless of the different methods in which such integration may take place), of which approximately €1.4 billion before tax relates to revenue synergies (net of an expected revenue attrition of approximately €0.1 billion) and approximately €1.5 billion before tax, once fully implemented, relates to cost synergies[24]. These amounts respectively represent approximately 4% of the 2025 proforma revenues of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group resulting from the Offer net of the NewBank Perimeter and approximately 10% of the 2025 proforma costs of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group resulting from the Offer net of the NewBank Perimeter. The full potential of the synergies is expected to be achieved by 2029 (approximately 60% in 2028).

As to revenue synergies, these are expected to derive mainly from fully achieving the potential of the acquired customer base through the gradual alignment of the relevant commercial productivity with the levels of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, with particular reference to the increase in the penetration of Wealth Management and Protection products – currently significantly lower than ISP levels (AuM/indirect funding of 68% for the Offeror compared with 57% for the Issuer), through the implementation of the Offeror's service model (Retail, Affluent, Exclusive, Private segmentation) – and the extension of the offering of the Offeror's wholly-owned product factories on the Date of the Offer Document (including Eurizon Capital SGR, Fideuram – Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking, Intesa

[24] The aforementioned estimate of the synergies is calculated on the basis of the perimeter resulting from the execution of the Unipol Agreement, without calculating the MPS-MB synergies set out in the MPS Business Plan.

Sanpaolo Assicurazioni, Intesa Sanpaolo Protezione) to the new client base, together with the development of cross-selling via the Global Advisors platform.

Further revenue synergies are expected to arise from the full complementarity within Corporate & Investment Banking, through cross-referrals between the Issuer's corporate clients (primarily mid-cap) and the advisory and origination capabilities of MB and IMI CIB, the exploitation of Wealth Management/CIB synergies in serving high-net-worth clients - particularly in relation to liquidity events, generational transitions and extraordinary transactions - and the expansion of international coverage thanks to the Offeror's and MB's networks.

In addition, there are synergies that are expected to arise from complementarity in consumer credit, through the integration of the product offering and distribution channels of Isybank (young, digital clients) and Compass Banca S.p.A. (physical network, expertise in consumer credit products), as well as the overall improvement of the range of products and services thanks to ISYTECH, the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's cloud-native technology platform, and the investments in digital, AI and innovation already made by the Offeror.

Revenue dis-synergies are estimated at approximately €0.1 billion before tax per annum, once fully implemented (2029), and mainly reflect the expected loss of revenue arising from overlapping commercial relationships, in cases where MPS, MB and ISP serve the same customers – particularly in the corporate segment – through separate banking relationships.

It is pointed out that the estimates of revenue synergies are based on the conservative assumption of a stable Euribor of approximately 1.95%, consistent with the interest rate scenario underlying the 2026-2029 Business Plan, against a backdrop of market forward rates at the date of the plan rising from 2.3% to 2.7% over the period 2027–2029. Interest rate differentials with respect to this assumption represent a further upside factor not reflected in the estimates.

As to cost synergies, however, these are based on the centralised management of operating expenses, a characteristic of the Offeror.

More specifically, the synergies on personnel expenses (estimated at approximately €0.6 billion before tax once fully implemented) are expected to result from the generational turnover deriving from the entirely voluntary departure – with no social impact – of approximately 6,800 people from the entity resulting from the integration of the MPS Group into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group (of which approximately 5,000 persons relate to the Intesa Sanpaolo perimeter, in addition to those set forth in the 2026–2029 Business Plan) in addition to MPS's natural staff turnover, this referring to the turnover dynamics of MPS's workforce linked to natural attrition and to any voluntary departures already provided for in MPS's corporate plans, at the same time as the recruitment of approximately 6,800 new staff (on a 1:1 basis, of whom approximately 2,700 are Global Advisors to strengthen the commercial and advisory capacity of the entity resulting from the integration).

As to synergies on administrative expenses and depreciation and amortisation (estimated at approximately €0.9 billion before tax, once fully implemented), the Offeror expects to achieve these through the integration and rationalisation of central functions, product factories and distribution networks, as well as the implementation of the ISYTECH cloud-native platform, the adoption of the Offeror's best practices in proactive cost management and the increased scale of the entity resulting from the integration.

The estimate of the above synergies is calculated on the basis of the perimeter that will remain following the execution of the Unipol Agreement, excluding the MPS-MB synergies reported in the MPS Business Plan.

One-off integration costs are estimated at approximately €2.1 billion before tax (approximately €1.4 billion after tax). These costs include expenditure relating to generational transition, the integration of IT systems, the network rationalisation and rebranding activities.

In the event that acceptance of the Offer is sufficient to enable the Offeror to hold, together with any Issuer's Shares held, directly or indirectly, by the Offeror, a shareholding equal to 66.67% of MPS's share capital, thereby triggering the Threshold Condition, the synergies described above are confirmed since the Offeror intends to proceed, as soon as possible, with the Delisting, which, should the Offeror come to hold a shareholding lower than 90%, but at least equal to 66.67%, will be implemented through the Merger for Delisting as the Offeror shall have the absolute majority in the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

For the sake of completeness, it is pointed out that the above synergies are confirmed, also in the event that the Offeror, following the Offer, comes to hold a shareholding in the Issuer's share capital lower than 66.67% (and, thus, the Threshold Condition is amended or waived by the Offeror), provided that a certain shareholding threshold is achieved (at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint the majority of the Issuer's directors and to proceed also with the Merger for Delisting since the same is functional to the achievement of the aforementioned synergies (without prejudice to the fact that the Offeror, on the Date of the Offer Document, has not adopted any decision in relation to the resolution of the Merger for Delisting).

Considerations on the 2026–2029 Business Plan

The 2026–2029 Business Plan would remain valid in terms of its strategic direction and defined targets even in the event that the Offer is not completed. With the 2026–2029 Business Plan, the Offeror reaffirms its position as a solid, "zero NPL" and digital group, with a business model focused on fee-based income that is efficient and resilient, capable of generating and distributing significant value without execution risk, and a leader in terms of social impact. For further details, the 2026–2029 Business Plan is available on the Offeror's website (group.intesasanpaolo.com, Investor Relations section).

***

The Offeror considers that the synergies resulting from the integration of MPS into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group can be achieved to the same extent even if the resolution on the Merger for Delisting is not adopted immediately following the completion of the Offer, albeit with possible temporal variations in their implementation, it being understood, however, that it is still the Offeror's intention to implement the Merger for Delisting.

G.2.2.3 Unipol Agreement

In order to proactively manage competition law issues, on 8 June 2026, the Offeror entered into the Unipol Agreement, subsequently amended by the parties on 3 August 2026 in respect of certain matters relating to regulatory approvals, pursuant to which, inter alia, Unipol undertook to acquire, presumably by the end of 2027, (subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions precedent, among which: (i) the successful completion of the Offer; (ii) the appointment of a new board of directors of MPS, including a majority of directors selected from the list that will be submitted and voted on by Intesa Sanpaolo; (iii) the accession to the Unipol Agreement by MPS and, if necessary, by NewBank, as well as any other party – other than Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS – which may hold its entire share capital; (iv) the completion of the corporate and reorganisation transactions functional to procure that NewBank is the owner of NewBank Perimeter; (v) the completion of the Unipol share capital increase resolved by Unipol's board of directors on 7 October 2026 pursuant to the authorisation granted by the Unipol extraordinary shareholders' meeting on 30 July 2026 (the aforementioned execution of the share capital increase was announced by Unipol on 26 October 2026 in a press release available on the internet website of Unipol at unipol.com); (vi) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the Antitrust Clearance; (vii) the obtaining by Intesa Sanpaolo of the other Authorisations (as defined in the Unipol Agreement); (viii) the obtaining by Unipol of the antitrust clearance in relation to the NewBank Transaction; (ix) the obtaining by Unipol of the further authorisations required for the acquisition of the control of NewBank; and (x) the completion of the relevant trade union procedures, against a consideration not exceeding €3.5 billion, the entire share capital of NewBank, having the NewBank Perimeter which, subject to any replacements or adjustments, is expected to consist of a total of 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy) of the Issuer and the majority of the Issuer's central functions and activities necessary to operate as a bank independently (i.e. the "NewBank Transaction").

It is pointed out that, the Unipol Agreement provides that the NewBank Transaction may be completed even with the transfer only of those branches for which antitrust clearance has been granted. In this case, without prejudice to the integration mechanisms for the NewBank Perimeter (through other assets and liabilities, other than non-performing loans) provided for in the Unipol Agreement in order to ensure that, in any scenario, the relevant parameters relating to the NewBank Perimeter, including, inter alia, the net income target of the aforementioned NewBank Perimeter (ranging from €400 million to €460 million), are met, it being understood that the application of such mechanisms could adversely affect the strategic objectives of the Offer. It is pointed out that, with reference to the replacement of the branches of the NewBank Perimeter, should such branches be deemed not sufficient in the context of the assessment proceedings of the antitrust authority of the concentration transaction resulting from the Offer, the Offeror shall consider disposing such excess of branches also to operators other than Unipol.

It is then pointed out that, as Intesa Sanpaolo does not exercise control over MPS, Intesa Sanpaolo has not issued any full representations and warranties in favour of Unipol, nor has it assumed any general indemnity obligations in relation to the NewBank Perimeter; it being understood, however, that (i) the costs of winding up the current insurance joint ventures owned by MPS will be borne by Intesa Sanpaolo, whilst, as to the asset management contracts, the allocation of the related obligations, charges and liabilities will be based on a principle of economic risk allocation in line with the assets pertaining to the respective perimeters as of 31 December 2026, or, should the MB Merger (in civil law terms) have already become effective, then as of the date of MPS's latest individual balance sheet following 1 January 2026, approved prior to the effectiveness of the MB Merger (this last scenario is excluded since the MPS Shareholders' Meeting has not approved the MB Merger); (ii) the assets, liabilities and legal relationships of the MPS Group companies not included in the NewBank Perimeter shall be borne in full by the ISP Perimeter; and (iii) any further contingent assets, as well as liabilities not relating to MPS branches, which are undisclosed as of the date referred to in point (i) above and which arise before the third anniversary of the date of completion of the NewBank Transaction and provided that they actually entail a financial expenditure or other definitive financial loss (excluding loss of profit), shall be borne by (or accrue to, in the case of contingent assets) the ISP Perimeter and the NewBank Perimeter in equal shares of 50% each, without any duplication of coverage.

As a result of the completion of the Offer, Intesa Sanpaolo's acquisition of control of MPS and the NewBank Transaction – Intesa Sanpaolo will hold the ISP Perimeter, namely an aggregate set of assets, liabilities and legal relationships attributable to MPS, including employment relationships (subject to the envisaged generational turnover resulting from the entirely voluntary departure, with no social impact, of approximately 6,800 people from the entity resulting from the integration of the MPS Group into the Intesa Sanpaolo Group) other than those included in the NewBank Perimeter - and it will also acquire the 625 branches of the Issuer, the controlling shareholding in Widiba, all assets, liabilities and legal relationships relating to the Large Corporate & Investment Banking segment of MPS, all bancassurance relationships and the controlling shareholding in MB, which in turn holds, in addition to certain subsidiaries in Italy and abroad (among which MB Premier and Compass Banca S.p.A.), a financial non-controlling shareholding of 13.32% in AG. It is the intention of the Offeror to preserve the indirect shareholding held by the Issuer in AG in line with the current accounting treatment adopted by MB through the application of the equity method as a non-controlling equity investment and without interference in AG's governance, limiting itself to appointing a minority of members of the Board of Directors of AG (excluding the Chief Executive Officer and the Chair) who are independent pursuant to the AG's by-laws, who do not hold executive powers and who do not serve as directors on the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's management bodies, nor are they employees of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group. The value of such non-controlling shareholding that, following the completion of the Offer, will be transferred, through intercompany transfer, from MB to the Intesa Sanpaolo Assicurazioni S.p.A., will benefit from the prudential regime of the so-called "Danish Compromise" (consistently with the prudential scenario underlying the ECB authorisation of 27 October 2026), considering that Intesa Sanpaolo Group is already qualified as a financial conglomerate. It is pointed out that no further authorisation is required to benefit from the so-called "Danish Compromise" in relation to the above.

The characteristics of the NewBank Perimeter, as set out in the Unipol Agreement, are as follows:

- 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy);
- direct deposits totalling approximately €56 billion;
- net lending to customers of approximately €42 billion;
- net profit of between €400 million and €460 million;
- a CET 1 ratio of 16%;
- LCR, MREL and NSFR substantially in line with those of MPS (without limitation as of 30 June 2026 the MPS Group recorded an LCR equal to 169% and an NSFR equal to 122%; on the same date MREL-TREA and MREL-LRE, respectively, were equal to 29.1% and 10.8%);
- RWA of up to €20 billion;
- the Monte dei Paschi di Siena brand;
- approximately 2 million customers.

The following, however, will not form part of the NewBank Perimeter:

- assets and liabilities relating to Large Corporate and Investment Banking;
- MPS's main shareholdings;
- non-performing loans;
- the risk relating to existing litigation not pertaining to the branches of the NewBank Perimeter.

NewBank will retain or be provided with MPS's resources, operational and IT systems, and governance, management and control structures, all in continuity with MPS's operations; therefore, with the structures and systems as they currently exist and are organised within MPS for its own operation, including the relevant employment relationships.

For further information regarding the Unipol Agreement, please refer to the press releases issued by Intesa Sanpaolo and Unipol on 8 June 2026. For information regarding the capital increase to finance part of Unipol's acquisition of the NewBank Perimeter, please refer to the documentation relating to Unipol's extraordinary shareholders' meeting held on 30 July 2026 available on Unipol's internet website www.unipol.com (Governance / Shareholders' Meeting section).

Depending on the shareholding in the Issuer's share capital held by the Offeror following the outcome of the Offer, in order to implement the Unipol Agreement and, consequently, to arrange, inter alia, for the transfer of 100% of the share capital of NewBank, including the NewBank Perimeter, to Unipol, the following extraordinary transactions shall be carried out:

(i) should Intesa Sanpaolo – even following the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, if applicable, and possibly also within the framework of the Joint Procedure – come to hold 100% of the Issuer, and consequently the Delisting were to take place, NewBank will be identified as the Issuer itself and the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital will be carried out (i.e. the entire share capital of MPS will be transferred to Unipol, which will hold only the NewBank Perimeter, subject to the spin-off or, in any event, transfer to Intesa Sanpaolo, or possibly to other entities within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, of the ISP Perimeter);

(ii) in the event that, following the outcome of the Offer, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), the Offeror were to hold a shareholding lower than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror, subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations from the competent authorities and in compliance with the applicable corporate governance rules and procedures, shall transfer the NewBank Perimeter to NewBank (which may in this case be an existing or newly incorporated banking entity) following the completion of any Merger for Delisting (where so resolved);

(iii) should, in the scenario described in (ii), the Merger for Delisting not be executed for any reason whatsoever, Intesa Sanpaolo, having appointed a new Board of Directors composed of a majority of members appointed by it, shall act in order to implement the transfer of the NewBank Perimeter to the different banking entity identified as NewBank.

As of the date of the Offer Document, however, the Offeror has not yet taken any decision regarding the possible Merger for Delisting.

G.2.3. Effects related to the national and international macroeconomic context

(A) Trade protectionism

In a context characterised by a relative weakening of the global economic cycle and marked uncertainty arising from the evolution of geopolitical tensions, the return of certain countries to a protectionist trade stance could have adverse effects on global growth in the medium term. In particular, the introduction of new tariffs on foreign imports could trigger a "trade war" likely to have a negative impact on international trade. Such development could jeopardise the continuity of the global expansion cycle and the realignment of international commodity prices, whilst also contributing to increased volatility in currency and securities markets.

In light of the current circumstances and the targets being pursued, the Offeror considers that the aims of the Offer are not directly affected by the possible consequences arising from protectionist trade policies. The Offeror also considers that the impact of this risk on Intesa Sanpaolo and MPS is negligible, given the limited significance of the sectors most exposed to tariff-related risks, a circumstance which significantly mitigates potential vulnerability at the level of the overall portfolio.

Nevertheless, as of the Date of the Offer Document, given the uncertainties surrounding the development of the trade policies referred to above, repercussions on the economic, equity and/or financial position of the Offeror and/or the Issuer and/or the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and/or the MPS Group cannot be ruled out at this stage.

(B) Conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the European and international geopolitical landscape is heavily influenced, primarily, by the conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine. The resulting geopolitical crises are causing regional political and economic instability with global consequences, affecting financial markets, commodity prices and international trade relations.

The Intesa Sanpaolo Group considers that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Issuer's business and the reasons for the Offer are not affected by the current circumstances.

As to the Issuer's future management plans (as described in Section A, Paragraph A.1.1 and in Section G, Paragraph G.2, of the Offer Document), the Offeror, taking into account the current circumstances and those reasonably foreseeable as of the Date of the Offer Document, does not envisage any significant changes relating to the impact of the conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine.

However, in light of the uncertainties surrounding the development of the aforementioned conflicts, a possible escalation of political and military tensions, the potential financial crisis and/or economic recession that might result therefrom, as well as the possibility that the continuation of hostilities may have indirect effects on international economic and market conditions, as of the Date of the Offer Document, it cannot be ruled out that such developments may affect the economic, financial and/or capital position of the Offeror and/or the Issuer and/or their respective subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies.

G.2.4. Investments and future sources of funding

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror's Board of Directors has not taken any decision regarding investments of particular significance and/or beyond those generally required for the operational management of activities in the industrial sector in which the Issuer operates.

G.2.5. Transactions following the Offer

Depending on the shareholding in the Issuer's share capital held by the Offeror following the Offer – including for the purpose of implementing the Unipol Agreement and, therefore, arranging, inter alia, for the transfer of 100% of the share capital of NewBank, together with the NewBank Perimeter, to Unipol – the Offeror will implement the following extraordinary transactions.

G.2.5.1 Transfer of the NewBank's Entire Share Capital

Should Intesa Sanpaolo – including following the exercise of the Squeeze-Out, if applicable as part of the Joint Procedure – come to hold 100% of the Issuer, and should the Delisting consequently take place, the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital shall be carried out: the Offeror will therefore – following the spin-off or, in any event, the transfer to Intesa Sanpaolo, or possibly to other entities within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, of the ISP Perimeter – transfer the entire share capital of MPS to Unipol, which will retain only the NewBank Perimeter.

The characteristics of the NewBank Perimeter, as set out in the Unipol Agreement, are as follows:

- 635 branches (which are divided into 25% in Northern, 41% in Central and 34% in Southern Italy);
- direct deposits totalling approximately €56 billion;
- net lending to customers of approximately €42 billion;
- net profit of between €400 million and €460 million;
- a CET 1 ratio of 16%;
- LCR, MREL and NSFR substantially in line with those of MPS (without limitation as of 30 June 2026 the MPS Group has recorded an LCR equal to 169% and an NSFR equal to 122%; on the same date MREL-TREA and MREL-LRE, respectively, were equal to 29.1% and 10.8%);
- RWA of up to €20 billion;
- the Monte dei Paschi di Siena brand;
- approximately 2 million customers.

The following, however, will not form part of the NewBank Perimeter:

- assets and liabilities relating to Large Corporate and Investment Banking;
- MPS's main shareholdings;
- non-performing loans;
- the risk relating to existing litigation not pertaining to the branches of the NewBank Perimeter.

NewBank will retain or be provided with MPS's resources, operational and IT systems, and governance, management and control structures, all in continuity with MPS's operations; therefore, with the structures and systems as they currently exist and are organised within MPS for its own operation, including the relevant employment relationships.

G.2.5.2 Merger for Delisting

Should, following the outcome of the Offer, as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement), the Offeror hold a shareholding lower than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror, subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations from the competent authorities and in compliance with the applicable corporate governance rules and procedures, shall transfer the NewBank Perimeter to NewBank (which may in this case be an existing or newly incorporated banking entity) following the completion of any Merger for Delisting (where so resolved).

It is pointed out that should the Threshold Condition be found to have been met, this would enable the Offeror to hold an absolute majority at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of MPS and thus to resolve on the Merger for Delisting; in any event, even if the Threshold Condition is waived, the Offeror may hold a shareholding in the Issuer's share capital lower than 66.67% (provided that it is at least equal to the percentage of the Minimum Threshold), such as, thus, to enable the Offeror to appoint a majority of the Issuer's directors and to implement also the Merger for Delisting (it being understood that, as of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not taken any decision regarding the resolution on the Merger for Delisting).

As of the Date of the Offer Document, however, the Offeror has not yet taken any decision regarding the possible Merger for Delisting, even though this would constitute (should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, come to hold less than 90% of the Issuer's share capital) a target of the Offer consistent with the reasons for the Offer.

Should it be approved, the aforementioned Merger for Delisting will take place on the basis of an exchange ratio determined in accordance with article 2501-ter of the Civil Code, using, as is standard practice, consistent methods and assumptions in the valuation of the companies concerned, and therefore no premium will be payable to the minority shareholders of the company being merged by incorporation. It is also pointed out that any MPS shareholder who has not accepted the Offer may find that the price of their share does not include the premium implicitly granted under the Offer to Tendering Shareholders.

Should the Offeror decide to proceed with the Merger for Delisting, shareholders of the Issuer who have not accepted the Offer and who have not taken part in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting shall under no circumstances be entitled to a right of withdrawal pursuant to article 2437-quinquies of the Civil Code, as, upon completion of the Merger for Delisting, the Issuer's shareholders would receive, in exchange, ordinary shares in Intesa Sanpaolo that are listed on Euronext Milan.

Furthermore, as to the other cases of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code, it is clarified that the Offeror envisages that the possible Merger for Delisting is implemented in such a manner as to prevent the right of withdrawal under article 2437 of the Civil Code from arising in respect of the Issuer's shareholders who have not accepted the Offer and have not participated in the resolution approving the Merger for Delisting.

It is specified that, should the Merger for Delisting take place, the scope of the ISP Perimeter and the scope of the NewBank Perimeter – which, pursuant to the Unipol Agreement, will become part of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and the Unipol Group respectively – will be the same as they would be in the event of a Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital.

Therefore, based on the estimates as of the Announcement Date made by Intesa Sanpaolo and Unipol using the Issuer's publicly available data, it is expected that, even following the Merger for Delisting, subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations, the ISP Perimeter will become part of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, and only the NewBank Perimeter will be spun off into NewBank (which in this case will be an existing or newly incorporated banking entity), the entire share capital of which will be transferred to Unipol.

G.2.5.3 Other transactions

In any event, if for any reason the Merger for Delisting is not executed, Intesa Sanpaolo, having appointed a new Board of Directors composed of a majority of members appointed by it, will act in order to proceed with the transfer of the NewBank Perimeter to the separate banking entity identified as NewBank.

Should the Offer be completed, including following the Delisting of the Issuer's Shares, the Offeror does not rule out the possibility of considering, in the future, the opportunity to carry out any extraordinary transactions in addition to the Transfer of the Issuer's Entire Share Capital and the Merger for Delisting and/or corporate and business reorganisation, in line with the targets and rationale of the transaction, which will be deemed appropriate also for the purpose of ensuring the integration of the Offeror's and the Issuer's businesses.

In any event, as of the Date of the Offer Document, no decisions have been taken by the relevant corporate bodies regarding any further extraordinary transactions.

G.2.6. Planned changes to the composition of corporate bodies and their remuneration

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not yet taken any decision regarding proposals concerning the composition of the management (and control) bodies of MPS and the companies of the MPS Group.

G.2.7. Amendments to the by-laws

As of the Date of the Offer Document, the Offeror has not identified any specific amendments or changes to be made to the current text of the Issuer's by-laws, with the exception of: (i) amendments resulting from the Issuer's inclusion in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group following the completion of the Offer in accordance with applicable legislation (and, in particular, the provisions set out in Part I, Title I, Chapter 2, Section IV, paragraph 2 of Bank of Italy Circular No. 285 of 17 December 2013), as well as (ii) amendments that may become necessary following the possible Delisting of the Issuer's Shares in order to comply with the requirements of by-laws of an unlisted company. However, the Issuer's by-laws would no longer apply in the event of the Merger for Delisting being executed.

G.3 Reconstitution of the free float

The Offeror intends to achieve the Delisting.

In the event that, following the outcome of the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and of any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding of at least 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention to exercise the Squeeze-Out.

Should the Offeror, upon completion of the Offer, come to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding exceeding 90%, but less than 95%, of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror, not wishing to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly conduct of trading, will initiate the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

Should the Offeror, following the outcome of the Offer, come to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, and purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – a total shareholding equal to or exceeding 95% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror shall initiate the Joint Procedure for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out and the fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

The Squeeze-Out will be exercised as soon as possible following the completion of the Offer, in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed with CONSOB and Borsa Italiana.

For the purposes of calculating the thresholds referred to in article 108, paragraph 1, or 2 and article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, the Issuer's Treasury Shares shall be included in the total shareholding held by the Offeror (numerator) without being deducted from the Issuer's share capital (denominator). In this case, holders of Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer shall be required to transfer ownership of the Shares Subject to the Offer they hold to the Offeror and, as a result, shall receive, for each transferred Share Subject to the Offer, a consideration determined in accordance with article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as referred to in article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, as well as the provisions set out in articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation, as referred to in article 50-quater of the Issuers' Regulation. Specifically:

(i) if the Offeror has acquired at least 90% of the voting share capital included in the Offer itself and such shareholding has been achieved exclusively as a result of the Offer, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be identical to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and article 50 of the Issuers' Regulation;

(ii) if, excluding the case referred to in point (i) above, the Offeror has acquired at least 50% of the Shares Subject to the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation), the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired following the Joint Procedure shall be determined by CONSOB as equal to the Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 4, letter c) and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation;

(iii) in all other cases, the consideration for the Shares Subject to the Offer acquired pursuant to the Joint Procedure shall be determined in the amount determined by CONSOB in accordance with the provisions of article 108, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, article 50, paragraph 5 and article 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

The Offeror specifies that, for the purposes of fulfilling the purchase obligation pursuant to article 108 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, no cash consideration will be provided in lieu of consideration in kind (the so-called "cash alternative"), as the Offeror's securities are traded on a regulated market within the European Union.

The Offeror shall specify, in the Notification of the Final Results of the Offer (or, in the event of a Reopening of the Acceptance Period, in the Notification of the Final Results of the Reopening of the Acceptance Period), whether the conditions for exercising the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance have been met and, where such conditions are met, for the simultaneous fulfilment of the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be) as part of the Joint Procedure. In this case, the notification shall contain information regarding: (i) the number of Shares remaining subject to the Offer (both in absolute terms and as a percentage of the Issuer's entire share capital); (ii) the manner and timing by which the Offeror will exercise the Squeeze-Out and, in the case of a Joint Procedure, will simultaneously fulfil the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Law on Finance or the Compulsory Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 108, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Law on Finance (as the case may be); and (iii) the procedures and timing for the Delisting (if applicable).

Pursuant to article 2.5.1, paragraph 6 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, upon fulfilment of the conditions for the Squeeze-Out pursuant to article 111 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, Borsa Italiana shall order the suspension of trading in the Shares and/or their Delisting, taking into account the timing provided for the exercise of the Squeeze-Out.

In the event that the Offer is completed (because the Conditions of Effectiveness have been fulfilled, or, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold, have been waived by the Offeror), and, following the outcome of the Offer, the Offeror comes to hold – as a result of acceptances of the Offer during the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or during any Reopening of the Acceptance Period and/or any purchases of Shares Subject to the Offer made by the Offeror outside the Offer itself in accordance with applicable legislation (including those made through the Private Placement) – an aggregate shareholding lower than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, there may nevertheless be a shortage of free float such as to prevent the smooth trading of the Shares – also having regard to the possible presence amongst the Issuer's shareholders of shareholders holding significant shareholdings in accordance with applicable regulations. In this case, Borsa Italiana may order the suspension of trading in the Shares and/or Delisting pursuant to article 2.5.1 of the Stock Exchange Regulations, unless the Offeror decides to restore a free float sufficient to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares.

In this regard, it is pointed out that, even in the event of an insufficient free float, the Offeror does not intend to implement measures aimed at restoring the minimum free float requirements necessary to ensure the orderly trading of the Shares, as there is no obligation in this regard under applicable legislation.

In the event of Delisting, it is pointed out that holders of the Shares Subject to the Offer who have not accepted the Offer will hold financial instruments not traded on any regulated market, with consequent difficulties in realising their investment in the future.

H. ANY AGREEMENTS AND TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN THE OFFEROR AND THE ISSUER OR ITS RELEVANT SHAREHOLDERS OR MEMBERS OF THE ISSUER'S MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL BODIES

H.1 Financial and/or commercial agreements and transactions that have been executed or resolved upon between the aforementioned parties in the twelve months preceding the publication of the Offer, which may have or have had a significant impact on the business of the Offeror and/or the Issuer

In the twelve months preceding the Date of the Offer Document, no financial or commercial agreements or transactions were entered into (nor executed or approved) between the Offeror and the Issuer (or its relevant shareholders or members of its management and control bodies) which may have or have had a significant impact on the activities of the Offeror and/or the Issuer.

H.1.1. Other transactions

As of the Date of the Offer Document, subject to the provisions set out in Section G, Paragraph G.2.2.3, no decisions have been taken by the Offeror's competent bodies regarding any extraordinary transactions and/or corporate reorganisation.

In the event that the Offer is completed (and therefore even if the Offeror were to waive the Threshold Condition, without prejudice to the Minimum Threshold), including following the Delisting, the Offeror does not rule out the possibility of considering, in the future, the adequacy of implementing any extraordinary transactions and/or corporate and business reorganisations, in line with the targets and rationale of the transaction, which will be deemed appropriate also for the purpose of ensuring the integration of the Offeror's and the Issuer's activities.

H.2 Agreements concerning the exercise of voting rights or the transfer of shares and/or other financial instruments of the Issuer

On 4 October 2026, the Delfin Letter of Undertaking was executed between Delfin and the Offeror. For further information on the Delfin Letter of Undertaking, please refer to the Introduction and Section A, Paragraph A.18 of the Offer Document and to the essential information and the extract published, pursuant to and for the purposes of article 122 of the Consolidated Law on Finance and articles 129 and 130 of the Issuers' Regulation, on the internet website of the Offeror (group.intesasanpaolo.com) and attached to the Offer Document under Appendix M.2.

There are no agreements between the Offeror and the Issuer or the Issuer's shareholders, directors or statutory auditors regarding the exercise of voting rights or the transfer of the Issuer's ordinary shares, without prejudice to the provisions of the security agreements relating to the Issuer's Shares in favour of the companies of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, as set out in Section D, Paragraph D.2.

I. FEES PAYABLE TO INTERMEDIARIES

As remuneration for the services performed in connection with the collection of acceptances of the Offer, the Offeror shall pay to the individual Appointed Intermediaries:

(a) a fee amounting to 0.20% (the "Basic Fee") of the value of the Shares Subject to the Offer purchased directly through them and/or indirectly through the depositary intermediaries that delivered such shares to them ("Depositary Intermediaries");

(b) an additional fee amounting to 0.15% (the "Additional Fee") of the value of the Shares Subject to the Offer purchased directly through them and/or indirectly through the Depositary Intermediaries that have delivered such shares to them, provided that, at the end of the Acceptance Period (as may be extended in accordance with applicable legislation) and/or any Reopening of the Acceptance Period, Intesa Sanpaolo holds a shareholding of at least 66.67% of the Issuer's share capital; and

(c) a fixed fee amounting to €5.00 (five euro) for each duly completed, valid and submitted Acceptance Form (the "Fixed Fee").

The Appointed Intermediaries shall, in turn, pay the Depositary Intermediaries 50% of the fee received in respect of the value of the Shares Subject to the Offer purchased through the Depositary Intermediaries pursuant to letters (a) and (b) above, as well as the full Fixed Fee in respect of the Acceptance Forms received in accordance with point (c) above.

It is understood that:

- the fees referred to in points (a), (b) and (c) above shall be paid subject to the effectiveness of the Offer and upon conclusion of the same;
- the sum of the Basic Fee and the Additional Fee shall not exceed the amount of €10,000.00 (ten thousand euro) for each Acceptance Form;
- the fees referred to in points (a) and (b) above shall be calculated on the basis of the Consideration valuing the Share Consideration on the basis of the official price of the Offeror's Shares on the last Trading Day prior to the Date of the Offer Document;
- in the event of any Squeeze-Out (even in the context of the Joint Procedure) the Basic Fee, the Additional Fee and the Fixed Fee under points (a), (b) and (c) above shall not be paid in respect of the Shares Subject to the Offer subject to the Squeeze-Out (also in the context of the Joint Procedure).

VAT, as applicable, shall be added to the aforementioned payments. Tendering Shareholders shall not be charged of any cost.

L. ALLOTMENT SCENARIOS

As the Offer is a voluntary public tender and exchange offer, no form of allotment applies.

INTESA SANPAOLO

PRESS RELEASE

VOLUNTARY PUBLIC TENDER AND EXCHANGE OFFER PROMOTED BY INTESA SANPAOLO S.P.A. ON ALL THE ORDINARY SHARES OF BANCA MONTE DEI PASCHI DI SIENA S.P.A.

Notice pursuant to article 102, paragraph 1, of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 58 dated 24 February 1998, and pursuant to article 37 of the Regulation adopted by Consob with resolution no. 11971 of 14 May 1999 (the "Notice")

Turin-Milan, 8 June 2026 - Pursuant to and for the purposes of art. 102, paragraph 1, of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the "CFA"), as well as art. 37 of the Regulations implementing the CFA adopted by Consob resolution no. 11971 of 14 May 1999, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the "Issuers' Regulation"), Intesa Sanpaolo S.p.A. (the "Offeror" or "ISP") announces that it has today taken the decision to launch a voluntary public tender and exchange offer pursuant to and for the purposes of art. 102 and 106, paragraph 4, of the CFA (the "Offer"), concerning all the ordinary shares of Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena S.p.A. (the "Issuer" or "MPS") - listed on Euronext Milan (EXM), a regulated market organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A. - including any treasury shares held by the Issuer, less 2,266,510 ordinary shares of MPS owned by the Offeror as of today (the "Issuer's Shares"). As of the date of this Notice, the Offer will therefore relate to a maximum of 3,036,151,673 Issuer's Shares.

Given that the Issuer, as shown by the information published on the Consob website (www.consob.it) as of today, holds a shareholding equal to 86.348% in the share capital of Mediobanca - Banca di Credito Finanziario S.p.A. ("MB") and that, on 10 March 2026, the respective Boards of Directors approved the plan for the merger by incorporation of MB into the Issuer (the "MB Merger"), should the Offer be completed after the MB Merger becomes effective, the Offer will also be extended to the newly issued Issuer's Shares that may be issued for the purpose of the exchange of the MB Merger, which, on the basis of what was communicated by the Issuer to the market on 10 March 2026 (for further information, see www.gruppomps.it/media-e-news/comunicati/), are equal to a maximum of 272,012,804 Issuer's Shares, with no par value. In addition, the Offeror holds 1,626,319 MB ordinary shares, equal to 0.200%.

In the event of the fulfilment of the Conditions to the Offer (referred to in paragraph 1.5 below), or waiver thereof, as the case may be, and consequent completion of the Offer, for each Issuer's Share tendered to the Offer, ISP will offer a total unit consideration, not subject to adjustment (except as specified below), consisting of the following components:

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

(i) a securities component consisting of no. 1.600 newly issued ordinary Offeror's shares, and

(ii) a cash component of Euro 1.000 (one euro), all constituting the "Consideration".

Therefore, for every no. 10 Issuer's Shares tendered to the Offer, on the Payment Date (as defined below), no. 16 newly issued ordinary Offeror's shares, as well as Euro 10 in cash, will be paid.

On the basis of the official price of the Offeror's shares (equal to Euro 5.682) as recorded at the close of 5 June 2026 (the last trading day prior to the date of this Notice) (the "Offeror's Reference Price"), the Consideration expresses a valuation of Euro 10.091 (rounded to three decimal places) for each Issuer's Share and, therefore, incorporates a premium of 12.5% over the official price of the Issuer's Shares recorded at the close of 5 June 2026 (equal to Euro 8.970) (the "Issuer's Reference Price") and a premium of 17.4% over the weighted average price for the three months preceding 5 June 2026 (equal to Euro 8.356).

For more information on the premium incorporated by the Consideration compared to the weighted daily average of the official prices of the Issuer's Shares, please refer to paragraph 3.2 below.

Without prejudice to the possible operation of the Conditions to the Offer, the Offeror reserves the right to modify the Consideration if, before the Payment Date:

i) the Issuer and/or the Offeror were to pay a dividend to its shareholders, or in any case the coupon relating to dividends (or interim dividends) resolved, but not yet paid by the Issuer and/or the Offeror (as the case may be), respectively, or the distribution of which had been approved was detached, as the case may be, from the Issuer's Shares and/or the Offeror's shares, as the case may be, or the purchase of treasury shares; and/or

ii) the Issuer was to approve or carry out any transaction on its share capital (including, but not limited to, capital increases or reductions, purchase of treasury shares) and/or on the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, merger or cancellation of shares).

Any change in the Consideration as a result of the above will be announced in the manner and within the term provided for by the applicable regulations.

The Consideration is net of stamp duty, registration tax and financial transaction tax, where due, which will be borne by the Offeror. Conversely, any income tax, withholding tax or substitute tax, where due, on any capital gain realized, will be borne by the participants in the Offer.

The shares of ISP offered as a securities component of the Consideration will be issued by the Board of Directors of the Offeror in execution of the delegation to the capital increase pursuant to Article 2443 of the Italian Civil Code (the "Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer"). Such shares shall be paid up by means of (and against) the contribution in kind of the Issuer's Shares tendered in acceptance of the Offer and, therefore, will be issued with the exclusion of the option right pursuant to art. 2441, paragraph 4, of the Italian Civil Code. On the date hereof the Board of Directors of the Offeror resolved to submit to the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of the

The legal assumptions and essential elements of the Offer are set out below.

For any further information and for a complete description and evaluation of the Offer, please refer to the offer document (the "Offer Document") which will be submitted by the Offeror to Consob and, therefore, will be published in the manner and within the term provided for by applicable law.

The Offeror specifies that, in submitting the Offer, it relied exclusively on information and data made public by the Issuer.

1. LEGAL ASSUMPTIONS, REASONS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER

1.1. Legal assumptions for the Offer

The Offer consists of a voluntary public tender and exchange offer, launched pursuant to art. 102 and 106, paragraph 4, of the CFA and the related implementing provisions contained in the Issuers' Regulation.

The launch of the Offer is subject to the issuance of the Prior Authorisations referred to in paragraph 1.4; the effectiveness of the Offer is subject to the Conditions to the Offer referred to in paragraph 1.5, without prejudice to (and in addition to) the necessary approvals of the Offer by the Offeror's shareholders' meeting.

1.2. Reasons for the Offer

The financial and banking sector, both at Italian and European level, requires a consolidation process that creates large-scale projects capable of supporting the necessary investments, in the context of technological and operational evolution, to compete with new players and maintain adequate levels of profitability in an increasingly integrated market. The Offeror has therefore decided to promote the Offer in order to consolidate its position in the European banking sector and its presence in Italy, where it already operates successfully in all market segments.

The Offeror is one of the leading banking groups in Europe, with a well-diversified and resilient business model, and ranks among the world's best in terms of social impact and ESG aspects. This position has been built over time through a series of targeted aggregations starting from the late 90s. Recent experiences in Italy (in particular, the "Banche Venete" transaction and the acquisition of UBI Banca) testify to the determination and ability of the Offeror to pursue and carry out growth, consolidation and integration operations, minimizing the risk of execution, always respecting the distinctive elements of the merged entities, rewarding merit regardless of their original affiliation and without creating social tensions.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

A transaction such as the one between the Offeror and the Issuer represents a key strategic opportunity in the Italian and European banking field to accelerate value creation, with the achievement of high synergies combining scale, complementarity and low execution risk, with the aim of consolidating the main business areas of the two Groups, in particular: Wealth Management, Protection & Advisory, Corporate & Investment Banking, Retail & Commercial Banking and Consumer Finance.

The integration of the Issuer with the Offeror, in fact, through the combination of diversified, similar but at the same time complementary business models, will allow the new aggregate reality to better respond to market challenges, ensuring maximum customer focus, high solidity and significant sustainable profitability, while supporting the professional growth of its people, as well as the growth of the real economy and local communities of the country. This also thanks to the strengthened capacity to support investments and the significant technology investments already made in the past by the Offeror.

The Offer represents a market transaction addressed directly to all the shareholders of the Issuer, such as to guarantee them the possibility of being the driving force, by adhering to the Offer itself, of an aggregation between the Offeror and the Issuer that allows the full exploitation of the potential of the two Groups through the creation of an entity capable of:

- having an even more prominent role in the banking field in Italy and abroad in all lines of business;
- achieving consolidated profits in excess of Euro 16 billion in 2029;
- ensuring a high and sustainable distribution to shareholders, both with high cash dividend flows sustainable over time and with share buy-back transactions, offering a higher return than stand-alone scenarios, also thanks to the revenue and cost synergies deriving from the combination and estimated at approximately Euro 2.9 billion on a fully phased-in basis before taxes per year, an amount that is expected to be reached starting from 2029;
- investing in people, enhancing their skills and merit, offering ample opportunities for professional growth in an organisation of primary importance in Italy and Europe;
- further enhancing the efficiency of the investments already made by the Offeror in the IT field, in particular in cloud computing and artificial intelligence, thanks to their application to a broader scale and across a wider scope of activities, and through the achievement of higher revenues - also by leveraging a larger customer base, applying the Offeror's best practices, and capitalising on the complementary strengths of the Offeror and the Issuer.
- further expanding and diversifying its skills and business areas, consolidating its presence in Wealth Management, Corporate & Investment Banking and Consumer Finance, thanks to the distinctive skills gained in these sectors by the Issuer, in synergy with the Offeror's activities.

These objectives contribute to the further development of a solid, efficient and profitable European champion, with a low risk profile.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

1.3. Industrial and strategic aspects

The completion of the Offer would foster the creation of one of the main financial players in Europe and would make it possible to accelerate the achievement of the objectives stated by the Offeror in the recent 2026-2029 Business Plan, generating significant value and distribution, without social costs, to the benefit of all stakeholders of both Groups. In particular, the proposed transaction would give rise ([1]):

- to the second financial group listed in Europe by market capitalisation (approximately Euro 126 billion, for explanatory purposes);
- to a player with an important presence in Wealth Management in Europe and Italy, with customer financial assets of approximately Euro 1,700 billion as of 31 December 2025, with growth expected to approximately Euro 2,000 billion in 2029. In this context, the combination of the Private Banking and the Offeror's Insurance and Asset Management product factories and the Issuer's Private Banking and Asset Gathering activities would create a high synergy potential, thanks to an aggregate network of over 9,000 private bankers and financial advisors, also leveraging the high expertise of MB serving "High Net Worth" clients;
- to a major player on a European scale in Corporate & Investment Banking thanks to the integration of the expertise of the IMI CIB division of the Offeror and MB;
- to a player of primary standing in Retail & Commercial Banking in the Italian market even in areas where the Offeror has historically had a less significant geographical presence, consolidating a fundamental role in supporting households and businesses;
- to the leading consumer credit operator in Italy, with a complete and integrated product offer between product factory and distribution channels, while maintaining solid risk discipline.

Following the completion of the Offer, the combined entity will have access to:

- approximately 20 million customers in Italy, who will be able to benefit from the wide range of products and services that the Offeror already distributes to its customers directly or through its subsidiaries;
- an international network (with a presence in the world's main financial centres) specialised in supporting corporate clients in 24 countries, with the possibility of enhancing the offer to clients thanks to the Issuer's Group's expertise in the Investment Banking sector.

The contribution of customers and the resulting capital aggregates will be such as to consolidate the Offeror's position in Italy and in key foreign markets, providing a complete, integrated and high-quality financial services offering, thanks to the historical experience and strength of the Issuer's and the Offeror's brands in their respective fields. The combination resulting from the acceptance of the Offer will therefore allow the full enhancement of the Issuer, generating a high capacity to create value for the benefit of shareholders, customers and all stakeholders thanks to:

- cost synergies estimated at approximately Euro 1.5 billion (before tax, per year), deriving from economies of scale and the Offeror's proven ability to operate efficiently on the market

([1]) The data reported below take into account, where applicable, the consummation of the Unipol Agreement, as defined below.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

with an agile operating structure and without adding complexity, also thanks to the extension to the Issuer's perimeter of Isytech, the cloud-native digital technology platform of the Offeror. The una tantum related integration costs are estimated at a total of approximately Euro 2.1 billion before one-off taxes (Euro 1.4 billion after taxes);

- revenue synergies estimated at approximately Euro 1.4 billion (before tax, per year), deriving from the expansion of the customer base, the increase in productivity and profitability thanks to the integration between the wholly owned product factories and the distribution networks of the respective Groups by leveraging a distinctive offer model;
- strengthening of a Group that is a leader in terms of social impact, an engine of sustainable and inclusive growth, which promotes local realities and supports customers in the sustainable transition;
- improved ability to attract new talent with a strong commitment to support the growth of the core business through new hires that will in fact absorb the voluntary redundancies hypothesised by the Offeror, thus favouring generational turnover within the new Group, without social impacts;
- maintenance of an extremely solid capital base even at the end of the transaction (pro-forma Common Equity Tier 1 Ratio above 14% in 2029).

The estimate of the above synergies is calculated on the perimeter that will result following the execution of the Unipol Agreement (as defined below).

With a view to accelerating the achievement of the above industrial objectives, the Offeror intends to proceed, as soon as possible, with the delisting of the Issuer, if necessary through a merger between the Issuer and the Offeror, taking into account the management of the antitrust issues referred to below.

Disposals following the Offer and Antitrust

The Offeror has today entered into an agreement with Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A. (the "Unipol Agreement"), which has undertaken, for the development of its business, to acquire (following the completion of the Offer and the Issuer's adherence to the Unipol Agreement, as well as subject to obtaining the necessary authorisations) the entire share capital of a banking legal entity, possibly identified as the Issuer itself, and in any case operating under its brand and distinctive signs, with a business perimeter consisting of a set of 635 branches of the Issuer (with the related assets and legal relationships), as well as the majority of the Issuer's central structures and activities (with related assets and liabilities), necessary to operate as a bank on a standalone basis. The Unipol Agreement is intended to proactively manage antitrust issues. In particular, it should be noted that the Unipol Agreement is industrial in nature and its execution is subject to the completion of the Offer, which is promoted by ISP in total and exclusive autonomy and with full and discretionary decision-making power also with regard to the waiver (where applicable) of any Conditions to the Offer, as well as the Issuer's accession.

For further information on the Unipol Agreement, please refer to the press releases of ISP and Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A. that are issued on today's date.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

Failure to complete the MB Merger

In the event that, for any reason, (a) the MB Merger does not become effective by the end of 2026 (as communicated by the Issuer on 10 March 2026), or in any case before the Payment Date of the Offer, and (b) the Offeror waives the relevant Condition to the Offer referred to in paragraph 1.5 below, point (vii), the Offeror - in the event of completion of the Offer and if the conditions are met, in consideration of the indirect purchase by the Offeror, following the completion of the Offer, of the shareholding in MB owned by the Issuer - will launch a mandatory public offer pursuant to the combined provisions of Articles 106, paragraphs 1 and 3, letter a), of the CFA and 45 of the Issuers' Regulation on the ordinary shares of MB not held by the Issuer.

Shareholding in Assicurazioni Generali S.p.A.

It should be noted that the shareholding in Assicurazioni Generali S.p.A. ("AG") held by MB will be maintained in continuity with the current accounting treatment according to the equity method, as a non-controlling equity investment and without interference with the governance of AG, and will benefit from the prudential regime of the so-called Danish Compromise, given that the Offeror is already a financial conglomerate.

1.4. Permissions

The Offeror, by the date of submission of the Offer Document to Consob, will file with the competent Authorities the following requests and necessary communications for obtaining the authorizations required by the applicable legislation in relation to the Offer (collectively, the "Prior Authorizations"):

(i) application to the European Central Bank and the Bank of Italy for prior authorisation to acquire a controlling interest in the Issuer, as well as an indirect controlling interest in MB (in the event that, on the Payment Date, the MB Merger has not become effective) or in the bank to which, as a result of the MB Merger, the Corporate & Investment Banking and Private Banking activities are transferred (as specified in the project communicated by the Issuer to the market), as well as - where applicable - indirect controlling or qualifying shareholdings in Italian and foreign banks controlled or participated by the Issuer, MB and AG, pursuant to Articles 19 and 22 of the Italian Legislative Decree No. 385 of 1 September 1993 ("CBA");

(ii) prior application/communication to the Bank of Italy for prior authorizations/clearances for the acquisition of indirect controlling or qualifying shareholdings in asset management companies, securities brokerage companies, payment institutions and other financial intermediaries in which the Issuer directly or indirectly holds a controlling or qualifying interest, pursuant to, as the case may be, art. 19, 22, 110 and 114-quinquies.3 of the CBA and art. 15 of the CFA;

(iii) application to IVASS for prior authorisations for the acquisition of a qualified indirect shareholding in AG (and its insurance subsidiaries), pursuant to art. 68 et seq. of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 209 of 7 September 2005;

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

(iv) requests and prior communications to the competent authorities which, pursuant to sector regulations, are due in advance in relation to the acquisition of indirect controlling or qualified shareholdings in companies, including foreign ones, in which the Issuer has a direct or indirect interest;

(v) application to the European Central Bank and the Bank of Italy for prior verification that the amendments to the Offeror's Articles of Association, deriving from the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer (and the related Delegated Powers, as defined below), do not conflict with the sound and prudent management of the Offeror, pursuant to Articles 56 and 61 of the CBA and its implementing regulations, and for the eligibility of the new shares issued under the aforementioned Capital Increase between the Offeror's own funds as Common Equity Tier 1 capital, pursuant to art. 26 and 28 of the EU Regulation No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(vi) application to the European Central Bank and the Bank of Italy for authorisation to acquire direct and indirect shareholdings which, in total, exceed 10% of the consolidated own funds of the Offeror's banking group, pursuant to Articles 53 and 67 of the CBA, as implemented in Part Three, Chapter I, Section V, of the Bank of Italy's Circular no. 285 of 17 December 2013, as subsequently amended and supplemented (also as a result of the implementation of the so-called CRD VI Directive), with positive feedback also regarding the application of the prudential regime known as the "Danish Compromise" to the investment in AG;

(vii) all other applications for obtaining prior authorizations or authorizations which, pursuant to the sector regulations referred to in art. 102, paragraph 4, of the CFA, may be necessary in relation to the Offer, including those that may be requested from the competent foreign authorities.

It should be noted that, pursuant to art. 102, paragraph 4, of the CFA, the approval of the Offer Document by Consob may take place only after obtaining (if applicable, also in the form of tacit consent) each of the Prior Authorisations.

In addition, the Offeror will submit, by the date of submission to Consob of the Offer Document, all other communications and applications for obtaining the authorisations that may be requested by any Authority for the purpose of completing the Offer, including the applications to the competent authorities having jurisdiction over the control (i) of concentrations between companies, (ii) of foreign investments, including that to the Presidency of the Council of Ministers pursuant to Article 2 of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 21 of 15 March 2012 and subsequent amendments (golden power) (FDI) and (iii) of foreign subsidies distorting the internal market (FSR), to which the Offeror will notify the Transaction, subject to the occurrence of the applicable regulatory conditions (the "Other Authorisations" and, together with the Prior Authorisations, the "Authorisations").

The Offeror points out that, in defining the applications for obtaining the Authorisations required by the applicable regulations in relation to the Offer, it has relied exclusively on information in the public domain concerning the qualifying shareholdings directly or indirectly held by the Issuer and MB. Taking into account the different jurisdictions involved, the Issuer will provide the necessary cooperation for the purposes of the submission by the Offeror of all the applications necessary to obtain the Authorisations, in a manner to be defined with the Offeror and such as to ensure the confidentiality of the information.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

1.5. Conditions to the Offer

The Offer is subject to the approval of the proposal for the Delegated Powers (as defined below, paragraph 3.2.3) for the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of the Offeror and to the approval of the Offer Document by Consob following the relevant investigation within the terms of Article 102, paragraph 4, of the CFA.

In addition, the Offer is subject to the occurrence of each of the following conditions of effectiveness (acknowledging that the same are specified below according to a sequence that is not exhaustive), conditions that could be further detailed in the Offer Document ("Conditions to the Offer"):

3. ESSENTIALS OF THE OFFER

3.1. Category and quantity of financial instruments subject to the Offer

The Offer will have as its object no. 3,036,151,673 Issuer's Shares, with regular dividend rights, listed on the regulated market Euronext Milan organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A., representing, as of the date of this Notice, the entire share capital of the Issuer, corresponding to all the shares issued and outstanding as of today (including any treasury shares held by the Issuer), less the 2,266,510 ordinary shares of MPS owned by the Offeror as of today.

On the basis of public information as of today in relation to the MB Merger, the number of Issuer's Shares subject to the Offer could increase in the event of the issuance of additional Issuer's Shares for the purpose of the exchange of the MB Merger, if the Offer were to be completed after the MB Merger became effective, as well as in the event of issuance of additional Issuer's Shares to service share-based incentive plans.

The Issuer's Shares tendered to the Offer shall be free from restrictions or encumbrances of any kind, whether in rem or personal, and freely transferable to the Offeror.

The number of Issuer's Shares subject to the Offer may be reduced as a result of any purchases of Issuer's Shares made by the Offeror before the start of the Acceptance Period, or during the Acceptance Period, as may be extended, in accordance with and within the limits set out in applicable law. Any such purchases will be promptly disclosed to the market pursuant to art. 41, paragraph 2, letter c), of the Issuers' Regulation.

The Offer is addressed without distinction and on equal terms to all holders of the Issuer's Shares.

3.2. Consideration of the Offer

3.2.1. Offer Consideration per Share

Should the Conditions to the Offer be met (or be waived in whole or in part) and therefore the Offer is completed, the Offeror will recognize, for each Issuer's Share tendered to the Offer, the Consideration, not subject to adjustment (except as indicated below) consisting of the following components:

(i) a securities component consisting of no. 1.600 ordinary Offeror's shares issued in execution of the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer; and

(ii) a cash component equal to Euro 1.000 (one Euro).

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

On the basis of the official price of the Offeror's shares recorded at the close of 5 June 2026 (equal to Euro 5.682), the Consideration expresses a valuation of Euro 10.091 (rounded to the third decimal place) for each Issuer's Share and, therefore, incorporates the following premiums with respect to the arithmetic average weighted by the volumes traded, of the official prices of the Issuer's Shares in the following periods indicated (source: FactSet):

Reference date	Weighted average price of the Issuer Share	Premium
5 June 2026	8.970	12.5%
1 month prior to 5 June 2026 (included)	9.126	11.8%
3 months prior to 5 June 2026 (included)	8.356	17.4%
6 months prior to 5 June 2026 (included)	8.466	18.7%
12 months prior to 5 June 2026 (included)	8.126	20.6%

The Consideration was determined on the assumption that, prior to the Payment Date:

i) the Issuer and/or the Offeror do not approve or proceed with any ordinary or extraordinary distribution of dividends drawn from profits and/or other reserves and do not approve or carry out transactions for the purchase of treasury shares; e

ii) the Issuer does not approve or carry out any transaction on its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions) and/or on the Issuer's Shares (including, without limitation, merger or cancellation of shares).

If, before the Payment Date:

i) the Issuer and/or the Offeror were to pay a dividend to their shareholders or in any case the coupon relating to dividends (or interim dividends) already resolved, but not yet paid respectively by the Issuer and/or the Offeror respectively, is detached from the Issuer's Shares and/or the Offeror, as the case may be, or if treasury shares are purchased, the Offeror reserves the right to modify the Consideration to take into account the deduction of the dividend distributed from the Offeror's Reference Price and/or the Issuer's Reference Price used for the purpose of determining it; if, on the other hand, ii) the Issuer was to approve or carry out any transaction on its share capital (including, without limitation, capital increases or reductions, purchase of treasury shares) and/or on the Issuer's Shares (including, by way of example, merger or cancellation of shares), without prejudice to the possible operation of the Conditions to the Offer, the Offeror reserves the right to modify the Consideration to take into account the effects of the aforementioned transactions.

Any change in the Consideration as a result of the above will be announced in the manner and within the term provided for by the applicable regulations.

The Consideration is net of stamp duty, registration tax and financial transaction tax, where due, which will be borne by the Offeror. Conversely, any income tax, withholding tax, or substitute tax, when due, on any capital gain realised shall be borne by the recipients of the Offer.

The newly issued Offeror's shares, to be delivered to the shareholders tendering their Shares to the Offer as Consideration, will have the same characteristics as the Offeror's shares currently outstanding and will be listed on EXM. It should be noted that the newly issued Offeror's shares will be delivered, against the simultaneous transfer to the Offeror of the full and free ownership and availability of the Issuer's Shares tendered to the Offer, on the Payment Date after the closing date of the Acceptance Period, which will be agreed with Borsa Italiana S.p.A. and indicated in the Offer Document, except for any extensions or amendments to the Offer that may occur in accordance with applicable regulations.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

3.2.2. Maximum aggregate consideration of the Offer

In the event of full acceptance of the Offer, the shareholders of the Issuer who have accepted the Offer, on the basis of the current Issuer's Shares, (i) will be assigned a maximum of no. 4,857,842,677 newly issued ordinary Offeror's shares resulting from the Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer which, on the Payment Date of the Consideration, will represent 21.748% of the Offeror's share capital, assuming that the Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer has been fully subscribed (fully diluted); (ii) a total amount in cash of approximately Euro 3.0 billion will be paid.

On the basis of the official price of the Offeror's shares recorded at the close of 5 June 2026 (equal to Euro 5.682), the maximum aggregate consideration of the Offer, again in the event of full acceptance, will be approximately Euro 30.6 billion, an amount, the latter, equal to the sum of the maximum total "monetary" valuation of the securities component of approximately Euro 27.6 billion (corresponding to Euro 9.091 per Issuer's Share, rounded to three decimal places) and the maximum total cash component of approximately Euro 3.0 billion (corresponding to Euro 1.000 per Issuer's Share, rounded to three decimal places).

3.2.3. Characteristics of the Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer

On today's date, the Board of Directors of the Offeror resolved to submit to the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of the Offeror - convened for 10 September 2026 - the proposal to delegate to the administrative body of ISP, pursuant to Article 2443 of the Italian Civil Code (the "Delegated Powers"), the Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer, on a divisible basis and also in one or more tranches, to be executed through (and in compensation of) contribution in kind of the Issuer's Shares as tendered to the Offer (or in any case contributed to ISP in execution of the right to purchase and/or the obligation to purchase pursuant to art. 111 and 108 of the CFA, where the conditions are met), and therefore with the exclusion of the right of option pursuant to art. 2441, paragraph 4, of the Italian Civil Code, with the issuance of new ordinary Offeror's shares, with regular dividend rights and having the same characteristics as those outstanding at the date of issue.

The Board of Directors of the Offeror has also resolved, pursuant to Article 2440, paragraph 2, of the Italian Civil Code, to avail itself of the provisions of Articles 2343-ter and 2343-quater of the Italian Civil Code for the valuation of the Issuer's Shares to be transferred.

It should be noted that this regulation does not require a sworn appraisal of the assets contributed by an expert appointed by the Court in whose district the Offeror is based, in the event that the value attributed to the assets in kind transferred, for the purposes of determining the share capital and any share premium, is equal to or lower than the value resulting from a valuation carried out by an expert who (i) is independent of the person making the contribution, the company and the shareholders who individually or jointly exercise control over the transferor or the company itself,

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

In addition to the aforementioned valuation report of the Independent Expert, for the purposes of the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer, the explanatory report of the directors provided for by Article 2441, paragraph 6, of the Italian Civil Code and the fairness opinion on the issue price of the new Offeror's shares will also be made available to the public, in the manner and within the terms provided for by the applicable legislation, which will be issued by EY S.p.A., the company appointed to audit the Offeror, pursuant to art. 2441, paragraph 6, of the Italian Civil Code and 158 of the CFA.

The Offer may be initiated only subject and subsequent to (i) the approval, by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of the Offeror, of the proposed Delegated Powers for the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer, as well as (ii) the resolution, by the Board of Directors of the Offeror, of the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer in exercise of the Delegated Powers. These resolutions presuppose, in turn, that the aforementioned fairness opinion issued by the Offeror's auditing firm has been issued, pursuant to art. 2441, paragraph 6, of the Italian Civil Code and 158 of the CFA, as well as the report of the Independent Expert, pursuant to art. 2343-ter, paragraph 2, letter b), of the Italian Civil Code; moreover, the effectiveness of the same resolutions is subject to obtaining the Prior Authorization referred to in paragraph 1.4, point (v) above.

3.2.4. Offer Acceptance Period. Payment of the Consideration

The period of acceptance of the Offer - which, pursuant to Article 40, paragraph 2, letter b) of the Issuers' Regulation, will be agreed with Borsa Italiana and will last between a minimum of 15 and a maximum of 40 trading days, unless extended - will start after the publication of the Offer Document, in accordance with the provisions of law (the "Acceptance Period").

On the Payment Date, the payment of the Consideration will take place, as specified in the Offer Document (without prejudice to any extensions or other amendments to the Offer, which may occur in accordance with the provisions of law or regulation in force), against the transfer to the Offeror of the Issuer's Shares subject to this Offer, subject to subscription, by the participating shareholders, of the acceptance form, made available for this purpose by the appointed intermediaries, and the completion of all the formalities necessary for the transfer of the Shares to the Offeror.

The payment of the Consideration is net of stamp duty, registration tax and tax on financial transactions, where due, which will be borne by the Offeror. Conversely, any income tax, withholding tax or substitute tax, where due, on any capital gain realised, will be borne by the participants in the Offer (also in execution of the right to purchase and/or the obligation to purchase and pursuant to Articles 111 and 108 of the CFA, where the conditions are met).

3.2.5. Guarantee of exact fulfilment

The Offeror declares, pursuant to Article 37-bis, paragraph 1, of the Issuers' Regulation, that it has put itself in a position to be able to fully meet any commitment to pay the Consideration. In particular, (i) the cash component of the Consideration through own funds, and (ii) the securities

3.3. Markets on which the Offer will be promoted

The Offer will be addressed without distinction and on equal terms to all shareholders of the Issuer.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Offer will be promoted exclusively in Italy, as the Issuer's Shares are listed exclusively on the regulated market Euronext Milan organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A..

The acceptance of the Offer by persons resident in countries other than Italy may be subject to specific legal or regulatory obligations or restrictions. It is the sole responsibility of the recipients of the Offer to comply with these rules and, therefore, before accepting the Offer, they must verify their existence and applicability, by contacting their consultants. The Offeror shall not be held liable for any breach by any person of any of the aforementioned obligations or limitations.

The Offer will not be made or disclosed in the United States (or directed to U.S. Persons as defined in Regulation S under U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended), Canada, Japan and Australia, as well as any other country in which such Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make an offer or solicitation.

The Offeror reserves the right to evaluate a possible extension of the Offer in the United States of America and/or in other countries, in compliance with applicable regulations.

The Offeror and its subsidiaries or associated companies may purchase, outside the Offer, Issuer's Shares in compliance with applicable regulations.

3.4. Indicative timing of the Offer. Changes

The Offeror will submit the Offer Document to Consob within 20 calendar days from today's date, pursuant to art. 102, paragraph 3, of the CFA.

Within the same deadline, the Offeror will submit the applications and the necessary communications for obtaining the Prior Authorisations, in accordance with art. 102, paragraph 4, of the CFA, as well as the necessary communications and/or applications for obtaining the Other Authorisations.

The proposal for the Delegated Powers for the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer will be submitted for approval to the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of the Offeror called for 10 September 2026. The Board of Directors of the Offeror will resolve on the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer, in exercise of the Delegated Powers, in the shortest technical time after obtaining the Prior Authorisations.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

The Offer Document will be published subsequently: (i) upon the approval of the Share Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer by the Board of Directors of the Offeror and (ii) upon obtaining the approval by Consob of the Offer Document itself after obtaining the Prior Authorisations pursuant to Article 102, paragraph 4, of the CFA.

The Acceptance Period will start after the publication of the Offer Document and will last between a minimum of 15 and a maximum of 40 trading days, unless extended, in accordance with the provisions of law.

Subject to the fulfilment (or waiver) of the Conditions to the Offer and the completion of the Offer, the payment of the Consideration to the holders of the Issuer's Shares tendered to the Offer, against the transfer to the Offeror of the ownership of said Issuer's Shares, will take place on the date that will be indicated in the Offer Document, without prejudice to any extensions or other amendments to the Offer that may occur in accordance with the current statutory or regulatory provisions (the "Payment Date").

It should be noted that the Offer, being promoted by a party other than those specified in art. 39-bis, paragraph 1, letter a), of the Issuers' Regulation, is not subject to the mandatory reopening of the terms of acceptance provided for by art. 40-bis of the Issuers' Regulation.

In compliance with the limits imposed by the applicable laws and regulations, the Offeror reserves the right to make amendments to the Offer within the trading day prior to the day scheduled for the closing of the Acceptance Period.

3.5. Delisting of the Issuer's Shares

As specified above, the purpose of the Offer is to acquire the entire share capital of the Issuer (or at least a shareholding equal to 66.67%, as indicated in the Conditions to the Offer, unless waived, even partially, by the Offeror) and to achieve the delisting of the related shares from the listing on the EXM.

The delisting of the Issuer is considered to further the Group integration, synergy and growth objectives of the Offeror and the Issuer mentioned above.

Consequently, in the event that, upon completion of the Offer - as a result of the acceptances of the Offer and/or any purchases made outside the Offer itself - the Offeror shall hold a total shareholding equal to or greater than 90% of the Issuer's share capital, the Offeror hereby declares its intention to exercise the right to purchase the remaining outstanding Issuer's Shares pursuant to Article 111 of the CFA (the "Right to Purchase") and, in the case provided for by Article 108, paragraph 2, of the CFA, its intention not to restore a sufficient free float to ensure the regular performance of trading in the Issuer's Shares.

It should be noted that, for the purposes of calculating the threshold provided for by art. 108, paragraphs 1 or 2, and 111 of the CFA, the treasury shares held by the Issuer (if not already tendered to the Offer) will be included in the total shareholding held directly or indirectly by the Offeror (numerator) without being subtracted from the share capital of the Issuer (denominator).

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

THIS IS A COURTESY ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF THE OFFER DOCUMENT AND IS PROVIDED MERELY FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES. AS SUCH, NO RECIPIENT SHOULD RELY ON IT. THE ITALIAN VERSION OF THIS OFFER DOCUMENT IS THE ONLY OFFICIAL VERSION AND SHALL PREVAIL IN THE EVENT OF ANY DISCREPANCY WITH THE ENGLISH VERSION

If the conditions are met pursuant to Article 108, paragraphs 1 or 2, of the CFA, the Offeror will also fulfil the obligation to purchase the remaining Issuer's Shares from shareholders who request it, pursuant to Article 108, paragraphs 1 or 2, of the CFA (the "Purchase Obligation ex 108 CFA"), thus initiating a single procedure (the "Joint Procedure").

The Right to Purchase will be exercised as soon as possible after the completion of the Offer, including any extension of the Acceptance Period in accordance with applicable law, according to terms and conditions to be agreed with Consob and Borsa Italiana.

The consideration due for the Shares purchased following the exercise of the Right to Purchase and the fulfilment of the Purchase Obligation ex 108 CFA will be determined pursuant to Article 108, paragraphs 3, 4 and 5, of the CFA, as referred to in Article 111 of the CFA, as well as the applicable provisions of Articles 50 and 50-bis of the Issuers' Regulation. The Offeror will announce the occurrence of the conditions for the exercise of the Right to Purchase pursuant to the applicable regulations.

The Joint Procedure described above will be carried out after the closing of the Offer, under the terms that will be announced in accordance with the applicable regulations.
In the event of exercising the Right to Purchase, in accordance with the current regulations of the markets organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A., the latter will order the suspension from trading of the Issuer's Shares and/or the delisting on EXM, taking into account the time frame envisaged for the exercise of the Right to Purchase.

It should be noted that, in the event that the Offer is completed, provided that the Conditions to the Offer have been fulfilled (or waived by the Offeror), but the delisting of the Issuer's Shares from trading on EXM is not achieved as a result of the Offer, the free float may be reduced to such an extent as not to ensure the regular trading of the Issuer's Shares; in such event, pursuant to the regulations of the markets organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A., the latter may order the suspension and/or delisting of the Issuer's Shares. In this case, the Offeror hereby declares its intention not to put in place measures aimed, in terms of timing and methods, at restoring the minimum free float conditions necessary to ensure a regular trading of the Issuer's Shares.

In consideration of the recent entry into force of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 47 of 27 March 2026 amending the CFA, and the consequent amendments to Articles 108 and 111 thereof, the Offeror reserves the right to supplement the above to take into account any implementing regulations that may be issued by Consob, as well as any interpretative guidelines, including transitional law, that may arise.

Not to be disclosed, published or distributed, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly in the United States of America, Australia, Canada or Japan, or in any other country in which the Offer is not authorized or to any person not permitted by law to make such an offer or solicitation.

4. PUBLICATION OF PRESS RELEASES AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE OFFER
